Clothing! Clothing!! Clothing!!!
Take Big Doors vs. The Western World!!!
150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS now made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low price which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover contingent expenses. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap winter suit, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.
oct31-d&w JOSEPH M'CLOSKEY.

SELLING OFF LOW FOR CASH!—Winter Clothing of every description, such as cloaks, over coats, superfine blanket, Beaver, Pilot and heavy broad cloths; superfine cloth, dress and frock coats; a large assortment of tweed, sack and frock coats.
Cloth, cassimere, and satinett pantaloons; also, a general assortment of vests; plain and fancy velvet, cloth, cassimere and fancy woolen, and plaid cassimere, with a great variety of superfine Irish linen, trimmed shirts, under shirts, stock, cravats, comforts and all other articles in the thing line, which will be sold low for Cash. Purchasers will find it much to their advantage to call at No. 49 Liberty street. P. DELANY.
N. B. A complete assortment of goods, suitable for the merchant tailoring business, on hand; such as English, French and American cloths, and cassimeres; also a choice assortment of seasonable vestings—all of which will be made to order in the latest styles, and on the most accommodating terms. jan12-daw

Clothing! Clothing!!
The Spring and Summer stock that is now ready to be offered at the old stand,
THREE BIG DOORS,
is one of the largest and choicest selection that has ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other city in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I now have to offer them; but will simply tell them that if they only favor me with a call, I will lay before them THEIR different garments to make a choice from, consisting in part of Coats, from the richest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to the astonishment of the beholder, with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the most extravagant degree of surprise, how it is possible a collection of such a magnificent character can be collected together under the control of one individual. But such things will be, as long as perseverance and industry is the mainspring of success. Without any intention of boasting, on my part, I will say at the same time, it is of such metal I am principally composed, for nothing in the shape or form of difficulties, no matter what their magnitude may be, can deter me from accomplishing my object, in providing for the farmer, the mechanic, and all other classes of the community. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up a reliable, and at the same time substantial garments, to meet their demands; and as for others, who fancy themselves moving in a different sphere, and requiring an article of the ne plus ultra kind, they have only to give me an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.
Now, let me say a word or two to my country merchants in the trade: If you wish to save from at least 25 to 50 per cent. in your wholesale purchases, call in at the "Three Big Doors," and if I don't meet your most sanguine hopes, in the way of getting cheap bargains, and fresh seasonable goods, I will not in future attempt to offer any inducements of a similar kind to a generous people of so noble a nature and close discernment.
JOHN M'CLOSKEY,
febl2-ly No. 151 Liberty street.

CAN'T BE BEAT!—J. M. White has just received at his large establishment, fronting on Liberty and 6th streets, a splendid assortment of TWEEDS for summer; also, a superior lot of French Satin VESTINGS, all of which he is ready to make up in the latest fashion and on the most reasonable terms as usual. Observe the corner, No. 107 Liberty and Sixth streets.

UNBLUSHING IMPUDENCE.—From a published card of M'Calmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That "they have dissolved, some time since, the exclusive power system," and that we have fight to claim "exclusive privileges with their teas." I never pretended to sell the teas of this luxurious concern. I have been selling the teas of the New York Pekin Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been in New York four times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as most dealers.
The tea business of M'Calmont & Bond is about eight months old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man or firm in a business; but the fact intended to imply more, that they have any connection with the so called and well known Pekin Tea Company of New York is entirely false, they have been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company having appointed even this far to confide in them.
I know not what kind of wool they keep, nor what kind of teas; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's or New York.
Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. M'Calmont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and have sent an agent out here to pull wool over the eyes of some of our good citizens. Look out for this black sheep. [nov19] ALEX. JAYNES.

HARNDEN & CO continue to bring out persons from any part of Great Britain, Ireland or the Continent, upon the most liberal terms, with their usual punctuality and attention to the wants of emigrants. N. B. King & Pinney invite the confidence and patronage of their friends and community at large to the liberality of the Insurance Company they are agents for, as the most flourishing in Philadelphia—as having a large paid in capital, which, by the operation of its charter, is constantly increasing—as willing to meet losses promptly, and stop the bleeding: it can always be relied on, and is invaluable in any family.

TAR OINTMENT,
For the cure of pains or weakness in the liver, back or chest; it will speedily remove any deep seated pains—These remedies have caused many to discard many fashionable blessings of invigorated health, and in a variety of desperate and abandoned cases, a perfect and radical cure.
The innumerable impositions upon the public, and the destruction of remarkable cures by unsk. ful empirics, led to by feigned names, or by persons wholly unacquainted with what they have engaged, renders it difficult to do justice to the public without sufficient explanation, and makes a trial of these invaluable medicines. They are entirely vegetable, and can be administered to persons of both sexes, and in any part of the country, by forwarding a statement of case, and directions for use, and enclosing the amount, which will be returned by mail, or otherwise, as directed. Any family should have a pamphlet—they can be had of the agent, gratis.

SILENCE THAT DREADFUL COUGH!—The Lungs are in danger, the work of the destroyer has been begun, the Cough of Consumption hath in it a sound of death.
Ear not a Mormon! Your darling child, your idol and cynosure, is now perhaps racked with the paroxysms by a dangerous cold—her pale cheeks, her thin drunken fingers, tell the bold disease has already gained upon her system, and that her days of happiness are numbered.
You So Man, when just about to enter life, disease sheds a baneful influence over the fair prospects of the future—your hectic cough and frantic hurry tell of your loss of hope, but you need not despair. There is a balm which will heal the wounded breast.
Sherman's All-Healing Balsam.
MR. ATTEE, the sole of Wm. H. Attee, Esq. was given up by the Physicians of Philadelphia, Dr. Rue and Dr. Mott of New York. The friends all thought she must die. She had every appearance of being in consumption, and what it will not injure the hair like the other preparations, but will beautify it, and give perfect satisfaction in every instance.
For testimony to its very superior qualities, see the following letter from the Rev. Mr. Caldwell to Messrs. Hendershott & Steetele, Nashville, general agents for the Southwestern States.
Nashville, Aug. 6, 1847.
Messrs. HENDERSHOTT & STEETELE:—GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in bearing my testimony to the excellency of a preparation called Dr. Parish's Chinese Hair Cream; for about two years ago my hair was very dry, brittle, and disposed to come out: but having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription, it is now the wonder of all who know it. Many balsams and oils were applied, each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations.
As an article for the toilet, my wife gives it preference over all others, being delicately perfumed and not disagreeably oily in nature. The ladies, especially, extol the Chinese Cream to be a desideratum in their preparations for the toilet. Respectfully, &c.
S. CALDWELL.

LADIES are cautioned against using Common Prepared Red Chalk: They are not aware how frightfully injurious it is to the skin; how coarse, how rough, how sallow, yellow, and unhealthy the skin appears after using prepared chalk? Besides it is injurious, containing a large quantity of lead. We have a perfect, safe, and reliable article, which we call Jones' Spanish Lilly White. It is perfectly innocent, being purified or all deleterious qualities, and it imparts to the skin a natural healthy, alabaster, clear, lively white; at the same time acting as a cosmetic on the skin, making it soft and smooth.
Dr. James Anderson, Practical Chemist, Sharpsburgh, Pa., says: "After analysing Jones' Spanish Lilly White, I find it possesses the most beautiful and natural, and at the same time innocent, whitening power I ever saw. I certainly can conscientiously recommend its use to all whose skin requires beautifying." Price 25 cents a box. For directions—the best way to apply Lilly White, is with soft leather or wool—the former is preferable.
A rose for one dollar, only 25 CENTS.—White teeth, foul breath, healthy gums. Yellow and unhealthy teeth, after being once or twice cleaned with Jones' Amber Tooth Paste, have the appearance of the finest specimens of ivory, and, at the same time it is so perfectly innocent and exquisitely fine, that its constant daily use is highly recommended by the most eminent dentists of the country, as, giving them a beautiful polish, and preventing a premature decay, those already decayed it prevents from becoming worse—it also destroys scurvy in the gums. And by perseverance it will render the toilet teeth of pearly whiteness, and give breath delicately sweet. Price 25 or 37½ cents a box. All the above are sold only at 82 Chatham st., sign of the American Eagle, New York. And by the appointed Agents whose names appear in the next column.

GERMAN MEDICINES
Are without a Rival, for the Cure of the following Diseases!
IF taken according to the directions they will cure any case, no matter who or what else has failed.
VEGETABLE RHEUMATIC PILLS.
For the permanent cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Gangrene, Hysteria, and severe nervous affections, and are highly recommended for the cure of Dropsy, Hemoral Asthma and Neuralgia. Patients using them, in most cases, experience benefit soon after the first dose. They quiet the nervous system, which enables them to rest well during the night. They never fail to effect a cure, when taken according to directions.
No outward application can permanently remove rheumatic pains from the system. Liniments sometimes act as a palliative for a short period, but there is always danger in their use. They may cause the pain to leave one place for, perhaps a vital part, or else where the pain will
