RARE CHANCE FOR A BARGAIN OF COAL LANDS.—174 acres of splendid Coal can be bought by application to the undersigned; at a bargain. The Coal lies on the road from Hill and St. Clair turnpike, within two miles and three quarters of the city, directly opposite Wilson Boggs's farm. The finishing of the new turnpike renders it the nearest and most accessible of any Coal for sale at this time in the city; the openings may be platformed to the edge of the turnpike, thereby saving the expense of hoisting of any kind. 35 acres on the back end of this farm, half a mile from the turnpike were sold to an iron company four years ago, in anticipation of the location of the new road, which renders it a very desirable location.

New Hat and Cap House.

JAMES WILSON, Hat Manufacturer, (formerly of the corner of Diamond alley and Wood street,) begs leave respectfully to inform his friends and the public, that he has opened a NEW STORE, on Smithfield st., where he will keep constantly on hand a full assortment of HATS, CAPS, and LADIES' FURS, (as good, neat, fashionable and cheap as any in the city,) may be had. J. W. very cordially invites his friends and the public to remember his new location and establishment, and gives him a call as hearty as he intends to welcome them. mar31-1y

Splendid Establishment.

JAMES W. WOODWELL, would respectfully inform the public that he has removed to his new location, No. 83, Third street, (next door above the old stand.) Neither expense nor trouble has been spared, to make it the most extensive and magnificent Furniture warehouse to be found any where, east or west. The stock on hand, for variety, taste and elegance, is such as has never been offered to any public. From the most costly outfits at $1,000 per set, down to the plainest and kitchen furniture, may be found in styles and patterns, to suit any and every taste. J. W. Woodwell hopes for a continuance of the very liberal patronage extended to him heretofore, and pledges himself to give entire satisfaction, both as regards the solidity, durability and style of his articles, and the liberal and accommodating principles upon which he does business—His extensive new warehouse being now filled from the cellar to the fourth story, with every variety of furniture and chairs, he would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. ap27
