L. HARPER. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PITTSBURGH:
THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 17, 1848.

VOICE OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY!

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES BUCHANAN,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

IN THIS PAPER, THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, TREATIES, RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS, &c. ARE PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

☞ Advertisers are requested to hand in their favors before 4 o'clock, P. M. This must be complied with, in order to insure an insertion. When it is possible, an earlier hour would be preferred.

☞ E. W. CARR, United States Newspaper Agency, Sun Buildings, N. E. corner of Third and Dock streets, and 400 North Fourth street—is our only authorised Agent in Philadelphia.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

The communications signed "CONCILIATION," "OMICRON," and "ERDY" have each been received, and will be published to-morrow, if we can find room for them.

The End and Objects of the War.

Mr. Clay, in his celebrated Lexington speech, asserted as a fact, that there existed no just ground for war on our part with Mexico; that the war was unconstitutional and unjust; that, even if there had been any valid grounds, upon which to war against that country, those grounds had been removed by us; and that, to justify any further continuance of the war, it was the right, and the duty of Congress, to declare the ends to be accomplished by it. In thus asserting the right and the duty of Congress, Mr. Clay has imposed upon his followers the task of presenting to their country, the true reasons why they are, and have been, opposing the war; and of submitting plans of operation, for its future continuance and assigning the limit to which it shall extend. This, he has asserted, is their duty. They constitute a majority of the popular branch of our general legislature; and therefore have the power to assert their views, in the most authoritative form; and to control, to a very great extent, the action of the other branches of the government.

The positions assumed by their great leader have been admitted to be true by the mass of his most active political adherents; and that which he declared to be their duty, is therefore unquestionable.—Notwithstanding this is the fact, in both Houses of Congress, in the columns of all their leading papers, and by almost every active "Whig" with whom we meet,—the question is asked What is the design of the President in continuing this War? It is upon the basis of the circumstances assumed to be connected with this question, that the federal party rest their opposition to a continuance of the war; and to the discharge of their duty to the Government and the People. The shallowness of this ground of opposition, has been very clearly exposed, in a recent speech of Senator ALLEN, of Ohio, in reply to Mr. MANGUM. He says:—

"The honorable Senator from North Carolina wants the information called for by this resolution; and other information, for a certain purpose. Now, what is this purpose? Why it is to know what are the political designs of the Executive in regard to the war—that is to say, what are his desires as to the result of the war? Now, the President of the United States is only one branch of the government of the United States. Congress is another. A leading, statesman of this country, whose voice possibly, is as potential within as it is without these walls, has laid it down as a right belonging to the two Houses of Congress, not that they should call upon the President to know what he means, but that they should express what they mean should be the end and objects of the war. Therefore, i' the honorable Senator from North Carolina has any extreme solicitude upon this subject, it is of far more importance for him to know what Congress means, than to know what the President means; because the President cannot act without the consent of Congress. Now, if the Senator desires to know what Congress means to do, what object they desire to accomplish, the mode in which he can ascertain it is simply to offer a resolution declaring what Congress means shall be the object aimed at in the prosecution of this war. It is of no consequence, sir, upon this great question, to quibble about what the President may secretly design. We are told by this high authority with the gentleman and his friends that it is the right and duty of Congress to declare what shall be the objects and purpose of this war. Let them come up to the mark and lay before us their views.

Mr. Clay and the War.

"The policy that looks to peace as the end of war; and to war, as the means of peace."

Such was the sentiment of Mr. Clay, on the 25th of January, 1814, when our country was engaged in a war with England—denounced, by the Federalists of that day, as an unholy war; in relation to which, nearly all the presses of their party, and every pulpit which could be controlled by them, united in "giving aid and comfort" to the enemy; and in denouncing the administration of JAMES MADISON and its supporters. But, "How are the mighty fallen! Tell it not in Gath—publish it not in the streets of Askelon!" Henry Clay was then acting with the Democratic party. He was then one of the number of those who loved their country above all personal considerations,—one of those who were reviled by Federalists for that devotion to their country. And where do we find him now? The leader of all who remain true to the political doctrines for which they then contended,—the foremost among the traducers of that country which he then so warmly defended. How sincerely do we wish that the glare of royalty, of which he enjoyed a sight while Minister at Ghent, had not weaned him from his first love.

New County.

Petitioners are now in circulation praying the Legislature to create a new county, to be called OREGON, to be taken from parts of Westmoreland, Allegheny, Butler, and Armstrong counties. The boundaries are described as follows That it commence at the North West corner of West Deer Township, Allegheny County, on the Butler County line; thence by a direct line to the North East corner of Buffalo Township, Butler County, thence by a direct line, to the mouth of the Kiskiminitas River; thence up said river to the South East corner of Washington Township, in Westmoreland County; thence by the line dividing Washington and Salem Township to the South West corner of Washington Township; thence by a direct line to a point on the County line, dividing Westmoreland and Allegheny Counties, at or near Samuel Pixler's; theuce by a direct line to the South West corner of West Deer Township, Allegheny County; the nce by the West line of said Township to the place of beginning.

Excellent.

We find the following in the proceedings of the House at Harrisburgh, a few days since. We have no doubt but the people of other places besides the borough of York would live as peaceable and get a long just as well if the lawyers would be absent: "Mr. Williams presented a petition from citizens of York county and borough, stating that all the lawyers of York county were now at Harrisburg, and that the people thereof were enjoying unusual peace and quiet, in consequence of their absence, and praying the Legislature to keep them there by some legal enactment—which was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary."

BACKING OUT.—We opine that the great Scott demonstration, intended to come off on the 22nd, will be a lamentable failure. There is certainly a screw loose somewhere. The editor of the American, who was but a little while ago the grand leader of the Scott party, in his paper of yesterday, exhibits a most unmistakeable intention of crabbing. The leaders of the Whig party are for Clay, and for no body else, and several of the most influential of them will not vote for either Scott or Taylor should they be nominated. Mr. Knox and some others go further and declare that they will vote for the Democratic nominee in that event.

The Lake Fisheries.

In order to inform our readers of the vast importance of this branch of our national industry,—which has sprung up in a few years, and attained to its present importance without any of the fostering aid (or protection) of the General government:—we subjoin the following comparative statement, from the Detroit Free Press. When we see that the native industry and enterprise of our citizens, alone, enables them to succeed to so wonderful an extent, it may well be questioned whether, (even admitting that our government has the constitutional power to bestow especial protection, upon any individual interests, which we deny) good policy would not forbid any interference, by our government, with the business concerns of individuals.

The aggregate of the mackerel fisheries of Massachusetts and those of our lake in white fish and trout, may be seen by the following. The particulars of the Massachussets trade are copied from the statistics of the products of that state, recently published by order of the Legislature. The minutia of our lake fisheries were procured last summer, by a gentleman who visited many of the fishing and packing grounds

MACKEREL FISHERY OF MASSACHUSSETS—1846.

[Copied from the State Statistics.]

	Barrels.
Suffolk county	7,435
Essex	20,247
Middlesex	75
Norfolk	8,883
Plymouth	10,388
Barnstable	29,407
Dukes	217
Total	86,638

WESTERN LAKE FISHERIES—1846.

[White Fish and Trout]

	Barrels.
Packed at Mackinaw	19,420
Ste Marie	1,725
Ste Marie River	6,000
Beaver Island and vicinity	10,000
Presque Isle, Thunder Bay, &c	12,000
Green Bay	500
Twin Rivers	2,000
Mauristee	1,000
Sheboygan River	600
Racine River	400
Saginaw Bay	3,000
Fort Gratiot and shores of Saline Co	3,500
River St. Clair	1,000
Detroit River	2,000
Lake Erie	5,000
Lake Ontario	4,000
	68,145

Lake Superior abounds with them in great abundance, and the coming season many fishing grounds will be cleared and improved. With this new field and ordinary luck, it is safe to estimate the packing by another year at 100,000 barrels. Were the same bounty extended to the tonnage of the craft engaged in the business, as is now the case on salt water, it needs but a limited prophecy to see the extension of the fisheries to an amount and value equal to the cod and mackerel united, in a few years.

DISTRESS AMONG OPERATIVES.—The Eastern papers are filled with accounts of the distresses existing in the manufacturing distr cts, on account of the low prices of wages, and the general stagnation of business. The manufacturers are compelled to limit their operations in consequence of the heavy importations from abroad. The blessings of the Tariff of '46 is intolerable!

☞ We clip the above from the Philadelphia News, an ably edited, but very bitter little federal paper. It affords a fair specimen of the manner in which the federal Editors are endeavoring to get up a panic for the benefit of their candidate for the Presidency, whoever he may be. It will be seen that the names of the "Eastern papers" are not given, nor the "manufacturing districts" stated. If the "distress" spoken of existed, our word for it the federal Editors would not delay for a moment in giving the full particulars. The truth is, the country never enjoyed a higher degree of prosperity than during the past few years, every branch of industry has flourished, and is still flourishing, and every attempt of the federal party to create a panic, will only have the effect of making the political downfall the more certain.

LOCAL MATTERS.

LOOK OUT.—We warn the keepers of boarding houses to beware of the six young 'uns who advertise in another column for a boarding. We are unfortunately acquainted with a few of the number, and can say, that a more accomplished squad of scamps—in this line—does not exist in our city.—But this is not the greatest fault. We understand that the house in which they lodge, has failed entirely on account of their voracity. Though they are patrons of ours, we cannot resist the duty of giving this warning to the public.

☞ Mr. SAVORY, of the Fifth Ward, asks the privilege of erecting a frame shop, for the purpose of manufacturing nail kegs by machinery. A brick building will not suit him. We think, if the people in the neighborhood do not object, that counsels should grant his petition.

THE SWORD.—We called at Wilson's, yesterday, and took a peep at the sword, which is to be presented to Thomas Thornburgh, by his neighbors, on the 22nd, at the house of Mr. Drake, Chartier's Creek. It is a magnificent affair, and speaks well for the liberality of the Robinson township people; and will be such a token as a soldier would be proud to receive.

MESMERISM.—Mr. Spencer designs giving a few Lectures, in Allegheny city, next week, to commence on Monday evening, providing a suitable room can be obtained. From the success and general satisfaction his Experiments have given to us here, we doubt not the Alleghenians will give him a liberal patronage.

☞ Mr. Spencer's Class met last evening.

This evening he gives a public lecture accompanied by the customary experiments. This will be his last in this city. Those who are not yet satisfied as to the honesty of his experiments should attend to-night.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A laboring man named Boswell, was seriously injured on Wednesday last, by the falling in of some dirt in a cellar on Federal street, Allegheny city, in which he was at work. After lingering in great agony, he expired on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ There was a little bit of a fight yesterday in the city, on account of a Valentine. A chap sent one of these insulting messengers to a lady, and being found out, was thrashed by said lady's brother or lover. He feels better since it's all over.

HUDSON'S PANORAMA.—This magnificent painting is attracting large crowds; and all are delighted with it. We trust that none of our citizens will neglect to visit it during the time of its exhibition in this city.

☞ The Niagara Soiree comes off this evening. M'Affee, the music man, has arrived from Wheeling, and will certainly be in the Rooms to-night. The Dancers will be glad to hear this.

MORE DOINGS ON THE 22D.—Our folks will be busy on this great day. The Scott meeting, we observe, is called "on the 22d of February."

DISTRESSING!—They have the new crop of Tomatoes in Philadelphia. Hurry on with that Central Railroad.

☞ We yesterday noticed several companies of school children on their way to Philo Hall, to witness Hudson's Panorama.

INNS OF COURT.—On next Saturday the report on Alden's Project may possibly be read.

☞ The Model Artists appear in the Athenæum this evening.

DIED—On Wednesday morning, the 16th inst., ROSANNA, wife of WILLIAM T. M'DONNEL, and daughter of James Flanigan.

Her friends and those of the families, are particularly invited to attend her funeral, from the residence of her husband, on the Washington Road, three miles from Pittsburgh, on Thursday, (this day,) the 17th inst., at 12 o'clock.

☞ Masonic Notice!—A stated meeting of Franklin Lodge, No. 221, A. Y. Masons, will be held in the Masonic Hall, north-east corner of Third and Wood streets, at 8 o'clock, this (Thursday) evening. By order of the W. M.
JAMES HARROP, Sec'y.
February 14, A. D. 1848, A. L. 5848.
