Daily Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST,
MONDAY MORNING, September 4th, 1848.

FLOUR.—Sales of 80 bbls. to arrive at $5; one or two smaller sales on wharfat $5. From store sales of dray loads were made at $5,12. This it will be observed is an advance upon Friday's transactions. By single bbls. the sales were at $5,25.

The mills throughout the country are now still, on account of low water, which accounts for the small quantity of Flour that arrive by wagon. We did not notice a wagon load in the streets on Saturday. In other articles but little was done on Saturday. We heard of some small sales of Produce, Groceries, &c. which exhibited no material change in prices.

SUGAR.—There are regular sales of Prime at 5c.

RICE.—Sales by the tierce at 5c. Some lots reported at 4½c.

MACKEREL.—Sales in a small way of No. 3 at $6.

WHISKEY.—There are no receipts of any account, but we understand that as high as 18c. might be obtained for Raw. Still rectified has been quoted at 19@19c. Holders have the old casks on hand, and one refuses to advance while another refuses and thus prices are kept down. But at the present rates of Freight an advance must take place soon.

MOLASSES.—We quote at 28c. the common price.

We have not heard of a single sale at less.

CHEESE.—Nothing new to report; sales regular at old rates, and market tolerably well supplied with an excellent quality.
