IN THIS PAPER. THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. THEATIES. RESOLUTIONS OF CON-GRESS, 4c., ARE PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY. The Boundary of Texas.

As this is a matter intimately connected with th justice of the war, and affecting the constitutional power of the President, in directing the march of our army to the Rio Grande, ----which is declared by the Federalists to have been the immediate cause of the war,-we have heretofore laid before our readers many items of proof, calculated to falsify the declarations of that party on this point. Having carefully noted the facts relating to Texas, in he struggle for independence, and in her efforts to President- - JAMES DALZELL. ecome united with us, we have never, for a moment, entertained a doubt, either respecting her MARSHALL. capacity to maintain her independence, or the right Secretary-John E. Our forefathers had thrown off the yoke of Great Britain, by which act thirteen free and independent colonics assorted their rights, and defined the limits of their soil ; and Texas had proven to the world, during a period of ten years, that she was entitled to be respected in the assertion of her rights and her libertics. In all the efforts, therefore, that have been made in our country, to impute to our chief magistrate a wrong, in defending the asserted boundaries of Tex. employed can meet at the same festive board. as as, we have been forced to believe, either that there friends and brothers.
