Rosedale Gardens, in Manchester.

The subscriber takes pleasure in announcing to his old friends, and the citizens generally, that ROSEDALE Gardens have been laid out in a handsome manner, in front of the Public. The buildings have been furnished in a neat and fashionable style; and the surrounding gardens have been laid out in a fashion that will attract all who have taste for beautiful scenery.

The location of Rosedale is well known. Situate in Manchester, within a mile and a half of the city, on the bank of the Ohio, the prospect in every direction is charming. For health and comfort, there is no place equal to it in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh.

A limited number of families who desire a summer residence out of the city, will be received on easy terms.

Transient visiters will find ROSEDALE a most agreeable place to pass a day or two at.

The Refreshment Saloons will be supplied with all the delicacies of the season. Delicious Beverages, Ice Cream, Fruits, Confectionery, &c. The Bar will be supplied with the choicest liquors.

The whole establishment will be conducted on strict temperance principles. Ten-pin Alley's have been built; but no betting will be permitted. All games of every description strictly prohibited.

The facilities for reaching Rosedale are numerous. An Omnibus leaves the North end of the Old Allegheny Bridge every hour, and passes the entrance into the Gardens. The Steamer Greenwood leaves the Allegheny Wharf every hour, and lands within a few hundred yards of the Rosedale Cottage. my27
