It is that churches be furnished with lounges, so that those who desire to sleep may be enabled to take it comfortably. It is too bad that the frequenters of Mosting houses should be compelled to rest upon an arm, or the back of a seat, or nothing. Many purely disposed persons, we have no doubt are doubless, and not to the woods, or induced to spend the Suntant other woods, or induced to spend the Suntant othe WANTED—the name of the Manted. from the same State; and the result was, he was at one made a "lion" of by his party, and sent to Co-lumbus as an exponent of "Whig" principles.
