NORTH-WEST TRADE AND TRAVEL. THE MORNING POSTS I have read two articles in the Gazette, on the subject of a Western Railroad, by a writer who signs himself "PROGRESS;" which are well cal culated to enlist public attention. So deeply am I impressed with the vast importance to Pittsburgh of the Lake and north west trade-a trade which I-fear, is but too lightly appreciated—that I feel it to be a duty, to assist in awakening the public mind, to the vast interests which may be jeopardized, by a want of sagacious enterprise on the part of our citizens. We have been so long accuston. al to look upon our river trade as all important, in consequence of our sole reliance upon it, that it gent and free population creating wealth as if by will be between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, P. magic; and attaining, by education and enterprise, M; and in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and then, let us glance southward, along the lines of our noble rivers, where two-thirds of the territory is cultivated by slaves; where industry has no adequate reward; and the mind no springs to vigorous action;-let us compare Smithland and
