The Sand and Gravel Swindle.

"KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE. That the Whig Senator, and the four "Whig" Representatives of this County, will make no explanation of their abominable conduct, in permitting the passage of a Law to swindle our citizens out of the beds of our rivers.

The "Whig" papers are astonishingly mum on this subject. We dare them to say a word in defence of their friends! The story that the Law was passed without the five members from Allegheny having been aware of its existence, won't do. That device is entirely too shallow. They slutlify themselves by permitting their friends to shield their conduct by so ridiculous an untruth. The sand, gravel and paving-stones, in the beds of the rivers, is given for a mere nominal trifle to a set of cunning speculators, and the members representing the citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny pretend that they are innocent of the outrage! !! We call on them again for an explanation of their conduct. Dare they say that they had no private share in the spoils? Dare they say that not one of them, directly or indirectly, participated in the plunder? Dare they say that not one of them acted as an agent to obtain river lots for friends at home? We wait for a reply.

Mercer County.

The Democratic County Convention, which met at Mercer on the 21st instant, is said to have been very large and enthusiastic. There was a full delegation from each township of the county; and the greatest harmony and good feeling prevailed during its session. B. F. Baskin and Wm. M'Kean, Esqs., were chosen Representative delegates to the Convention at Harrisburgh; and Walter J. Hunter, was recommended as the Senatorial Delegate, which recommendation was sanctioned by the conferees of Mercer and Beaver on the following day. The delegates are instructed to vote for Arnold Plummer, as the first choice of Mercer county, for Governor. D. M. Courtney and Sam'l Kerr, Esqs., were nominated for representatives in the State Legislature; and Wm. S. Garvin, Esq., was recommended for Representative in Congress. Mr. Garvin is the editor and proprietor of the Western Press; has represented that district in Congress; and gave very general satisfaction to his constituents. However, shortly after we took occasion decidedly to condemn Mr. Wilmot's heretical and disorganizing course, the Western Press came out sustaining that arch traitor, and vouching for the unquestionable character of his Democracy. The Democracy of the Mercer, Crawford and Venango District we have looked upon as being among the soundest in the State; we have seen nothing to change our opinion of them; and therefore presume that the gentleman recommended by Mercer, for representative in Congress, does not now adhere to Mr. Wilmot and vouch for the genuineness of his Democracy.

Very Ungenerous and Impolite.

Whenever a gentleman tells his friends, that the performance of a certain action on their part, or insisting upon any particular course on his part, will be actually disagreeable, true politeness, and that generosity which all would wish to have extended to themselves, forbid the performance of the one, or the requirement of the other. Gen. Taylor has told the People, that, if they elevate him to the office of President, "it will be at variance with his most cherished wishes." Surely no portion of the People of this country intend to show such an utter want of true politeness, as will be involved in Gen. Taylor's acceptance of the highest office under our government, so much against his wishes. It would be an act, unprecedented in the history of our country; and altogether unbecoming our character as a People.

Let it not be forgotten,

That Millard Fillmore, the Federal no-party candidate for Vice President, has favored and voted for all the Federal abolitionisms of the last twenty years; not the least infamous of which was the Bankrupt Law of 1841, by which so many honest poor men were swindled, to benefit rogues who wanted to get rich. Let it be remembered that he not only voted for the passage of the infamous law, but that he was instrumental in framing it; and, when the question came up for its repeal, he not only voted against its repeal, but he made a flaming speech in favor of the law itself!

Venango, Jefferson and Clarion.

The conferees of this representative district have appointed HENRY F. NEWELL, of Clarion, and JOHN W. SNYDER, of Venango, delegates to the Harrisburgh Convention: and they are instructed to vote for the nomination of ARNOLD PLUMER as the first choice of the district.

Doughfaces, BEHOLD YOUR CANDIDATE!

A DAGGERREOTYPE OF WHIGGERY!

For the exclusive benefit of the Federal-Whig anti-slavery Doughfaces of the North, who are supporting Gen. TAYLOR "without a why or a wherefore," we copy the following highly interesting document, from the Ohio Standard, a new anti-Taylor Whig paper, published at Columbus, Ohio. The Standard is edited by Hon. E. S. Hamlin, formerly a whig member of Congress from the Western Reserve, and J. C. Vaughan, Esq., late editor of the Cincinnati (whig) Gazette. We beg leave to call the special attention of our pious anti-slavery friend Deacon WHITE, of the Pittsburgh Gazette, to this precious "DEED OF SALE!" Perhaps the Deacon will denounce it as a "forgery!"—we shall see.

From the Ohio Standard.

"CINCINNATUS AND HIS FARM."

"To a friend in the South we are indebted for the information and documents below. General Taylor appears in a new and interesting position: The candidate for the Presidency of this free country in the slave market purchasing human beings with money drawn from the National Treasury. On the sixth of June, while southern bullies and northern doughfaces are on their way to Philadelphia, the candidate they in their purity select, spends the day in the negro auction, examining the limbs and trying the soundness of his purchases. And this slave-trader, even northern men have been sacrilegious enough to compare with Washington, have been dishonest enough to claim for him a position similar to Jefferson's, and have even argued that Henry Clay, whose noble life has been one continued exertion in the cause of freedom, is no better than he.

"Of the numerous letters Taylor has written, can any man show one containing even a single line expressing his regret that slavery should exist. Taylor men of this city of Columbus have letters from him they dare not show; do they contain anything in favor of freedom; one word that indicates even the least liberality on the subject? Has he ever yet offered liberty to a single one of those human beings, the fruit of whose uncompensated labor he enjoys! Has he ever done any one thing that would recommend him to a christian community of free people! No; he is a slave trader, a sugar and cotton planter, with all the interests and prejudices of his peculiar situation. In fine, he stands confessed an ignorant, slave trading soldier, owing his nomination to the fraudulent acts of the Louisiana delegation, and trusting to concealment and deception for success.

NEW ORLEANS, August 4, 1848.

"Dear Sir:

I herewith transmit to you a copy of the Deed of Sale from John Hagard, Senior, to General Taylor of a plantation, horses, and Slaves, &c. . . .

Since General Taylor's return from Mexico he has also purchased Slaves! In May last, he purchased in the name of his son, Richard Taylor, four Slaves of W. M. Williams. On the 6th of June last, he purchased of P. B. M'Campbell two slaves, for the sum of $1,500 00. He inspected the negroes, and examined them to see if they were sound. Gave his Draft on the Canal Bank of this City."

DEED OF SALE:

JOHN HAGARD, Sr., To ZACHARIAH TAYLOR, } DEED. {Rec'd for Record, 18th Feb'y, 1843.

THIS INDENTURE, made this twenty-first day of April, eighteen hundred and forty-two, between John Hagard, Sr., of the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, of one part, WITNESSETH, that the said John Hagard, Sr., for and in consideration of the sum of Ninety-five Thousand Dollars to him in hand paid and secured to be paid, as hereinafter stated by the said Zachariah Taylor, at and before the sealing and delivering of these presents, has this day bargained, sold, granted, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents does bargain, sell, deliver and confirm unto the said Zachariah Taylor, his heirs and assigns, forever, all that plantation and tract of Land . . . . . .

. . . . . ALSO, all the following Slaves: Nelson; Milley, Peggy, Peluda, Mason, Willis, Rachael, Caroline, Lucinda, Randall, Wiram, Carson, Little Ann, Wiram, Jane, Tom, Sally, Gracia, Big Jane, Louisa, Maria, Charles, Barnard, Mira, Sally, Carson, Paul, Sansford, Mansfield, Harry Odes, Harry Hovley, Carter, Henrietta, Ben, Charlotte, Wood, and a number of White girls, to wit: Anthony, Jacob, Hamby, Jane, Gabriel, Emeline, Armstead, George, Wilson, Cherry, Peggy, Wallace, Jane, Wallace, Bartlett, Martha, Lenna, Barbara, Matilda, Lucy, John, Sarah, Big Ann, Allen, Tom, George, John, Dick, Fielding, Nelson or Isom, Winna, Shellod, Lidsey, Little Cherry, Puck, Sam, Hannah or Anne, Mary, Ellen, Henrietta and two small children: Also, all the Horses, Mules, Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Utensils and tools now on said plantation—together with all and singular, the hereditaments, appurtenances, privileges and advantages into the said land and Slaves belonging or appertaining. To have and to hold the said plantation and tract of Land and Slaves, and other property above described, unto the said Zachariah Taylor, his heirs and assigns, forever, and to his and their only proper use, benefit and behoof. PROVIDED, And the said John Hagard, Sr., for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, does covenant, promise and agree to and with the said Zachariah Taylor, his heirs and assigns, that the aforesaid premises are clear of all and every claim and other property, with the appurtenances unto the said Zachariah Taylor, his heirs and assigns, against the claim or claims of all persons whomsoever claiming or to claim the same, or any part or parcel thereof; and that he will warrant, and by these presents forever defend. And the said John Hagard, Sr. hereby reserves a special lien and mortgage of all the before described Lands, tenements, hereditaments, Slaves, and other property, to secure the full and punctual payments of the following promissory notes, to wit: Six promissory notes made by said Zachariah Taylor, in favor of and endorsed by Manuel Wiltz & Co., of New Orleans, for the sum of thirty-first day of December, Eighteen Hundred and Forty-one. Four of them for the sum of Four Thousand Six Hundred and Three Dollars, with ten per cent. interest from date. Two payable two months after date, and two payable two years after date. Two other notes for Eight Thousand Two Hundred and Ninety-four Dollars, with ten per cent. interest from date, one payable twelve months after date, the other two years after date. And in case, if the said Zachariah Taylor, his heirs, executors, or assigns, shall well and truly pay said several sums of money in said promissory notes specified, with all interest which may be due thereon, to the hand of the holders of said notes, then this lien or mortgage is to cease and determine, and the estate of the said Taylor in the said Land, plantation, Slaves, and other property, shall become absolute and unconditional."

In testimony whereof, the said John Hagard, Sr., has hereunto set his hand and seal, the day and year first above written.

Jefferson County."

Here is a "Cincinnatus" for you! Here is a feast for the northern doughfaces to grow fat upon. One hundred and fourteen slaves at a single purchase! transferred as "cattle in the market" to the great Anti-slavery friend of the Wilmot Proviso whig candidate for the Presidency!

"Warm the Committees."

These are said to have been observes the editor of the American Volunteer, the dying words of the actor of the Declaration of American Independence. It should be everywhere adopted as the watchword of the friends of CASS and BUTLER, acting as an incentive to exertion and a complete organization "Warm the committees" in every city, town, village and hamlet, that upon their efforts depends the success of the Democratic cause.

☞ There was quite a number of strange volunteers in town on Sunday—we mean by strange that we could find no person who knew anything about them. A volunteer died at the Rendezvous on Saturday; he was buried with the honors of war.

The Vote in North Carolina.

Various have been the reasons assigned by the Federal editors, for the recent result in North Carolina; but none that we have seen stated appear to us quite so satisfactory as that given by the New York Tribune,—which is, disaffection at the nomination of Gen. Taylor. It says:

"A friend just from North Carolina informs us that the choice of the Philadelphia Convention excited a most powerful influence there. Especially in the great Whig stronghold, Guilford county, he saw the sturdy old Quakers, who form the back-bone of our party, come up and stand around the polls in scores, listless and utterly determined not to vote. In vain Gov. Moorehead, (whom they know and loved as an old-fashioned, first Clay Whig,) expostulated with and entreated them—they heard him patiently, but would not vote, saying, "Your Convention put aside the man we love and confide in, and nominated one of whom we only know that he is a man of blood, and that we do not like." So they went away; and the Whig majority in their county is some 400 less than usual—not by any democratic gain, but by a whig falling off. Now there has been not a word of public whig dissent in North Carolina—not a single whig journal has murmured—no dissenting journal has any considerable circulation there. Yet the people will think, and will act, or else evince their convictions by a "masterly inactivity." It is idle to quarrel with human nature—we must study and take counsel from it."

South Carolina and the Presidency.

A large meeting of the Democracy of Charleston, S. C., was held on last Monday night, and a series of resolutions adopted with but a few dissenting voices, the character of which may be judged from the following, which is the last of the series:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Charleston district cannot hesitate between the candidates of the Democratic and Whig parties of the United States for President and Vice President, and, for the reasons assigned in the foregoing preamble and resolutions, will support Lewis Cass and William O. Butler as the candidates of our party, for the offices to which they have been respectively nominated.

This meeting was a set off to the one on Saturday previous, without respect to party, one which was addressed by Mr. Calhoun.

Cass and Butler Song Book.

Mr. M'Conlogue, Bookseller, on Fifth street, will publish in a few days, in a very neat little volume, a collection of DEMOCRATIC SONGS, for the present campaign. It will unquestionably be the best collection we have seen for a long time, and we feel certain that the demand for the book will be extraordinary.

Another Sign.

We learn from the Clarion Democrat, that, at the raising of a Saw-mill, in that county, on the 1st inst., a vote on the presidential question was taken among the "bone and sinew" there assembled, and the result showed that there were for Cass and Butler 30; Taylor and Fillmore 41!! Van Buren 000!

☞ The Cleveland Plaindealer has been furnished with the following vote on the steamboat A. D. Patchin, (August 21st,) on her trip from Buffalo to Chicago:

Cass	34
Taylor	14
Van Buren, (including 2 colored)	4
Neutral	2

☞ Greeley, of the New York Tribune, sums up the election news, and surveying the terrible list of killed, wounded and missing, says:

"We submit that the Taylorization of the whig party has not, so far, paid expenses."

☞ Weatworth's majority in the Chicago District will exceed 3,500! This is a larger majority than is usual in a contested election. Taylorism don't pay expenses.

☞ I. O. of O. F.—ANCHORA LODGE, No. 220, of the I. O. of O. F., meets at their Hall, corner of Fourth and Ferry Market streets, every Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock, precisely.

By order,
JOSEPH W. YOUNG, Sec'y.

Visiting Brothers are hereby cautioned against loaning any of the Lodges meeting at the corner of Wood st. and Virgin alley, as the Keystone Lodge, No. 264, is the only legal working Lodge of Odd Fellows in this or Allegheny city. [aug30-d

☞ HEADACHE.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a positive cure for this distressing complaint; because they remove the cause, the body of those humors which are the cause, not only of headache, giddiness, nausea and sickness, &c., but of all the ills to which flesh is heir. One 25 cent box of these Pills is worth a dollar to any nervous, dyspeptic sufferer. Only take a dose of them occasionally every night, and the fullest results will be realized. Now is the time for action—prompt, vigorous, decisive action. We want men, not speeches. Give them Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. The language uttered by some of the press—the epithets applied to us such as murderers, robbers and knaves—the maledictions—the curses invoked upon our heads by the infuriated heroes and cowards—we do not have to come here to endure every imaginable privation, to pass through the fiery ordeal and death in every form—and that too by our own countrymen—calls forth the bitterest condemnation—the most profound scorn and disdain. You, my countrymen, have keenly witnessed the impudence and baseness of such language. Miserable, contemptible wretches, protected as they are by the sacred "freedom of the press," that press especially by distance rendered safe and comfortable as they are at home, they thus thunder their infamous lies and hurl the foulest insults at men who are fighting, bleeding for them. But let them take their way, let them talk on—let them wallow. I do not envy their liberty press, Pittsburgh, Pa., and who is their patron saint? Better a thousand times be a private soldier in the ranks, than a newspaper editor, would urge upon all the necessity of securing the Genuine, and not be put off with any imitation of it, or with any other medicine. So great is its reputation, that the unprincipled unblushing attempt to pass off their worthless mixtures, hoping to share in the advantages of the properties, the fame and expeditiousness, when they have not the energy or ability to get up and establish any thing themselves.

Prepared only by WM. JACKSON, No. 69 Liberty street, head of Wood, Pittsburgh. jy11

☞ PITIFUL DEARNESS OF ITS TENDON.—Every person is interested in hearing that Dr. Clickener, of New York, has invented a medicine of the most certain and powerful purgative qualities, which is yet so gentle that its operations on the system are entirely unfelt. Its action is altogether unattended with griping or nausea, and will more to enhance its value, it is coated with white sugar, so that it leaves no unpleasant taste in the mouth. In fact (a fact to Savor is so unlike Physic, and its action so perfectly gentle, that any person may swallow a dose without suspecting that he is in the least physic at all, save through its ultimate effect, which is powerful and positive, even on the most costive constitutions. We need not comment on those great satisfactory results of Clickener's Genuine Coloral Vegetable Purgative Pills, over other medicines, as they must be obvious to all, for there are but few persons who do not require physic occasionally, and few or still who have not a rooted aversion to the nauseous and racking compounds which—before the appearance of these pills—were the only characters which physic ever assumed. In less than five years, Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills will supersede all other purgative medicines, for no person will consent to have the stomach turned, and his bowels racked with the old-fashioned preparations, when he might have the desired object accomplished much more thoroughly by a new one, whose effect is unaccompanied by the sickness and distress sensation.

☞ Sold by WM. JACKSON, Gen. Agent, 69 Liberty street, Pittsburgh.
[For list of Agents see advertisement.]

☞ Goodson & Clark, of Bellevue, Ohio, November 23d, 1846, sent a letter to Dr. G. C. Vaughn, the proprietor of the celebrated Lithontriptic Mixture, the Great American Remedy, with a statement that in the vicinity of Ohio where they do business, the article has had unprecedented sales. Nothing like it has ever appeared. People resort to it for all complaints, and its effect is always good. Old cases, which have baffled the skill of medical men, have yielded to it, and the family using it in their practice. A large number of medical men are agents for its sale—a strong proof of the great virtues of the article. Call on Agents, in our paper, whose names are to be found under Great American Remedy, and get a Pamphlet.

LOCAL MATTERS.

RUNAWAY.—Wm. Nemeyer, Hose 1—Crew's praise is due the Reliefs Directors of the Eighth Ward, for the fearless and skill displayed in the erection of the School Houses. It is certainly a very superior building for the purpose. We have heard many of our most intelligent citizens speak of it as being unsurpassed in this county. A brief description of it may not be amiss: It is 40 feet front by 60 deep; is three stories high; there will be three splendid school rooms, 38 by 40. There are two class rooms on the second and third stories, each 22 by 14. There is a highly polished marble slab in front, bearing this inscription: "The Rich should, but the Poor must, be educated." The brick work was done by P. Allen, Esq.; Carpenter, Mr. Thos. Mackleod; Plasterer, Mr. Wm. Simpson. The basement will be finished on the first of September. A private School, by Mr. Brisbin, is very excellent and experienced teacher, will be commenced in about two weeks. The Public Schools, owing to lack of funds, cannot be opened before next spring. This is to be regretted by the citizens of the Ward, and it is to be hoped that provision may yet be made to have the Schools opened during the winter.

RACE AFTER A STOLEN HORSE.—On last Thursday, Mr. E. Cooper, of Ross township, had a very valuable horse stolen, of which he could get no account until Saturday, when Mr. C. received information from Mrs. Buckhouse, that the very same horse had passed there. Hague, of the Independent Police, started for Beaver on Saturday night, in expectation of finding horse and thief. He had a grand chase over hill and dale, while there; and at last got information that both had taken passage on a steamboat for Cincinnati. News by telegraph was at once despatched to the Cincinnati officers; and of course in a few days, we will hear that the rascal has been taken, and the property of Mr. Cooper restored.

☞ The Factories all commenced work yesterday under the Ten Hour System, with a reduction of 10 to 10 per cent. We believe the reduction is generally 15, but hears been told that some of the mills are running at less. The girls had a large meeting at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and resolved that they never would go to work at a reduction of wages. We were told that they were resolute in their determination to adhere to this pledge. We presume, however, that the mills will continue, short-handed as they are, until they can be gradually filled up. The Star and Allegheny Factories are filled now; but the other mills have not the required number.

ANOTHER STRIKE.—We were yesterday informed that the Coal diggers in Lewis' mines struck for higher wages, and our informant stated that they had reason to believe the strike was general throughout the whole coal region of the Monongahela. The workmen have been getting 1½ cent per bushel. They demand 2 cents. A good digger can put out 100 bushel in ten hours. It is a good business to those who have attractions for working underground.

RUNAWAY PASSION STRONG IN DEATH.—We saw a very old man on the boiler deck of a steam boat yesterday; in our judgment he was an octagenarian. He was dressed in the fashion of the Quakers; but was not one of that temperate class; for he became insulted all who witnessed him by his deliberation in pulling out a flask of raw whiskey, taking a horn and then as deliberately putting it back into his pocket. It would seem from this that men may drink liquor and yet live long.

STREET CHILDREN.—A wagon was going through St. Clair street yesterday at a rapid rate—the horses were on the trot—and while near the corner of Penn, a little urchin screwed his head to one side and started towards the wagon as if determined to make a hole in it. He struck a wheel with his shoulder, doing it no damage that we could see, but he experienced considerable himself. It is strange that more accidents do not occur to little ones while receiving their street education.

TOO BAD.—When we noticed the pretty girls who were driving through the streets in a buggy, on Friday, we were ignorant of all the circumstances. It appears that the vehicle and horse were actually taken without leave of the owner. As ladies are concerned, we choose a tender way of expressing the idea. The owner, after much anxiety, recovered his property; and has, to his credit be it spoken, concluded to say nothing more about the matter.

☞ There was an alarm of fire last night, but no fire. The firemen, on their return, took a little spree at each other, just for amusement. The Eagle and Duquesne locked out the corner of Market and Fifth streets, and out of this little incident grew a melee in which about a half dozen from each company engaged. No bones were broken, and no arrests were made.

☞ On last Thursday, a barn belonging to Mr. Taggart, in Findley township, near Clinton, was struck by lightning, and entirely consumed, with the contents. Mr. T. and a neighbor (James Shaw, Esq.,) whose grain was in the same barn, lost their crops, which had just been harvested. Why dont farmers get their crops insured?

SODA MANUFACTORY.—We learn that Messrs. TAYLOR & BENNETT, gentlemen of great enterprise, are now erecting in the thriving borough of Birmingham, an establishment for manufacturing Soda Ash. Their arrangements for conducting the business will be very extensive. This is the first establishment of the kind west of the Alleghenies. May it meet with success.

THE TOMBS.—There was but one tenant yesterday morning; but he was a good one, as the officers say. Several times before has he taken up his residence in the same place, and for similar reasons, which were heard and duly weighed by His Honor. The solitary of yesterday morning was sent up for thirty days; at the expiration of which time he promises to leave the city.

HEALTH INSURANCE.—There is an agency in this city for a Health Insurance Company. Those who expect to be sick a few weeks in the year, will find it profitable to take out policies. It will be very agreeable to a man to know that while he is lying upon a bed of sickness, he can draw upon a company for five to ten dollars per week.

ACCIDENT.—A boy
