The Morning Post. L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PITTSBURGH: MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 6, 1848. DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. FOR PRESIDENT. LEWIS CASS,

DIA Having full confidence in your abilities and republican principles; I invited you to my cabinet; and I can never forget with what discretion and talents you met those great and delicate questions which were brought before you whist you presided over the Department of War, which entitled you to my thanks and will ever be recollected with the mostlively feelings of fread shipbly ind. VIII.

"Hut what has endenred you to every true American, was the puble stand which you look, as our minister at Paris, against the Quintuple Treaty, and which, by your talents, energy and fearless responsibility, defented its remication by France—a greaty intended by Great Britain to change our international laws, make her mistress of the seas, and destroy the mational independence, not only of our country, but of all Europe, and enable lief to become the tyrant on every occan."—General Jackson selection General Cass.
