Townsend, Carr & Co.
SUCCESSORS to the old firm of C. Townsend & Co., and Carr & Rowland, beg leave to announce to their friends and to the public generally, that they are now prepared to execute all kinds of work in the coach and wagon making business, at the shortest notice, and warranted to be of the best quality. The very large quantity of seasoned timber with which they are prepared, and their facilities for business, enables them to insure the public that they are prepared to carry on business extensive and on terms rendering them bargains worthy of attention. Each house will be sold with 100 feet of ground in front, running back 110 feet to Park street, for only $500 more than the building cost the owner; or the purchaser may take a house and 40 feet of ground, at a price $700, less than the building cost, absolutely throwing the 40 foot lot into the bargain. These are the best bargains now offered in the city, and are deserving the attention of those desirous of securing cheap and genteel dwellings. The houses are in prime order. Enquire of the subscriber, who can be seen at the Office of the Gazette, every forenoon between the hours of eight and ten, and at other times at his rooms at Mrs. Hay's boarding house, Robinson's new Row, federal st. Allegheny City. D. N. WHITE,

PITTSBURGH CHAIR AND CABINET WAREHOUSE.
No. 85, Third Street, Pittsburgh.
THE subscribers would respectfully return their thanks to their friends and the public, for the very liberal patronage bestowed since the commencement of the new firm, and would earnestly solicit a continuance of the same.
They would respectfully invite those who want to purchase anything in the furniture or chair line, to give them a call and examine their extensive stock consisting of some of the most splendid Eastern and French patterns of Rosewood and Mahogany Furniture. Flattered by the very extensive patronage received in their business, they have, at considerable expense, made arrangements in New York, by which they will have the latest Eastern and French patterns forwarded monthly, thus giving the citizens of Pittsburgh an opportunity of patronizing home industry, and finding in their own city what they formerly would obtain only in the East. Having adopted the principle of small profits and quick sales, they will be able to sell at as low rates as any of the establishments in the Eastern Cities.
nov19-y ROBERTS & KANE.

Porter's City Daguerrian Gallery, Philo Hall, Penn st., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Franklin Buildings, Baltimore, Md.
Mr. Porter respectfully announces that he has at considerable expense fitted up apartments, and arranged light for Daguerreotyping purposes. His long experience in this art has enabled him to overcome many of the objections too common to pictures taken by this method.
Mr. Porter is aware that the impression has gone abroad (owing to the many failures to produce good pictures,) that clear and distinct Daguerreotypes cannot be made in Pittsburgh. His experiments, however, since he has opened his Gallery, fully warrant him in saying that as good pictures can be made here as elsewhere.
Ladies and gentlemen are invited to call and examine specimens.
Instructions given, and instruments and materials furnished upon reasonable terms.
All orders from country operators promptly attended to. nov25-tf

NEW ARRANGEMENT.
U. S. Hotel, Canal Basin, Pittsburgh, Pa.
THE subscriber having leased the above establishment, and having refitted and made some material alterations and additions, is now prepared to accommodate his friends and the travelling community in the best possible manner. The advantages of this excellent House are peculiar to itself, as those travelling by Canal, particularly in inclement weather, or landing at midnight, have only to step from the packet into the beautifully furnished apartments, where they will be contented and comfortable. In addition to the extensive accommodations belonging to the house, the proprietor has at great expense refitted, renovated, and made such additions as will secure to him the promise of his kind patrons "We'll call again."
The Bar, the Dining Room, the Chambers, and particularly the culinary departments, are so provided for that we challange competition anywhere.
The fare will be of the best the market affords, and the prices liberal.
The proprietor having been engaged in catering for guests for many years past in the east, feels assured that by strict attention to business with a watchful eye to the comforts of his guests, he will deserve a share of public patronage.

UNBLUSHING IMPUDENCE.—From a published card of M'Callmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That "they have abandoned some time since, the exclusive agency system," and that we have, right to claim "exclusive privileges with their teas." I never pretended to sell the teas of this spurious concern. I have been selling the teas of the New York Pekin Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been to New York four times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as wood dealers.
The tea business of M'Callmont & Bond is about eight months old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man or firm to assume; but the fact intended to imply thereby, that they have any connection with it or so called well known Pekin Tea Co., of New York, is entirely false, they having been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company having refused even thus far to confide in them.
I know not what kind of wool they keep, nor what kind of teas; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's of New York.
Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. M'Callmont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and have sent an agent out here to pull wool over the eyes of some of our good citizens. Look out for the black sheep.

A LITERARY AND FAMILY PAPER.
THE YANKEE BLADE;
A HOME JOURNAL AND FIRESIDE COMPANION,
Devoted to Literature, Education, Morals, News, &c.
Published Every Saturday at $2 per year.

PROSPECTUS OF VOL. VII.
This Literary and Family Journal having, during the past six years, met with the most brilliant and unexpected success, numbering its subscribers by thousands, in almost every quarter of the Union, the Publishers grateful for the many favors shown to them, have determined to make such improvements in its character, as will greatly enhance its attractiveness and value, and render it worthy of still higher applause. For this purpose they have just purchased, at much expense, from the foundry of Mr. B. M. Dickinson, several founts of new Scotch-cut type, with which the paper has been dressed throughout, in a style of surpassing elegance and beauty, while its size has been greatly enlarged, and various other improvements introduced, making it one of the best and most attractive newspapers in the Union.
Among other leading features, the BLADE will contain from one to four of the richest and most interesting STORIES of the day. Not only original, but the gems of the European and American Magazines, and in all cases a preference will be shown to such as can be published entire in a single paper. In addition, its columns will be stored with Popular Essays, by able writers, Choice and Beautiful
