Rosedale Gardens, in Manchester.

The subscriber takes pleasure in announcing to his old friends, and the citizens generally, that ROSEDALE has been newly fitted up for the accommodation and comfort of the Public. The buildings have been furnished in a neat and fashionable style; and the surrounding gardens have been laid out in a fashion that will attract all who have a little taste for flowers.

The location of Rosedale is well known. Situate in Manchester, within a mile and a half of the city, on the bank of the Ohio, the prospect is pleasing and enchanting. For health and comfort, there is no place equal to Rosedale, in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh.

A limited number of families can obtain a summer residence out of the city, will be received on easy terms.

Parties and strangers visiting Rosedale will find it a most agreeable place in which to pass a day or a week.

The Refreshment Saloons will be supplied with all the delicacies of the season, and the Bar with the choicest Liquors, Ice Creams, Fruits, Confectionerie, &c. &c. The table will be furnished with the choicest viands.

☞ The whole establishment will be conducted on strict temperance principles. Ten-pin Alleys have been built; but no betting will be permitted. All games of chance are strictly prohibited.

The facilities for reaching Rosedale are numerous. An Omnibus leaves the North end of the Old Allegheny Bridge every half hour, and will accommodate passengers in the Gardens. The Steamer Greenwood leaves the Allegheny Market every hour, and lands within a few minutes' walk of the Rosedale Cottages.
