Is one of the largest and choicest in selection that has ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other, eity in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I now have to offer them; but will simply tell them that if they only favor one with a call. I will lay before them 175,000 different garments to make a choice out of, consisting in part of Conts. from the reliest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to the astopishment of the beholder, with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the most extravagant degree of surprise how such a vast collection of BELDT MADE CLOTHING mechanic, and the day laborer. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up isshionable, and at the same time substantial parments, to nicet their demands; and as for others, who fape; themselves moving in a different sphere, and requiring an article of the ne plus ultra kind, they have only te give me an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.

UNBLUSHING IMPUDENCE—From a published of and of MCalmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That "they have abandoned, some time since, the exclusive agency systems," and that we have right to claim "exclusive privileges with their teas." I never pretended to sell the teas of this spurious concern. I have been selling the teas of the New York Pekin Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been to New York four times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as recol dealers.

The tea business of NCalmont & Bond is about eight mouths old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man of irm to assume; but the fact intended to imply thereby, that they have any connection with the so called and well known Pekin Tea Company of New York. Scatterly false, they having been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company having refused even thus far to confide in them.

Taknow not what kind of woot they keep, nor what kind of teas; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's of New York.

Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. MCalmont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and bave sent an agent out here to pull wool över the eyes of some of our good citizens. Look out for the black sheep. [nov19] ALEX, JAYNES.
