

For some days past, the Federal organs of th city, have been discussing the question whether Da-vid Wilmot is a friend of the Nominees of the Balmore Convention, or not; whether he sustains the Democracy of the country, or aids, 48 far as he an do so, the enemies of the Constitution. It was boldly asserted by one of them, (the Journal) on Saturday, that he was sustaining Cass and Butler and all good "Whigs" were warned not to trust to he promises of the Free Soil leaders—as they were l secretly alding the Democratic nomination. We illy understood this flourish; and were prepared to ell our renders that it was only a small part of the CHARGE cheme of forgery, deception, bribery and corrupon, that has been put in operation, all over the ountry, with a view to defeat the Democratic no cess. David Wilmot is still in opposition to the emocratic party, as appears from a letter over his gnature in the Baltimore Sun; and the Federal edrs here know this to be the fact. We are prepared for recording the fact, after the ection, that not one man in ten, of those who have called themselves Free Soil men, among the Whige? in this State, will to-day cast their votes r Martin Van Buren. A scheme has been perfected detach the great body of the Federalists now concted with the Free Soil party, and obtain their votes for Taylor. The purpose has been to keep the atocious plot a profound secret until the very day of lection. Democratic Free Soilers, beware! Rely pon it, the fraud we have charged upon your Fedral associates will, to a considerable extent, be ommitted. The Federalists expect to carry the State by this trick! Upon you, therefore, who profess to be Democrats, depends the result. If you value your professes principles—if you do not wish to aid n a Federal triumph,-you will this day cast your yote, in such a manner as will not afford an oppor tunity, hereafter, to brand you with the merite name of traitors. Remember, the Federal party hope to succeed, only from your remaining firm opposition to the Democratic nominees ! The Democratic Fire still blazes brightly! The Democracy last night were in a blaze glory! The most unbounded enthusiasm prevailed amongst out friends every where. Several large meetings were held, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and the neighboring villages. We atended the one at McAnulty's warehouse; and a oat enthusiastic one it was, too. The building was jammed to overflewing. Irwin, Black, and rke, delivered eloquent and soul-cheering speeches. The people—the honest masses, are aroused; ments in relation to the Presidential election of and are determined to go into the great battle at the pallot-hoxes, to-day, with their coats off I The victory will be ours-Penusylvania will be redeemed. I have been found gaility by a jury of my fellow-citizens, and I submit to their verdict; but I still hope for mercy from your honor. I am of respectable family; but my dear father and mother are dead. I have a wife and three small children, who are dependent upon me for support. I am a stranger in this city—consequently, I have no person to plead for me in my being from my friends live in Cipcinnati and Philadelphia—too distant as expect being sprearance in being my strain my trying situation. I, therefore, humbly calf myself on your honor's mercy; and if the Lord spares my life to return to my dear wife and family, I will teach my little ones, when they kneel down to prayers, to pray for bim who had mercy on thair now unhappy father. I now leave my case to your honor's merciful consideration, and may the great Creator ever bestow upon yourself and family, I will teach my little ones, when they have seen the constant, prayer of your homble servant.
