which they have arrangements with the St. George and Union Lines of Liverpool Packets, to insure a departure from Liverpool every five days, being thus determined that their facilities shall keep pace with their increasing patronage: while Mr. W. Tapscott's constant personal squerintendance of the business in Liverpool is an additional security that the comfort and accommodation of the passengers will be particularly attended to.

The subscribers being, as usual, extensively engaged in the Transportation Business between Pittsburgh and the Atlantic Cities, are thereby enabled to take charge of and forward passengers immediately on their landing, without a chance of disappointment or delay; and are, therefore, prepared to contract for passage from any seaport in Great Britain or Ireland to this city, the nature of the business they are engaged in giving them facilities for carrying passengers is not a rindand not otherwise attainable, and will, if necessary, forward passagers for fording a safe and expeditious mode of remitting funds to those countries, which persons requiring such facilities will find it to their interest to avail themselves of.
