PITTSBURGH MARKETS-DAILY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE POST. THURSDAY MORNING, Dec. 16, 1847. We took a "round" yesterday among some of the principal merchants, but could hear of none but small sales at former prices. We think it hardly necessary to quote in detail the few transactions we have reported to us. There were sales of Flour, Groceries, Grain and Provisions in all of which no change appeared in prices. The weather became cold towards evening, and men of business seemed inclined to shut doors and hug activity for the season. The water is still flood with any nervous complaints whatever to attend.— He proposes to teach the science to all who desire to make themselves useful. The lecture and exic-riments will be perfectly moral, as recommendations from Ministers and others will testify, and an attend ance confirm. Ministers admitte
