He said : "It is the stran-gest thing in the world how I did get that watch; I cannot account for it." He was asked if he had a key, to which he replied, "No?" but one was found in his vest pocket. He also said he did not know where he got the guard. Next to the getting of the watch the most astonishing thing was the idea that he had to go to jail, and that he would have to give some account of the affair or submit to conviction. But there are strange things in the world any how. He will get his trial immediately, as the Grand Ju-ry is now in session. DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN LAWMENCEVILLE.—The Demo crats of the borough of Lawrenceville had a very spirited meeting on Monday evening. Mr. Wilson was in the Chair, and Mr. Esler acted as Scoretary. Several excellent addresses were deliv-rered. Mr. Mitchell was the first called upon, Mr. followed in a happy strain by Mr. Snowden. Mr. Kinsloe made a few remarks, as did also, our excel-lent friend, H. MrCullough. This is the first meeting of the season, and those who attended report that the ball was started fairly.

FOUND .- The body of Mr. Fuller was found yes. terday morning, in the river near where he was drowned. The Coroner was sent for, who held an inquest. The verdict was, accidental drowning.
