Truly Patriolic:

With a view to satisfy the fanatical abolitionists, with a view to satisfy the fanatical abolitionists, after the mortand for no other reason.

Let all turn out to day, and vote as conscience and good sense dictates, and we will not learn the result.

With a view to satisfy the fanatical abolitionists, after the mortand for no other reason.

He also tells us, that the Postmaster General is not only with Pittsburgh and western New York. That in obedience to his instructions, immediately after their passage, the same dignitary took at the first step of war.

Government in New Mexico, was taken up, read a third time and passed. Mr. Hannegan of Indiana submitted a series of Resolutions, declaring that no treaty ought to be made which does not specify and define a boundary line between Mexico and the United States, capable of proper military defence, and that no monarchical government would or ought to be allowed; but that the Territory ought to be held as a province of the United States

The Bill making an appropriation for the construction of a Dry Dock at Brooklyn, was taken up and passed.

On motion, the Senate laid, aside the regular rder of business, and proceeded to the consideration of the Ten Regiment Bill.
