this country. Bristofs Extract of Sarsaparilla.—It were but courtesy to call the attention of our readers to this invaluable prep-ration which will be found advertised in mother column. Mr. Bristol is a brother, and issues a highly interesting newspaper, every now and then, one or two numbers of which we have already noticed; and the medicine itself has been enlogised by nearly all the press of the western country, and, we doubt not, justly eulogised. It has in its invor, moreover, very flattering testimonials from the most eniment practitioners in every part of the country where it has been used. There is beauty and taste enough in the bottles, and in the engritved labels in which they are enveloped, to induce a purchase, even if the preparation itself were not one of the "soveriguest in the world," as every person must believe it is—that is, every one must believe it is—that is, every one who would not resist a mass of documentary evidence concla-sive enough to convert a Tark to Christianity.
