150 000 made and ready to be offered on the most liberal lerms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment his now, after returning from the Eastern clies, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of conditioners with one of the most dearable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low price which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unriversed Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sules are eignt or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover contingent expenses. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my presentstock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap winter suit, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

UNBLUSHING IMPUDENCE—From a published of M'Calmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That "they have abandoned, some time since, the exclusive privileges with their tens." I never pretended to sell the tens of this spurious concern. I have been selling the tens of the New York Pekin Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been to New York four times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as recol dealers.

The tea business of M'Callmont & Bond is about eight months old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man or arm to assume; but the fact intended to imply thereby, that they have any connection with the so called and well known Pekin Tea Company of New York, is entirely false, they having been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company, I know not what kind of wool they keep, nor what kind of tens; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's of New York.

Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. M'Callmont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and have sent an agent out here to pull wool over the eyes of seehe of our good citizens. Look out for the black sleep. [novl] ALEX JAYNES.
