For, were he a Locofoco, there would b no motive for him to be silent; no impropriety in his proclaiming the fact to the world.

This man has uttered a truth, which it is imporant should not be forgotten. A Democrat has indeed no motive for concealing his political sentiments from his countrymen. And why is this? It is because those sentiments are in accordance with the Constitution ;- because they recognise the intelligence of the masses; because his efforts are directed to the accomplishment of the greatest good of the whole People, to the elevation of the masses, and the equalization of political privileges. The Democrat sees no impropriety in avowing such sen-

Important Warning to these who neglect a Cold. it is evident, and decided by the most experienced objectans, that Consumption is mostly encouraged by neglect of a Cold at the first attack. How many THE PRESIDENCY .--- The Taylor meeting, last evening, was a most magnificent failure. We persons are there that put off from time to time pro-curing a suitable medicine, until the direase begins to assume a serious character, when in all, prola-bility they are past the power of medical aid. May counted eight persons present, three men and five boys. We believe there was no organization. A call for a Scott meeting is to appear in some bility they are past the power of medical aid. May these lines prove a warning to those afflicted with the first symptoms of Consumption, that they may immediately use "Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY," which is expressly for the diseases of the respiratory system. It is certain to remove a Cough in a few days, at the same time relieving the pain in the side and breast, and arresting the progress of this fatal disease. Consumption I: The "Expecto-rant Remedy" has a decided advantage over all other proparations. It is entirely free from Opium, and all other violent Narcotics.
