Clothing! Clothing!! Clothing!!!
The Three Big Doors vs. The Western World!

150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS now now ready made, and ready to be offered on most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far-famed and extensive establishment has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low prices which I will be sold for, must certainly render the old universally Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary pressure which have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can continue with the constant rush that is made on this establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold. I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could, possibly think of doing if they wished to cover contingency of expenses. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; mercy is the conclusion. I will make it the interest, of every man, who wants a cheap wardrobe, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

JOHN M'CLOSKEY.

"SELLING OFF LOW FOR CASH."—Winter Clothing of every description, such as cloaks, over coats, superfine blanket, Beaver, Pilot and heavy broad cloths, superfine cloth, dress, and frock coats; a large assortment of tweed, sack and frock coats.

Cloth, cassimere, and satinett pantaloons: also, a general assortment of vests; plain and fancy velvet, satin, cassimere and fancy woolen, and plaid cassimere, with a great variety of superfine Irish linen, Grenmer and other shirts, under shirts, stock, cravats, comforts and all other articles in the C. B. line, which will be sold low for Cash.

Purchasers will find it much to their advantage to call soon, at 49 Liberty street. P. DELANY.

N. B. A complete assortment of goods, suitable for Customer work, always on hand, such as English, French and American cloths, and cassimeres; also a choice assortment of seasonable vestings—all of which will be made to order in the latest styles, and on the most accommodating terms.

Clothing! Clothing!!

THE Spring and Summer stock is now ready to be offered at the old original is one of the largest and choicest in selection that has ever been exhibited by any one concern in this or any other city in the Union. I will not undertake to describe to the reader the different assortments of articles which I now have to offer them; but will simply tell them that if they only favor me with a call, I will lay before them 175,000 different garments to make a choice out of, consisting in part of Coats, from the richest in quality down to the lowest in price; Pantaloons and Vests, to be an embarrassment to the beholders with both mouth and eyes open, wondering in the m ze of extravagant degree or surprise, how such a vast collection of READY MADE CLOTHING could possibly be collected together under the control of one individual. But such things will be, as long as perseverance and industry is the main-spring of trade. William can honestly state that nothing, on my part, I will say at the same time, it is of such moment I am positively opposed, for nothing in the shape or form of difficulties, no matter what their magnitude may be, can ever deter me from accomplishing my object, in providing for the interest of my merchants, and the day laborer. My whole attention is taken up with the greatest care for their welfare, in getting up fashionable, and at the same time substantial garments, to meet their demands; and as for others, will fancy themselves resorting in a different sphere, and by gaining an article of the ne plus ultra kind, they have only to give an outline of their wants, and they are suited to a word.

Now, let me say a word or two to my country merchants in the trade: If you wish to save from at least 25 to 30 per cent. in your wholesale purchases, call in at the "Three Big Doors," and if I don't meet your most sanguine hopes, in the way of getting cheap bargains, and fresh seasonable goods, I will not in future attempt to offer any inducements of a similar kind to a generous people of so noble a nature and clear discernment.

JOHN M'CLOSKEY,

UNBLUSHING IMPUDENCE.—From a published card of M'Calmont & Bond, of Philadelphia, the public would be led to believe that we have been claiming a privilege we had no right to. That "they have abandoned, some time since, the exclusive agency system," and that we have right to claim "exclusive privileges with their teas." I never pretended to sell the teas of this spurious concern. I have been selling the teas of the New York Pekin Tea Company for the last two years, as the public are aware, and have been to New York first times in that time, and never heard of this new concern until lately but as regal dealers.

The tea business of M'Calimont & Bond is about eight months old, and their assumption of the Pekin Tea Company's name is because a name is open for any man or firm to assume; but the fact intended to imply thereby, that they have any connection with the so called and well known Pekin Tea Company of New York, is entirely false, they having been denied even an agency in Philadelphia, for the New York Company, that Company having refused even this for to confide in them.

I know not what kind of wool they keep, nor what kind of teas; I am only certain that they keep or obtain none of the Pekin Tea Company's of New York.

Any person reading this card will see the gross deception they wish to practice on the public, and to the injury of my business. M'Calimont & Bond are wool dealers in Philadelphia, and have sent an agent out here to pull wool over the eyes of some of our good citizens. Look out for the black sheep. [nov19] ALEX JAYNES.

Great English Remedy!

FOR Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and Consumption:—The proprietor of the above diseases is the Hungarian Balsam of Life, discovered by Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and introduced into the United States under the immediate superintendence of the inventor.

The extraordinary success of this medicine in the cure of Pulmonary diseases, and the constant rush that is daily soliciting for treatment the worst possible cases that can be found in the community—cases that seek relief in vain from any of the common remedies of the day, and have been given up by the most distinguished physicians, no doubt the most powerful and efficacious preparation Balsam has ever been introduced to the public. It is no quack nostrum, but a standard English medicine, or known and used among the nobility.

Every family in the United States should be supplied with Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to counteract the consumption of the climate, but to use as a preventive medicine in all cases of colds, coughs, pains of the breast, hoarseness, and chest irritation and soreness of the lungs, bronchitis, difficulty of breathing hectic fever, night sweats, emaciation and general debility, asthma, influenza, whooping cough, and croup.

Sold in large bottles at $1 per bottle, with full directions for the preservation of health.

Pamphlets, containing a mass of English and American certificates, and other evidence, showing the unequalled merits of this English Remedy, may be obtained of the Agents, gratuitously.

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S VEGETABLE LITHONTRIPTIC MIXTURE.

THIS celebrated Remedy is now increasing its fame by the striking all over the world. It has now become the only medicine for family use, and is particularly recommended for Dropsy, all diseases of the urinary organs; for these distressing complaints it stands alone: one trial will convince you of the cures it will effect in all cases of Dropsy, Gravel, Diseases of the Liver Complaint, Bilious Diseases, Fever and Ague. To the Great Physician of the Nerves, wherever these complaints prevail, this medicine is offered.

This medicine is purely vegetable, and in no way does it compound is a part of this mixture; it cures these diseases with certainty and safety, and does not leave the system in a debilitated state, but gives it strength and tone to the digestive organs, and in a few days the patient is restored to health. In fact, no other preparation for this disease, or for any disease arising from impure blood, or for any disease originating from impure blood, or for any disease originating from impure blood, or for any disease originating
