L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,
LEWIS CASS,
OF MICHIGAN.

☞ "Having full confidence in your abilities and republican principles, I invited you to my cabinet; and I can never forget with what discretion and talents you met those great and delicate questions which were brought before you whilst you presided over the Department of War, which entitled you to my thanks and will ever be recollected with the most lively feelings of friendship by me."—Jefferson's letter to Gen. Cass.

"But what has endeared you to every true American was the noble stand which you took, as our minister at Paris, against the Quintuple Treaty, and which, by your talents, energy and fearless responsibility, defeated its ratification by France—a treaty intended by Great Britain to change our international laws, make her mistress of the seas, and destroy the national independence, not only of our country, but of all Europe, and enable her to become the tyrant on every ocean."—General Jackson's letter to General Cass.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WM. O. BUTLER,
OF KENTUCKY.

☞ "BUTLER and his five sons" was a favorite toast with Washington, and Gen. WILLIAM O. BUTLER is one of them. The Butlers have foughten every field from Baker Hill to Monterey, and there is a tower of strength in the very name.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION,
TUESDAY NOV. 7.

THE OLD WIG-WAM!!—DEMOCRATIC HEAD-QUARTERS!! The St. Clair House, (formerly the Washington Coffee House,) will be open every evening, at 6 o'clock, until after the Presidential Election. Democratic News-papers, Documents, Speeches, &c. &c., will always be found upon the tables. The Democrats generally, and Old Wigwam with their presence. oct13

CASS & BUTLER,
And the Triumph of Democracy!

Democrats, to the RESCUE!!
RALLY FOR YOUR CANDIDATES!

A grand Mass Meeting will take place this [WEDNESDAY] evening, Nov. 1st, at 7 o'clock, at M'Anulty's (Canal) Warehouse, Penn street.

Hon. THOMAS F. MARSHALL, of Ky., and FRANCIS J. GRUND, [a Naturalized Freeman from Phila.,] with Magraw, Shaler, R. H. Kerr. Burke, Irwin, and Thos. Hamilton, will address the People.

Come!—Let every Democrat be at his post. We will make the foeman fly, and Democracy will be itself again!

BY THE COMMITTEE.

Be Particular about Tickets.

We would recommend to our friends in the several counties of this State, the propriety of paying particular attention to their tickets. We have seen the name of Mr. Roambolt, of Philadelphia county, (one of the Democratic Electors of President,) printed Ro,utin L. Roumfort. It should be ATOUSTUS L. ROUMFORT.

Francis J. Grund, Esq.

This accomplished scholar and eloquent speaker, will address the Democracy to-night at McAnulty's warehouse. Let our German friends turn out in their strength and hear their patriotic countryman.

Hon. Thomas F. Marshall.

Democrats, remember that TOM. MARSHALL, one of the most eloquent and humorous speakers in the Union, will address the freemen of Allegheny county, this evening, at M'Anulty's warehouse, on Penn street. Those who wish to get inside of the building, should go early. There will be an immense turn out of the true-hearted yeomanry.

The Brave Old Volunteer.

Many of the Federal papers, (and the Pittsburg Gazette is among the number,) have alluded to a statement of Henry A. Wise, made some years since,—(and which he has frankly told the public was made under an entire misunderstanding of the facts)—that Gen. Cass was a defaulter to the Government. The vile sheets that have circulated the statement, have been very careful not to notice Mr. Wise's counter statement; but still utter a lie against the patriotic statesman. We have recently met with the remarks of the late venerable JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, on the occasion when Wise spoke so unjustly and ungenerously; and copy the most emphatic portion of them. Mr. Adams said—"I regard it as a vile calumny. I regard Cass as a man of unblemished reputation, of irreproachable moral principles, as a man, sir, who, besides possessing remarkable talents, is incapable of defrauding his country."

More Scoundrelism.

Can any honorable man, of any political party, feel any other sentiment than contempt for the poor, insignificant drivellers, who, devoid of sound political information, and wretchedly ignorant of the political history of this country, yet attempt to oppose LEWIS CASS, on the pretended ground of his opposition to the suffering poor of Ireland, when a bill for their relief was before the Congress of the United States? We think that, among honorable men, there can be but one opinion on this subject. The records of the country prove, that Gen. Cass not only contended, in his usual able manner, for the passage of the bill appropriating five hundred thousand dollars to aid the sufferers in Ireland; but he also voted for it, when the bill came up on its passage: that a Democratic Senate voted for this bill: and that the House of Representatives—a majority of whom were Federal Whig Native Americans, voted against it; and thus forbade its becoming a law!

Gen. Cass and Ireland.

Gen. Cass's treatment of starving Ireland ought to prevent the vote of a single native born Irishman being given for him. A man who could coolly and deliberately set himself to work to make political capital out of the distresses of his fellow-men, by pretending to sympathise with them, while he intended to give them nothing, is unworthy of the respect of mankind. Such did Lewis Cass. He made a speech for popular effect in favor of the Irish, one day, and the next he shirked the question of taking up the bill to appropriate money to relieve their starvation, and thus defeated it altogether. Recollect, Irishmen,—Gen. Cass's name was called three times in his hearing, and HE REFUSED TO ANSWER. He betrayed the friends of Ireland, and defeated the measure.

The above cool, deliberate, and infamous lie appeared as an editorial in the Pittsburgh Gazette, of Saturday last; and we venture to affirm that a more impudent lie, has not appeared in that paper under its present conductor, if at any time since its establishment. We gave, some weeks since, an extract from the speech of Gen. Cass, in favor of making an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars, in aid of the suffering poor of Ireland; and we only deferred giving the whole facts of the case, under the firm conviction that it would not be long before the vile slanderers at the head of the Federal Press would make further charges, and utter further lies against him, on account of this matter. It was first denied that Gen. Cass had made any speech in favor of the bill; and, when the speech was referred to, so that there was no escape, we expected they would soon make just such a statement as that which we give above. What a pusillanimous, contemptible set must be the mass of Federal editors, who can descend so low, as to manufacture lies by the dozen, and still utter them, after the proof has been offered that they were lies! An honorable man would rather be a dog, and bay at the moon, than such an editor!

By referring to the Appendix to the Congressional Globe, for the session of 1846—7, the speech of Gen. Cass may be found in full, in favor of the great measure referred to. We give a brief extract from it, in order to show that he based his support of it, not merely upon the score of its humanity, but because Ireland had a claim upon us based on the eternal principle of justice. Hear him:

"The starving millions have no Egypt, 'where they can go and buy corn, that they may live and not die.' From our granary of abundance, let us pour forth supplies. Ireland has strong claims upon the sympathy of the United States. There are few of our citizens who have not Irish blood in their veins. That country has sent out a large portion of the emigrants who have added numbers to our population, industry and enterprise to our capital, and the elements of power and prosperity which are doing that mighty work, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, that is already exciting the admiration of the Old World, and will stimulate by its example the exertions of the New. Our population of Irish descent have fought the battles of the country with as much zeal and bravery as any class of citizens. And from the heights of Abraham, where Montgomery fell, to the walls of Monterey, their blood has been poured out like water in the cause of liberty. We can now send to Ireland, not, indeed, what she has sent to us—her children—those we cannot part with—but food for their relatives, our friends, upon whom the hand of God is heavily laid. I shall lend the bill my support with great pleasure."

But the cowardly defamers of Gen. Cass admit that "he made a speech in favor of the Irish, one day," and then declare that, after having done this, he refused to vote in favor of it! We happen to be able to prove, that, in this instance, as in many others of which we have convicted them, they have been guilty of deliberate, willful, and malicious lying; and we accordingly place before our readers the plain, unequivocal, undeniable facts in connection with this matter. By examining the Senate Journal of 1846-7, page 243, the following will be found to be a part of the proceedings:—

"The Senate proceeded to consider, as in Committee of the Whole, the bill (S. 184) to provide some relief for the suffering people of Ireland and Scotland.

On the question, "Shall this bill be engrossed and read a third time?"

It was determined in the affirmative—yeas, 27; nays, 13.

On motion by Mr. Berrien,

The yeas and nays being desired by one-fifth of the Senators present,

Those who voted in the affirmative are,

Messrs. ALLEN, Atchison, Berrien, Breese, Calhoun, Cameron, CASS, John M. Clayton, Corwin, Crittenden, Davis, Dayton, Evans, Greene, Hannegan, Houston, Huntington, Jarnagin, Johnson, of Maryland, Johnson, of Louisiana, Mangum, Miller, Morehead, Simmons, Soule, Sturgeon, Webster.

Those who voted in the negative are,

Messrs. Archer, Bagby, Butler, Chalmers, Dickinson, Dix, Fairfield, Mason, Niles, Turney, Westcott, Yulee.

So it was Ordered, That the bill be engrossed and read a third time.

The said bill was read a third time;"

And soon after passed the Senate; was sent to the House of Representatives, for its concurrence therein; and was there defeated, where there was a Federal majority! Infamous indeed is Whiggery, and truly infamous must be that man, who can bring himself to the adoption of such means as these, to try and defeat the election of an old and most valuable public servant.

Benjamin Tappan.

The Journal announces ex-Senator TAPPAN, of Ohio, as a convert to Taylorism! When we state the FACT that Tappan has been for years, the bitter personal and political enemy of Gen. CASS, his present course can excite no "special wonder." He is a man without the slightest influence, and his opposition to the "brave old volunteer," will contribute largely to swell his majority in Ohio. The result of next Tuesday will prove the truth of what we say.

Tappan sunk several thousand dollars in supporting a venal "Press," at Columbus, to break down Medary's old faithful "Statesman;" to distract the Democracy, and to defeat the nomination of the patriotic CASS. Failing in all these enterprises, his paper gave up the ghost. The money of the Boston ton federalists is now circulating pretty freely in Ohio. It is difficult to say into whose hands it may pass.

The Question Solved.

We have a friend down town who is a great mathematician. He can cypher out almost any difficult question, and solve the most intricate problems. The "Western Calculator" is familiar to him as the alphabet; and Euclid is always at the end of his tongue. He informs us that he spent two days in finding out Gen. Taylor's position, and the shape of his political principles, and has succeeded in producing the following result:

"A cylindrical acute angled triangle of an oblong shape exactly square."

Southern opinion of Doughfaces.

The New Orleans Bee, Taylor paper, says that "no one but a FOOL would expect Gen. Taylor to be in favor of the Wilmot proviso." Now we do not exactly agree with the southern "Whig" editor, respecting his brother of the Pittsburgh Gazette, and other kindred editors. We are perfectly satisfied that there are more knaves than fools among the leaders of the Federal "Whig" Native party;—that the People have long believed this, and have therefore seldom trusted them. On occasions when they have been trusted, too, the credit was for a very limited period,—their true characters becoming manifest, on the instant they were inducted to office.

The Frauds in this State.

The villainy of the Federal party, in the last election, is so manifest,—has been so unblushingly perpetrated,—that even their own adjutants, out of the State, admit the fact. The editor of the Providence Journal says, "we know that the result in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, looks like fraud." And the Boston Post asks, "How upon earth could the whigs honestly gain 1500 votes in those mining districts, in which they themselves say business is decreasing? All the democratic clerks in the office having control of the returns at Harrisburg were carefully removed. That, again, looks like fraud."

☞ The weather last night was quite pleasant.

Beautiful Compliments to General Cass.

We select the following truly beautiful and well-merited compliments to our distinguished candidate for the Presidency, from recent sources. The first is from a late letter of Gen. JAMES HAMILTON, of South Carolina, who is a warm supporter of Gen. Taylor:—

"When I represented the Republic of Texas at the government of the King of the French, Gen. Cass was Plenipotentiary. I owe to his serious friendship and enlightened public spirit, in no small degree, the favorable impression I was able to make on the mind of the then King of the French, in behalf of a country, then independent; but now gloriously united in our own, which, in the extent of her territory and the grandeur of her resources, is destined to contribute so much to the prosperity and wealth of the whole Union.

"I certainly, at the period to which I allude, could not but have felt much pride as an American, in witnessing the consideration which Gen. Cass enjoyed at the court of the French King, by manners the most bland and unostentatious, by the kindest regard for the wants and convenience of his countrymen, by an ability which made our country felt in the Court of every crowned head of Europe."

And the second is from the correspondence of the Washington Union, dated at Carrollton, Ala., Oct. 14th, in a letter giving an account of a public meeting there. The writer says, that Col. King was called on to state to the meeting the reputation enjoyed by Gen. Cass, as Minister to the French Court—to which he replied, that—

"Having succeeded Gen. Cass at the Court of France, and having had the best possible opportunities of knowing the sentiment of the people of France and other European States, he could fearlessly say that no name in America ranks higher in Europe as a true republican than Gen. Cass.—Upon no head had the monarchists hurled more direful anathemas. He at stated that Lord Brougham, in denouncing Gen. Cass in the House of Lords for his opposition to the quintuple treaty, had made a declaration which lacked but three weeks of its fulfilment: 'My lords, the course of the American minister on this subject, the anti-democratic tendency of the measure which he alone has defeated, will at no distant day make him President of the United States.'

On the 7th of November, Gen. Cass can hail Lord Brougham as the truest prophet of the nineteenth century.—Q. E. D.

The Federalists—The Quakers.

A late number of the Philadelphia News, a most infamous Federal sheet, contains an address "To the Members of the Society of Friends of the State of Pennsylvania," and signed "A Quaker by Profession:" from which we make the extract below. Truly the Society of Friends have become degraded to a depth beyond the notice of decent people, if they can be induced to regard such stuff as this in any other light than that of an insult to their intelligence:—

"Every vote given to Van Buren instead of Taylor and Fillmore, adds to the strength of General Butler, the Locofoco candidate for the Vice Presidency. Van Buren and Adams cannot be elected. This is well known. It is therefore clear that a vote taken from Fillmore and given to Adams helps Gen. Butler to the Vice Presidency, and Gen. Butler is an ultra slaveholder. Now there are fifteen slave States and fifteen free States, and the question of slavery will be decided by the casting vote of the Vice President, whenever it shall come up.

"Millard Fillmore is utterly opposed to the extension of slavery, and should he be elected he would give the casting vote against it, as certainly as Gen. Butler would give his casting vote in its favor."

Books! Books! Books!

The word may be seen at every corner, at the head of an extensive catalogue of saluable works in almost every department of literature, which are now on hand, and are being nightly sold, at the auction store of JOHN D. DAVIS, Esq. This large collection is a result of the perseverance and industry of Mr. PRATT, of Boston, who has paid our city a visit at least once a year for many years past; who always brings a choice collection; and who has sold many a Book to our citizens at a merely nominal price. We perceive among the works now on hand, some of the most splendid American editions.—Sale every night this week.

Gen. Taylor and Free Soil.

Horace Greely, the honest? editor of the New York Tribune, (who lately wrote an individual letter to the Whigs of Ohio, calling upon them to sustain Taylor,) in a more recent letter of his, makes this candid admission:—"IT IS TRUE, IN OUR OPINION, THAT GEN. TAYLOR IS NOT HEARTILY HOSTILE TO SLAVERY EXTENSION."

Glorious Little Clarion!

The last Clarion Democrat stated that every township in that county will do better for CASS than for Longstreth. The Editor says: "we have good reason to believe that, our estimate of 1400 majority will be reached." Do you hear that, boys?

☞ GEORGE B. WALLIS, Esq., ("the Doctor,") the travelling correspondent of the New York Herald, is now in this city, making a survey of the political field. His late letters to the Herald, are by no means encouraging to the friends of the slave soil candidate, Gen. Taylor.

A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRACY will be held on Friday evening next, in the long Room, over Mr. Eaus' Shoe Store, corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, commencing at 6 o'clock. A number of addresses will be delivered by some distinguished Speakers. We invite the Democratic brethren of the other Wards to be present. Turn out Democrats, and on the morning of the 7th, we can go the Polls, singing our old old song—

"Cheer up my lively lads, in spite of Federal power, Cheer up my lively lads, the Victory it soon be ours."

☞ U. S. District Court.—The United States District Court will meet every day, until the election from 10 to 1 o'clock. Persons wishing to be naturalized had better see to it in time.

☞ Consumption is a disease which is carrying its victims to the tune of thousands, without being arrested in its progress by the medicines in common use at the present time. But a brighter day is coming, and has come—as to successfully arrest this disease. DR. ROGER'S LIVERWORT AND TAR, not only gives immediate relief in COUGHS and COLDS, but from the testimony of men of the highest standing here and elsewhere, it is making some very remarkable cures of CONSUMPTION. Improvements in the treatment of diseases are onward; and nothing can arrest its spirit in the present age.
