Cheering Prospects in Pennsylvania.

We yesterday had the pleasure of an interview with our friend Col. Grosse, one of the Delegates from this county to the Democratic State Convention, who has just returned home. While absent, he met and conversed with hosts of Democrats, from all sections of the State, aswell as with many persons who belonged to the late "Whig" party, before its dissolution and death at the "Philadelphia Slaughter House." Col. G. assures us that the very best feeling exists in the Democratic ranks in all parts of the state, and the prospects of an overwhelming victory are so certain, that even candid, sober minded whigs, do not hesitate to admit the fact. In nearly every county in the state, the Democratic vote will be greatly increased beyond that given at any former election; while, on the other hand, the Federalists will scarcely be able to "hold their own" in a single county. The dissatisfaction in the opposition ranks is so great in many sections, that the party almost seem disposed to let the election go by default! We are sold that one of the delegates from Washington co. to the Federal State Convention admited a few days since, that the apathy and disaffection amongst the feds of that county are so extensive, that he had no doubt but that the Democrats would elect their ticket by a majority of 1000! Last year when the state was carried for Governor Shunk by over 19,000 of a majority, his plurality in Washington county was only 196 votes! This single fact will be sufficient to indicate the result throughout the state.

The "signs of the times" are truly auspicious for the Democratic party, not only in Pennsylvania, but throughout the entire Union. The old Jackson spirit is alive in the breasts of the people! Cass and Butler will be our next President and Vice President. Longstreth will carry Pennsylvania by at least 20,000 victorys operate so as to produce the slightest apathy or indifference. Let there be action! action! ACTION! WE MUST ALL WORK! WE MUST ALL VOTE!

One State Convention.

We embrace the earliest practicable moment, to lay before our readers the entire proceedings of the Convention which met at Harrisburgh on the 30th ultimo, to nominate a candidate, to be supported by the Democracy for Governor of Pennsylvania. We therefore presume that every matter which claimed the attention of the Convention, is embodied in the report which we publish.

We are pleased to observe, that a degree of harmony, and calm, dispassionate devotion to the cause of the People, even exceeding that which is customary in similar Conventions, marked the close of this. The members seem to have been animated with but one spirit—that of striving to show who could most cordially and efficiently sustain the nomination.

The Address adopted by the Convention is brief, eloquent, and comprehensive; and the resolutions clearly and forcibly speak the sentiments of the united Democracy of Pennsylvania. We commend the whole proceedings to the attentive perusal of all our friends; and shall revert to them again, at an early day.

Democratic Rally at Elizabeth.

Our Democratic friends are to have a grand rally at Elizabeth, on Friday next. The following speakers are announced, viz: Messrs. Black, McCandless, Magraw, Layng, Mitchel, Snowden, Hamilton and Harper.—We are authorised to announce that the Cass and Butler Glee Club of this city, will attend the meeting, and sing some of their best airs. They are a glorious set of fellows, and will make the ere a glorious set of fellows, and will make the beautiful valley of the Monongahela vocal with real honest Democratic melody! We anticipate a good meeting at Elizabeth.

"The Wilderness."

The copy-right of this highly interesting Romance, by the late Dr. M'Henry, (one of the best ever written in this country, and which is now out of print,) has been purchased by our enterprising fellow citizen, M. P. Moser, and is soon to appear on very beautiful new type, and in attractive style of binding. Mr. Moser tells us that he shall print only a limited edition; and, from the many calls that have been made for the work, there is no doubt the edition will be rapidly exhausted.
