We learn that MR-O'Connor was himself the first prism to coport the result of this meeting at the Home office. At l'o'clock he whited on Sir George Grey, and after stating that the meeting had quietly dispersed, expressed his thanks to the Government for the forbearance with which they had acted on the Methodist Church, yesterday. When we entered we found the members engaged in a warm discussion on the subject of a Memorial which had been pre sented from the St. Louis Conference (we believe-) From what we could gather from the incidental remarks of the speakers, the difficulty grew out of the Slavery agitation, which has already divided the Church-North and South. We did not understand he merits of the controversy, but could not help emarking the dignity with which the members conlucted themselves. The Memorial was finally referred to the appropriate Committee.

A committee was appointed to arrange the business for the action of the Conference. The motion appoint caused some discussion.
