Republique of Liberia.

We trust that our friends will be in no hurry, that another meeting will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, this evening, of all who feel an interest in the events connected with the infant Republic of Liberia, in Africa.

The republicans, now broadcast over nearly the whole continent of America, and producing such great fruits, as have been scattered over the world, a foreign land? May they always prove to their sons the man that forgets his home, has no feeling but pride in his country.
