Splendid Establishment.

JAMES W. WOODWELL, would respectfully inform the public that he has removed to his new location, No. 83, Third street, (next door above the old stand.) Neither expense nor trouble has been spared, to make it the most extensive and magnificent Furniture warehouse to be found any where, east or west! The stock on hand, for variety, taste and elegance, is such as has never been offered to any public. From the most costly outfits at $1,000 per set, down to chamber and kitchen furniture, may be found in styles and patterns, to suit any and every taste. J. W. Woodwell hopes on a continuance of the very liberal patronage extended to him heretofore, and pledges himself to give entire satisfaction, both as regards the solidity, durability and style of his articles, and the liberal and accommodating principles upon which he does business.

The extensive new warehouse being now filled from the cellar to the fourth story, with every variety of furniture and CHAIRS, he would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. ap27

RARE CHANCE FOR A BARGAIN OF COAL LANDS.

A TRACT of 75 acres of splendid Coal can be bought by application to the undersigned; at a bargain. The Coal lies on the Coal Hill and St. Clair turnpike; within two miles and a half of the centre of the city, directly opposite William Bogg's farm. The sinking of the new turnpike renders it the nearest and most accessible of any Coal for sale at this time in the city; the openings may be platformed to the edge of the turnpike, thereby saving the expense of roads of any kind. 28 acres on the back end of this farm, half a mile from the turnpike were sold to an iron company four years ago, in anticipation of the location of this new road, which renders it a very desirable location.
