Eggs—Market glutted, and prices down to the lowest point. Sales yesterday at 6c; by retail 6c.

The weather yesterday at 6c; by retail 6c.

The weather yesterday was cold—rather too cold for comfort. The business in the streets was not as brisk as we have been accustomed to see during the past few weeks. Still, the regular sales to the trade were satisfactory.

On the Allegheny wharf there was the appearance of briskness, to say the least. The lumbermen and others rather low just now, which is a serious drawback upon business in that part of the city.

Flour—All that arrived was bought, but the receipts were light by river; but by wagon we noticed considers. The sales from wagon were at about $4.5524,62; at the former rate about 150 bbls. were sold; at the latter about 90 bbls. The wagon brands thit year are not much in demand; dealers say the Flour is not of so good a quality as in other seasons. The Flour received by river is good, and the demand yesterday was considerable.—We heard of but one reale, at $4.62. This is the price that was offered, but holders are afflicted with the idea that the price would advance, and they preferred storing their lots.
