"Watchman, what of the Night?"

All is well! all is well! Yes, we can in truth assure our friends every where, that "ALL IS WELL!" The prospect of an overwhelming Democratic victory, in November, is now reduced to the certainty of a "fixed fact." The honest and candid portion of the Whig party do not hesitate to admit, that the enthusiasm for Cass and Butler is everywhere increasing, whilst the great body of the "Whig" party are lukewarm and indifferent as to the result.

In Allegheny county, the Democracy are united, and are in excellent spirits. Some half dozen of persons, at most, who have sometimes professed to be Democrats, but who were never with us in heart—old Clay Whigs, Federal Antimasons and Abolitionists—oppose the election of Gen. Cass; but their influence does not extend beyond themselves, and it is a blessing to the Democratic party that such fishy politicians have at length "defined their position." For every man who thus opposes the Democratic nominees, there are at least fifty persons in the "Whig" ranks who will not support Gen. Taylor. This is no idle assertion, made for political effect; but the sober reality, as the result this fall will fully demonstrate.

From the neighboring counties in Western Pennsylvania, and, in fact, from every county in our great and glorious old Commonwealth, we have the most heart-cheering intelligence. Victory can be read in the face of every Democrat—it quickens every pulse, and animates every heart. Defeat, overwhelming and disgraceful defeat, will overcome the hosts of Federalism, as sure as the sun gives light to this bright and beautiful earth. Pennsylvania aspires to be the BANNER STATE, AND SHE WILL NOBLY WIN THE PRIZE! Illinois and Ohio, we know, will warmly contend for the honor of giving the largest Democratic majority; but unless they can exceed 30,000, they must not think of competing with the old Keystone State!

We say then to our friends, here and everywhere, be of good cheer. Our triumph this fall is certain. CASS AND BUTLER WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT, by the largest majorities ever given to Democratic candidates in the United States. Federal Nativism and No-party Whiggery will descend to the tomb of forgetfulness, "unwept, unhonored and unsung."

Let him Spark now!

Our readers will remember that, upon the nomination of General Taylor by the "Philadelphia Slaughter House," Seabury Ford, the federal candidate for Governor in Ohio, withdrew from the canvass, and declined making any more Speeches, until he could ascertain what kind of opinions General Taylor entertained, from a perusal of his letter of acceptance. Shortly afterwards, Col. Weller, the eloquent and popular candidate of the Democracy, in that state for Governor, delivered a speech to a large audience in Mr. Ford's own town, and seeing the latter in the meeting, addressed him thus: "Mr. Ford, I wish to know from your own lips, if you intend supporting Gen Taylor for President." To which Ford replied: "I shall answer that question in two weeks, when I see General Taylor's letter of acceptance." Although the precious document has been rather more than two weeks seeing the light of day, yet it is to be hoped that Mr. Ford will relieve the anxiety of his friends by "defining his position." It is said that if he comes out for General Taylor, he will lose the western Reserve vote, and on the other hand, if he opposes Taylor, he will lose votes in the Southern counties, along the Ohio river. Poor Ford! either way he turns, he sees rocks and breakers—Scylla and Charybdis are on the right and left.

More Steam Boat Voting.

We learn from the Cincinnati Enquirer that a vote was taken on board the steamer Mora Castle, on her passage from New Orleans to that place, which resulted as follows: Cass 122; Taylor 57. The federal whig and Donkey "neutral" papers, will please copy.

Several bloody fights have resulted from the factory strike. We do not care to notice them.

The Federal Candidates.

What a perfect anomaly is presented in the ticket submitted to the People by the Philadelphia Convention. On the one hand, they have a man whose associations, predilections, and sectional prejudices are all strong; and all on the side of the South and its institutions. On the other hand, they point to a man who is and ever has been the bitter and uncompromising opponent of all the doctrines claimed to be pre-eminently Southern;—a northern man, with the most deep-toned and inveterate northern prejudices. Here, they point to a slave holder, owning nearly three hundred negroes, and tell you that this man looks to the Constitution; that he will follow in the footsteps of "the earlier presidents,"—that his being a southern man is a sufficient guarantee of safety to our institutions—there is no danger of innovations being made upon the glorious bond of our Union. There, they tell you, is an uncompromising bankite, tariffite, bankruptite; a man to whom the lordly manufacturers can point with pride, and say he has never voted contrary to our interests; whom the abolitionists can swear by, so thoroughly has he ever been associated with them in feeling and in political action; to whom (as with Taylor) the Nativists can point, and with perfect assurance declare—he is one of us! To whom any one of the factions, who have for years sought to disgrace and subvert our institutions, may point, and confidently claim him as their friend,—whose highest aim has ever been to divide, distract, and overthrow the Democratic influence; and who has left unused no means, which he thought calculated to accomplish this end.

Such are the materials of which a ticket has been formed, to compose the head of the government of the United States;—a government based upon a mighty triumph of political principles; a government designed to reflect the will of a majority of the People in each of the States, with particularly defined powers, and knowing and countenancing no sectionality; a government recognising the capacity of man for self-government, and inferentially based upon his intelligence. Can such an attempt at the most despicable fraud upon freemen be sustained? We are unwilling for a moment to believe it possible. We are unwilling to think, that reasoning and reasonable beings CAN be thus made the tools and dupes of the unprincipled, mercenary and designing. There is but one state of things which, we think, could produce such a result,—the most abject want and suffering in our country;—and this, we do not believe can be brought about, by all the agents of Federalism, however actively employed, from this time until the day of the election. We think our country is safe; that our countrymen will not be disgraced; and that the demagogues will be signally defeated.

A Decent Whig.

Much has been said by the devoted friends? of the Volunteers, among the federal party, about the bill introduced by Gen. Cass in relation to the clothing of the volunteers; and much has been written by Federal editors on the same subject. Both those who talk about this matter, however, and those who write about it in such a manner as to reflect discredit upon Gen. Cass, are base and unprincipled in their opposition, or grossly ignorant of the facts.—This bill was introduced by Gen. Cass (as we said some days since) at the special instance of Col. Baker, of Illinois, a Federalist who had sufficient patriotism to volunteer in the Mexican war for one year. On his return, he took an active part in favor of the volunteers, making to the members of both Houses of Congress many suggestions in relation to the promotion of their interest, and their comfort.—This bill was one of his earliest suggestions, which was warmly urged by Gen. Cass and every member of the Military Committee of the Senate; and as we said, passed without opposition. We also stated that it was in consequence of the decision of a Federal officer at the seat of Government that a complaint had been made by the Volunteers. Gen. Jones, the Adjutant General of the Army, was that officer; and he has recently done justice to Gen. Cass in a letter, from which this is an extract:—

"It is certainly unjust to attribute to General Cass any agency in construing the last act of Congress in any way prejudicial to the volunteers; and I may add, I well know that his views are always liberal, and that he would be the last to advocate any measure which had for its object the reduction of their pay and allowances."

We do not believe that there is a single Federal editor in the country, who has a degree of magnanimity sufficient to induce the publication of this paragraph in his paper.

A Genuine Federal Sentiment.

Had the following appeared in the New York Commercial Advertiser, the Hartford Courant, or any of the high toned and genuine Federal prints in the eastern States, it would have occasioned in us no surprise. We have heard so many of the National Republican and "Whig" party advance similar ideas, in the eastern States, as to be fully impressed with the belief, that the man of that party who pretends to favor universal suffrage, and to be liberal towards the adopted citizens of the United States, only does so in accordance with the advice of the Boston Courier, a few years since; and "condescends to court the People!" But the extract we make is not from a New England Federal print; and, though such is not the locality in which the sheet is printed, we think it is hazarding little to say that the editor of it is a scion of the New England Hartford Convention Federal stock. The extract is taken from the Wisconsin Herald; and appeared soon after the result of the recent election in that State was made known. We advise our adopted citizens, whether Irishmen or Germans, to think of this matter. It is no new sentiment, advanced for the first time. It was a favorite doctrine of the father of Federalism in this country. It is a doctrine very prevalent among good "Whigs" now:—

"We are beaten. There is no mistake about it. The Whigs of Wisconsin are defeated, and federalism is triumphant. This is the fruits of unlimited, unintelligent suffrage. The party professing to be Democratic has taken FOREIGN PAUPERISM into its alliance, and has beaten us with the votes of aliens. Our Sovereigns are the RAGGED RABBLE OF EUROPE. * * * The Germans who speak nothing but German, are all Democrats," &c., &c.

Let it not be forgotten, too, that Gen. Taylor, the nominee of the Federal party, was first nominated by the Native American faction, who are united to a man in his support; and that he has accepted their nomination as a distinguished honor.

More of Gen. Taylor's Piety.

The New Albany (Ia.) Democrat, after copying from the Post an article in relation to the blasphemous and insulting language used by General Taylor towards the Ohio Volunteers, adds the following specimen of the General's piety, on the field of Buena Vista:

"By G—d, Mr. Crittenden, this is not the way for Kentuckians to behave themselves!"

"Give 'em hell, d—n 'em!"

We call the especial attention of our amiable and beloved friend Deacon White, of the Gazette, to these extracts.

Free Soil Movement in Ohio.

The "free soil" or Barnburning movement in Ohio, will carry off scores of whigs for every democrat—this is admitted by even the whigs themselves, in that State. The Cincinnati Gazette, Judge Wright's paper, says:

"An effort is now made for a new third party organization, which will inevitably have the effect to aid the election of Gen. Cass."

In addition to the large number of whig papers in Ohio, that we have heretofore alluded to, as opposing the election of Gen. Taylor, we notice the following:

FAREWELL TO TAYLORISM.—The Saturday Clipper, published at Troy, Miami county, Ohio, has come out in favor of the "Free Soil" party, so called. The editor says he was for Clay in '44, but that the Whigs have disbanded. He is not alone in his opinion.

We had a heavy rain last night.

Gen. Taylor in New York.

At a recent town meeting, held by the "Whigs" of Pleasant Valley Township, in Duchess county, which was numerously attended, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we have no confidence in Zachary Taylor, and cannot as northern whigs conscientiously support him for the Presidency.

And in a company of thirty one, assembled in the town of Pine Plains, in that county, upon taking a vote, it was ascertained that there were but three Taylor men present!

Major General Pillow.

We are pleased to have it in our power to announce, that this distinguished officer arrived in our city yesterday afternoon, and has taken lodgings at the Monongahela House. We trust that our friends will pay to him that attention which his bravery and meritorious conduct as an officer entitle him to.

The Eagle Saloon.

We have not called in as often of late, as we used to do, to see and hear what is going on at this very pleasant resort: but dropping in a few evenings since, we were handed some Ice Cream, by Mr. Clark, which would compare favorably, with any that can be made. We were assured it was such as he is constantly serving up to his customers. Then if one wishes a real treat in the musical way, he need only go up a little farther; and if there is any music in his soul, it will be set in motion. The Tyrolean Minstrels and the Ethiopean Serenaders are still delighting all their visitors.

The Donkey brayed again yesterday morning; but oh! it was an awfully sickly one! The poor little fellow really seems to have been out of breath. What could have been the reason of it? Did some one of the nasty Feds want him to take so large a dose of Taylorism, as was revolting even to his cormorant maw? Or, perhaps he had swallowed THAT SPELLING-BOOK, which proved to be indigestible! Do, boys, get him another, and also a copy of Cobb's Juvenile Grammar: and then ask him to study both till he learns how to parse—"We are determined to LEARN him good manners."

New Publication.

"Polly Voo Francay; or Eating all around the edges, to get the Good of it." This is the title of a humorous publication, recently issued by MORSE, at No. 85, Fourth street, and for sale by the Booksellers in all the principal cities.

Public Documents.

We are under many obligations to the Hon. JOB MANN and T. H BAYLEY, for their attentions in forwarding to us valuable and interesting public documents.

THE GREAT REMEDY.—The Olosonian, or All-Healing Balsam is still performing wonders. No other medicine has done so much to alleviate the sufferings of our fellow-citizens as this. No remedy has ever been known to cure Asthma with so much certainty and so effectually as this Balsam. A large proportion of the diseases of the United States are those affecting the Lungs, Throat, Liver, or Stomach, and for such this medicine is peculiarly adapted. The proprietor defies the world to produce its equal. Dr. Sherman, the sole proprietor and manufacturer, would urge upon all the necessity of procuring the Genuine, and not be put off with any imitation of it, or with any other medicine. So great is its reputation, that the unprincipled unblushingly attempt to pass off their worthless mixtures, hoping to share in the advantages of the proprietor's labors and expenditures, when they have not the energy or ability to get up and establish any thing themselves.

For sale by WM. JACKSON, No. 89 Liberty street, head of Wood, Pittsburgh. jy11

Goodson & Clark, of Bellevue, Ohio, November 23d, 1846, sent a letter to Dr. G. C. Vaughn, the proprietor of the celebrated Lithontriptic Mixture, the Great American Remedy, with a statement that in the vicinity of Ohio where they do business, the article has had unprecedented sales. Nothing like it has ever appeared. People resort to it for all complaints, and its effect is always good. Old cases, which have baffled the skill of medical men, have yielded to it, and the faculty are using it in their practice. A large number of medical men are agents for its sale—a strong proof of the great virtues of the article. Call on Agents, in our paper, whose names are to be found under Great American Remedy, and get a Pamphlet.

Agents in Pittsburgh, HAYS & BROCKWAY, No. 2 Liberty st., near Canal Basin. jy14

BOWEL COMPLAINTS occur more frequently during the summer months than at any other season, because at this season the system being debilitated, digestion is not sufficiently active to dispose of the food before it becomes putrified; hence a peculiar acid is generated in the stomach, which the cause of those horrid diseases called dysentery, cholera morbus, inflammation of the bowels, &c. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a natural remedy, and therefore a certain cure for bowel complaints; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels from those putrid humors which are the cause of the above distressing complaints. Consequently, as they remove the cause of every form of disease, it is impossible for them to fail in making a perfect cure.

Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations.—Remember that the Original and Only Genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

Remember, also, that Messrs. Feuchtwanger & Co., of New York; Jas. S. Glascoe & Co., at Cincinnati; and J. B. Wilder & Co., of Louisville, are not agents for this medicine, and we cannot guarantee the genuineness of that offered by them for sale.

The genuine is for sale at Dr. Wright's Principal Office, 169 Race street, Philadelphia; and by JOHN THOMPSON, 156 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., who is sole agent for this city, by whom dealers can be supplied at the wholesale rate jy25

BY AUTHORITY.

Acts and Resolutions passed at the First Session of the Thirtieth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 59.]

AN ACT to incorporate the Washington Gas Light Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That John F. Callan, Jacob Bigelow, B. B. French, W. H. Harover, M. P. Callan, W. A. Bradley, and W. H. English, and their present and future associates, are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the "Washington Gas Light Company," and, by the same name, shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity in the District of Columbia and elsewhere; and to make and have a common seal, and the same to break, alter, and renew at pleasure; to ordain and establish such by-laws, ordinances, and regulations, and generally to do every act and thing necessary to carry into effect this act, or to promote the objects and design of this corporation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock of this corporation shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars; that a share in the same shall be twenty dollars; and books of subscription to the said capital stock, or to such portions thereof as from time to time may, by the directors for the time being, be deemed proper and necessary, shall be opened by the appointment or under the direction of the directors hereinafter named, subject to such rules, limitations, and conditions, as by them shall be prescribed; and the stock of the said corporation shall be deemed personal property.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the stock property, and affairs of the said corporation shall be managed and conducted by or under the direction of five directors, being stockholders; and the said directors shall hold their offices for one year from the second Monday, and shall be elected on the first Monday in January, in each year, at such time and place in the city of Washington as a majority of the directors for the time being shall appoint; and that notice of such election shall be published in at least two of the public newspapers printed in the city of Washington, at least fourteen days previous to the time of holding such election; and every such election shall be by ballot, and by such of the stockholders who shall attend for that purpose, either in person or by proxy; and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of the stock which he or she may have held in his or her own name for at least fourteen days before the time of voting; and the persons having the greatest number of votes shall be the directors; and if it shall happen that two or more persons have an equal number of votes, the directors in office at the time of such election shall, by a plurality of votes, given by ballot, determine which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be director or directors, so as to complete the whole number to be chosen; and the directors so chosen shall, as soon as may be thereafter, proceed by ballot to elect one of their number for their president; and whenever any vacancy shall happen, the same shall be filled up by the remaining directors, by plurality of votes, until the next annual election.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That John F. Callan, Jacob Bigelow, B. B. French, W. H. Harover, M. P. Callan, and W. A. Bradley, shall be the first directors of the said company, who shall hold their offices until the second Monday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and until others are chosen in their places; and they shall proceed to choose their president at such time and place as they, or a majority of them shall determine.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall at any time happen that an election for directors shall not take place on the day appointed by this act for that purpose, the said corporation shall not, for that cause, or for any non-user, be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall and may be lawful to hold an election for directors on any other day, in such manner as shall be provided for by the by-laws of the said corporation.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the directors, or a majority of them, to require payment of the subscription to the capital stock of the said corporation, at such times and in such proportions as they, or a majority of them, shall deem fit, under the penalty of forfeiting all previous payment or payments thereon; and that previous notice, of the instalments required to be paid be published at least fourteen days in two of the public newspapers printed in the city of Washington.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the president and directors shall have full power and authority to manufacture, make, and sell gas, to be made of coal, oil, tar, peat, pitch, or turpentine, or other material, and to be used for the purpose of lighting the city of Washington, or the streets thereof, and buildings, manufactories, or houses, therein contained and situate, and to lay pipes for the purpose of conducting gas in any of the streets, avenues, and alleys of the said city; and, also, that the said company will so conduct the manufacture of gas, as not to injure private property or create a nuisance: Provided, however, That the said pipes shall be laid subject to such conditions, and in compliance with such regulations, as the corporation of Washington may from time to time prescribe: And provided further, That the right to erect or put up any buildings, works, or aparatus for the manufacture of gas shall be subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and regulations as the said corporation of Washington may or shall, from time to time, prescribe or direct.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall willfully do or cause to be done, any act or acts whatever, whereby the works of said corporation, or any pipe, conduit, plug, cock, reservoir, or any engine, machine or structure, or any matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped, obstructed, impaired, weakened, injured, or destroyed, the person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to the said corporation, double the amount of the damage sustained by means of such offence or injury, to be recovered in the name of said corporation, with costs of suit, in any action of debt, to be brought in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any person or persons, nor any incorporated company hereafter to be created by Congress for that purpose, from engaging in and pursuing the business specified in the seventh section of this act; and that it shall be lawful for Congress, at any time hereafter, to alter, amend or repeal this act.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to authorize the said Washington Gas Light Company to make, issue, or put in circulation, any bill, draft, check, order, promissory note, change ticket, or anything else promising or agreeing to pay money, intended to circulate as money, or the tendency of which shall be to circulate as money or currency; and the violation of any one of the provisions of this section shall be a forfeiture of the charter herein granted, and a fine of fifty dollars against each of the directors voting for the same.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That each of the stockholders of the Washington Gas Light Company shall be liable in his or her individual capacity for all the debts and liabilities of said company, however contracted or incurred, to be recovered by suit as other debts or liabilities before the court or tribunal having jurisdiction of the case.

APPROVED, July 8, 1848.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The proceedings of the Irish Greens Supper were received at too late an hour yesterday for publication this morning. They will appear to-morrow.

The Virginia Serenaders have become very popular. No band was ever more applauded; and none ever deserved more from the lovers of music and fun. They are brimful of the richest jokes—and every night there is something new. Their songs, old and new, are worthy our land, which evidence that the audience fully appreciate their vocal powers. They will be here during the week, giving concerts nightly at the Apollo. We notice that their audiences are quite respectable; no symptoms of disorder ever appear. The most fastidious can sit there through the evening, and see and hear nothing that will mar their enjoyments.

TEMPERANCE QUESTION.—As the "Reformed Drunkards" have abandoned the field of Temperance, the clergy appear disposed to take it up again. Last evening, the "Temperance League" held a meeting in Dr. Swift's Church, Allegheny, where the following question was discussed:

"Has the time come when the Church of Christ should exclude from her communion all engaged in the making and vending of intoxicating liquors, for common use?"

The affirmative was maintained by Rev. N. West and Rev. James Rodgers; the negative by Revs. Preston and M'Clernand.

"SET A BEGGAR ON HORSEBACK."—About a week ago, while standing in a lawyer's office, in came a very miserable looking creature asking alms. A small sum was handed him, for which he seemed thankful. Yesterday morning, we saw the same unhappy gentleman riding a fine horse up Federal street. He had procured for himself a new suit of toggery, and no doubt had some dimes in his pocket. We hope he may flourish; but at some other profession than poverty.

INDISCREET.—While the crowd rushed into one of the doors of the Penn Factory on Monday, one of the proprietors, or a twelve hour foreman, or some one appeared with a double barreled gun, and aimed it at the girls and men who stood before him. But not one flinched. One or two of the girls deliberately gathered up some mud and daubed the hero a little. Whoever held this gun should be the first one arrested, if any arrests are to be made.

CAUGHT HIM.—Officer Tyler, of the Allegheny police, returned from Dayton, O., yesterday, where he caught a man named Osterich, who is charged with having robbed a silk store, in Philadelphia, of about $1,800.00 worth of goods. Tyler had a long chase after the fellow; he has traveled several thousand miles; has been through portions of Canada, and many of our States. He leaves to-day, for Philadelphia, with his prisoner.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning a very aged lady, residing on the Brownsville road, a short distance beyond Birmingham, fell from the second story window, and was so much bruised that she died in a few minutes. Her name is ——.

The Coroner held an Inquest, and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts.

The Committee appointed, at the Factory meeting on Monday night, went to the Penn factory for the purpose of meeting the proprietors; but did not find them. They had been there; but not being certain that a committee would be appointed, adjourned.

ARRESTS.—Some of the rioters have been arrested, and others have been chased by the officers. A man named —— ——, was arrested for striking officer Scott. We learn that about thirty warrants were issued.

Should the mills be started soon, and the girls and citizens become quieted again, the prosecutions will most likely be abandoned.

One or two girls, at the row on Monday, mistaking one of the bystanders for a "toady" made at him with all their powers. He took to his heels, and has not stopped or looked back since, according to the most reliable information. It is reported that he is on his way to Butler, if he has not fallen by the way.

THE BOILING WATER.—We understand that the engineer of the Penn factory contends that the boiling water was thrown upon the crowd by accident, and not by design as seemed to be the impression.

"THE FIRST OF AUGUST" was observed very generally by the colored people in this neighborhood. They had a celebration somewhere, which passed off quietly, as we heard of no difficulty.

The dwelling of Mr. Smith, (of the Music store,) in the Fifth ward, was entered by some burglar on Saturday night.

At a meeting of the Duquesne Monumental Association, held at the office of C. B. Scully, Esq., on Tuesday, the 1st instant. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the views suggested by the President of the Association, at the meeting of the 25th ult., converting the single object of erecting a Monument to the killed at Puebla, into one which would embrace not only the dead of the Greys, but those of the Blues and Greens, are now, as then, the unanimous voice of this meeting.

Resolved, That the style of the Association was adopted, to avoid as far as practicable any invidious feelings which was evidenced by the omission of the word "Grey;" and that in consideration of our object having been misunderstood, as demonstrated by A Volunteer, in Monday's Chronicle, together with the apparent desire of other companies to have a seperate organization, and under a different name, this body will hereafter be known as the Duquesne Greys, Monument Association.

Resolved, That whilst the Greys undertake the labor of this patriotic work, the noble dead of the Greens and Blues, shall not be forgotten.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on the 27th inst., JOHN C. SMITH, aged 40 years, formerly of this city, but for the last 16 years a resident of Pittsburg, Pa., where he has left an affectionate wife and four children to mourn their irreparable loss. The departed came to Baltimore a few weeks since, with the view of taking a sea voyage for the benefit of his health, which has been much impaired. But by the will of an inscrutable Providence it was ordered that his journey through life should end here, amongst his relatives and former friends, all of whom esteemed him highly, and gave every attention that kindness and affection could suggest, to render his last hours peaceful and composed. For the bereaved widow the consolations of religion are invoked, that the God she has served may be her unfailing friend, and a father to her orphan children. J. T.
