We have advised our readers of the fact that, An drew Stewart, of this State, who disgraces the office of Representative in Congress, has been consuming much of the People's money in efforts to make it appear that Gen. Cass has been an unworthy public servant, and is not entitled to the confidence of his countrymen. The Washington Union handles a portion of Andy's speech after this manner :--Mr. Stewart states that "Gen. Case received be-tween $60,000 and $70,000 for sitting in his splen-did mansion in the city of Detroit, enjoying his champagae with every luxiry, and the society of his family and friends, while Gen. Good crops in all countries and no specuation will prove beneficial to the world, whatever may be the effects upon particular districts. A Foundame. On Saturday morning the person who first opened the front door of Mr. Corney's boarding house, Allegheny city, was somewhat asonished at finding a basket, neatly covered, on the doop step. The cloth was removed, and "A babe looked up and sweetly smiled." It was indeed a babe, a bright eyed little girl, not more than a week old. It was taken in by the benevolent people, and efforts were made to discover out his brains to day. His brother, Judge Oakly, the unfortunate parent.

The poor little creature was afterwards given to came so overcome that he fainted, and was carried the Overscers of the Poor, who sent it to the farm home. The clothes in which it was wr Mayor's office. A gentleman was relating the above circumstance o a young man, on Saturday, shortly after it was down; and several extensive establishiplents serious noised about :

"Well," said young one, with a yawn of satisfac tion, "I am glad I'm not a boarder in that house." "Why so ?" "Oh, you know wemen are women and they will talk." We stopped in the First Presbyterian Church for about an hour, on Saturday morning lest, and were much edified by the casy eloquence of Dr.

the Presbyterian Synod. The debate will be interesting, but we did not notice many spectators. BA A poor sick soldier named Kelly, made information before the Mayor, on Saturday, against a man for stealing all the money he had-about $60, the sum he obtained for his discharge. The suspect ed man was arrested and committed. The evidence is not strong against him. He was an old acquain ance, and they had been drinking together a little too freely at the tavern where both stopped, and went to bed rather late in the evening both to the same bed. In the morning Kelly missed his money, and charged his companion with taking it. Anothen Burchany....On Thursday evening last the house of Mrs. Frazer, Allegheny city, was entered by some necturnal speculator, who succeeded n operating to considerable advantage to himself.

He got a pair of pants, a watch and some money, the property of Mr. McMillan. This same house was entered in like manner about a month ago, and with the charge of passing counterfeit money, is now in Buffalo prison, having been arrested by some of the officers of that city. Bougher started for him on Saturday. It will be recollected that he deposited Frames for Looking Classe Platters and Platter Frames, 81000; in lieu of giving bail, and left for parts under a quantity of Toys, looking Class Platters Frames, a quantity of Toys, looking Class Platters, window glass the Ogarter Sessions.

MORE VILLAINY.-We are informed that some of he iron monopolists are about commencing the work of prescription. We have heard that two mills have given notice of a reduction of wages—in case Case thould be elected. We intend to enquire into this matter, and give names, if need be. The Presbytering Advocate and Pittsburgh Catholic have been for some time engaged in a very curious controversy about some seemingly trifling matters. It appears, indeed, that editors of reli-gious papers do indulge in sarcasm at the expense opponents, some times.

Singular Ton Saturday, four of the morning papers came out with each 'an editorial against a certain capitalist of this city, which bore such student marks of a single pen, that many persons remarked the singularity of the occurrence. Perhaps explanations may be given in a few days.

BE Two more members of the Allegheny Police have resigned. The entire night force is now off, and we understand it is the intention of the authorities to dispense with that branch of the city govern-band, who might support her, but he too is a victim to advocate the cause of the yorking bees of this of the demon of intemperance. They are a miser community.

We heard nothing of the question before, and can only judge that he advocated a total separation of the Church from the Society. Rev. E. P. Swift rose, to reply. We presume the Society and the Colporteur system are the principal topics of discussion before this session of the Presbyteijan Synod. The debate will be inter.
