Splendid Establishment.

THE subscriber, respectfully announces to the public that he has removed to his new location, No. 83 Third street, (next door above the old stand.) Neither expense nor trouble has been spared, to make it the most extensive and magnificent Furniture warehouse to be found any where, east or west. The stock on hand, for variety, taste and elegance, is such as has never been offered to any public. From the most costly outfits at $1,000 per set, down to those to give him a call, as he can now furnish them with patterns, to suit any and every taste. J. W. Woodwell hopes for a continuance of the very liberal patronage extended to him heretofore, and pledges himself to give entire satisfaction, both as regards the solidity, durability and style of his articles, and the liberal and accommodating principles upon which he does business. His extensive new warehouse is now filled from the cellar to the fourth story, with every variety of furniture and Chairs, to which he would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. ap27

West Point Works.

PRESTON & WAGNER, Engine Builders, have commenced business on Penn st., near the Point, at the establishment formerly carried on by Stockhouse & Nelson. Persons wishing to purchase Steam Engines for Boats, or for other purposes, will please favor us with a call as we flatter ourselves to be able to furnish them on as favorable terms as any other establishment in the city.

Also, rolling mill and castings of every description can be had at the shortest notice.

Rare Chance for a Bargain of Coal.

THE undersigned, having been afflicted during the winter, with a disease in the stomach, sometimes producing extreme pain in the stomach for ten or twelve hours without intermission, and having tried various remedies with little effect, was furnished with a bottle of Dr. Z. Ayers' Sarsaparilla Extract Balsam. He used according to the directions, and found invariably that one bottle caused the pain to abate in three or four minutes; and in fifteen or twenty minutes, every severe sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was afterwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were perceived, and the pain was thereby pr
