IIT DR. WILLERD'S ANT-BILLOUS AND LAYER PILLS AGAINST THE WORLD:—The daily and weekly papers of the day are filled with long and labored advertisements, some professing to cure this thing and others that thing, but many of them professing to cure every thing. This doctrine does not, however, generally receive much favory yet some have supposed that a medicine existed that would cure all kinds of diseases some mysterious and generally unknown principle in the medical kingdom, which would dig out the very root of diseases. This than to suppose that it is so; such a thing mover existed save in the langination of the manufacturer of some "Elixis" of Lies? Universal Panacea. "Balsam of Life, or something of this kind.
