"Joy, Joy in London Now."

The Telegraph announced yesterday that "the election of Gen. Taylor to the Presidency of the United States, has diffused unspeakable satisfaction in Great Britain!" We anticipated that such would be the fact; and we have not been disappointed. The Tories of Great Britain will rejoice with exceeding great joy, at the event, and why should they not! It is not because Gen. Taylor has "led our arms to victory" in Mexico—it is not because he is a slaveholder and cotton planter—it is not because he has promised to copy after the "earlier Presidents"—that the crowned heads, the titled nobility, and privileged classes in Europe receive his election with "unspeakable satisfaction." Not at all. The success of Gen. Taylor is regarded as the overthrow of the Democratic Party and Democratic Principles in the United States! This is the secret of the business.

The spirit of Republicanism—of Democratic Liberty and Equality—has shown itself in Europe. Thrones and Potentates, within the last few months, have fallen and disappeared. France, Italy, Germany, Prussia and Austria, have become tired of tyranny and despotism. Their people wish to breathe the pure breath of Freedom. In Great Britain, especially in the Emerald Isle, the same glorious spirit pervades the great masses. The Queen upon her throne, has trembled with fear; and she has employed her hired soldiery to force into submission those who are ready to strike the blow in freedom's battle. The success of the federal party in the United States affords their tory sympathisers in England a reasonable hope to believe, that the Republican Revolution in Europe, will, at least, be stopped in its progress. And mark our word: the result of the Presidential election in this country, will greatly dampen the energies of the Democracy of all Continental Europe. In a few days, we shall receive our files of English papers, when we shall lay before our readers such extracts as may exhibit the "unspeakable satisfaction" of the tory journalists at the defeat of the Democratic party in the United States.

Official—The Gold Assayed—Extraordinary Purity.

We publish below, (says the Washington Union,) the official letter of the director of the mint at Philadelphia, to the Secretary of the Treasury, showing the assay of the California gold.

The gold assayed yielded $36,492. The purity is extraordinary, the gold dust yielding 884 pure gold: the melted gold yielding within 6-1000, or six dollars in the one thousand dollars, of the mint standard of 900. This far exceeds the expectations of the most sanguine, and places the extraordinary purity of the gold beyond controversy.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATES,
Philadelphia, Dec. 11, 1848.

SIR: On the 5th instant, we received, as I have already had the honor to inform you, the first deposits of gold from California. It was deposited by Mr. David Carrier, who brought it from San Francisco, by the Isthmus route. It weighed 1804.59 ounces troy, of which 1428.80 was from the lower surface mines, and 380.79 from those at Feather river. On the 9th instant another deposite was sent by the Secretary of War, which weighed 228 ounces.

The gold was of two sorts in external character, though apparently not different as to quality. The first, from the "dry diggings," was in grains, which averaged from one to two pennyweights; the other variety, from the swamps or margins of the streams, being in small flat spangles, of which, on an average, it would take six or seven to weigh one grain. Of these, by far the larger part of the deposites was composed.

The gold was melted in six parcels, and the loss by melting, due to the earthy and oxidable matter which disappears in this operation, averaged about 2½ per cent. of the original weight. The loss thus reported is moderate, and shows that the gold has been carefully washed.

Assays of the melted gold were made with great care, and the results showed a variation in fineness from .892 to .897 thousandths; the average of the whole being .894. This is slightly below the standard fineness, which is .900.

The average value per ounce of the bullion, before melting, is $18.05; that of the same in bars, after melting, is $18.50.

The whole value of the gold in the two deposites was $36,492, besides a few ounces reserved in the native state for the Secretary of War, at his request.

Very respectfully, your faithful servant,
R. M. PATTERSON, Director.
Hon. R. J. WALKER, Sec'y of the Treasury.

☞ In addition to this, we learn from the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette, on the 24th of November, that a small party arrived in that place from California, bringing with them large quantities of the Feather river gold dust, a portion of which was assayed by a chemist of that town, and pronounced pure gold. This company, says the Gazette, say the gold lever had not abated, but was raging to a considerable extent, and that large parties were daily arriving from Oregon and other quarters to work the mine. The mines produce an abundant yield, the ore ranging from the smallest particles to pieces of two, six and ten ounces in weight. One piece has been found weighing upwards of one pound and a half.

Railroad across the Isthmus of Panama.

The Pennsylvanian says that "in less than two years there will be a Railroad across the Isthmus, completed by American capital, secured by charter from the Government of New Grenada."

This will shorten the passage by months to the Pacific shores. The Pennsylvanian says that much credit is due to Mr. Buchanan for his exertions in favor of the project. Mr. Bidlack, our Charge to the Republic of New Grenada, deserves immortal honor for his exertions to the same end. Without having time to consult his Government, he took the responsibility of closing the treaty with that Republic, securing to this country the right to make the Railroad in question. The charter is said to be a highly acceptable one for the enterprising gentlemen with whom Mr. Herran, the Minister from New Grenada, will shortly close for the construction of this gigantic undertaking.

We observe by the proceedings of Congress, that a memorial on this important subject, from Wm. H. Aspinwell, John L. Stephens and Henry Chauncey, was presented to the lower House of Congress, on Monday last. These gentlemen propose to establish a Railroad across the Isthmus of Panama, and ask that they may be entrusted with the transportation of the mails, and the conveyance of troops, munitions of war, &c.

The memorialists state that they have obtained a charter for ninety-nine years from the government of New Grenada. They ask no appropriation of money. They will make the road from their own resources, and only ask that, when made, they shall be aided by the transportation and freightage of the United States, government.

OHIO COUNTERFEIT.—A well executed counterfeit $5 on the Chillicothe Branch of the State Bank of Ohio, letter C, is described as in circulation in the towns on the Upper Mississippi.

Treatment of the Cholera.

Dr. Ross, a London physician, of reputation, infers from a careful examination of the statistics of the cholera, that opium and calomel have produced the fewest recoveries, and a safe treatment the most.

The Medical Times says that a broad flannel roller, worn round the stomach and chest, is the best of all preventitives of the cholera. It also states that good sound food is perfectly safe to be eaten. Persons subject to looseness in the bowels, should avoid soups, and adhere to animal food, well roasted, and to bread. Good old port wine, it affirms, is the best of all drinks; brandy and spirits should be avoided. It says the cholera is not contagious; but no family should remain in a house where there has been a case of the disease.

The Hon. R. J. Walker, the Secretary of the Treasury, at Washington, has recently written a very long letter detailing, to certain gentlemen who solicited it, his "experience" in regard to the Asiatic Cholera, when it last visited the country in 1832.

Not only did he attend the sick on a large plantation in Mississippi, and administer remedies with his own hands, but he himself was attacked with the epidemic.

The Secretary does not believe in the use of opium, for the reason that it fails to rouse the system, or to accelerate the action of the calomel. He highly recommends the practice of Dr. Cartwright, of Natchez, Miss., as follows:—

1. To watch the first symptoms of the disease, and administer the proper remedies without a moment's delay. 2. To administer forthwith, after the first symptoms, a dose composed of ten grains of camphor, twenty grains of red pepper, and twenty grains of calomel, to be taken in powders, if practicable; if not, in pills. 3. As soon as the dose was swallowed, to strip the patient and rub him gently but effectually with some stimulating ointment, by as many hands as could have convenient access, the rubbing to be continued, so as not to occasion fatigue, until the medicine produced its proper effect.

"The cure was chiefly effected by the operation of the calomel upon the liver, in changing the rice water secretions to those usually produced by calomel, which generally took place, according to my recollection, in from one to two hours after the dose was repeated. The object of the camphor and red pepper was to accelerate the action of the calomel, as well as to rouse the energies of the system."

Under this system, of eighty-seven persons attacked by the disease in one neighborhood, only two deaths occurred. This is the most convincing evidence that could be desired of the curative virtues of any medicine.

The Natives Rewarded.

Our telegraphic despatch from Philadelphia yesterday, announced that Governor Johnston has divided the appointments of that city amongst the Whigs and Natives. We shall surely not complain at this. It shows that the Governor is disposed to deal fairly with both branches of the federal party. The Natives fought as hard for Johnston as the Whigs, and they are certainly entitled to equal honors. All we now ask is, that Gen. Taylor will be equally as liberal in rewarding the church burners with appointments. And in bestowing his favors, he should not forget that amphibious class, known as "Taylor Democrats." He should deal fairly with all his supporters, like Gov. Johnston, ever though it should offend the tender sensibilities of the "ultra whig."

To Sail for California.

Ships Albany, Sherman; Sutton, Ekerman; Massachusetts Sanson; Walpole, Cutter; Orpheus, Freeman; Florence, Bright; Cristoval Colon, Coffin, and brig Leverett, Elliot, are advertised at New York to sail for California. Three sailed on Saturday.

The barque John W. Coffin cleared at Boston, a few days ago with a large assorted cargo, valued at $36,000; her manifest was about two yards long, and we learn from the Boston Journal of a late date that three others are fitting out.

One of the vessels loading at Baltimore will take out nothing but flour.

Our Next State Convention.

In pursuance of a resolution adopted by the last Democratic State Convention which assembled at Harrisburgh, the next State Convention of our political friends, will be held in Pittsburgh. The time for the meeting of the Convention, is a matter within the control of the State Central Committee. Due notice of the time when the Convention will assemble, will be published. We feel authorized in saying, that all the hospitality, for which our city is proverbial, will be extended to the members of the Convention, by our citizens.

The Mormons in California, have laid claim to a large portion of the gold territory and demand 30 per cent. of the ore taken therefrom. An express has been sent to the Salt Lake settlement, where about 10,000 Mormons are located. There is a rumor that equal rich mines have been discovered in that region. The 30 per cent demand of the Mormons is expected to lead to trouble and perhaps bloodshed.

☞ There is gold in Texas too. The public mind has been greatly excited with accounts of the gold region of California, but if we may credit the traditions of the Indians, and the historical records of the Spaniards, the gold region of Texas, on the Rio Pureco, is as rich in the precious metals as the now celebrated mines of Feather River in Alta California.

AN OMEN EXPLAINED.—Louis Nepoleon's arrival in France was signalized by what the people supposed to be an omen. An imperial eagle alighted upon his shoulder the moment he landed. Unfortunately for the romance of the affair, it has been ascertained that he had trained the Eagle while in England, feeding it daily with a beef steak, which he placed on the crown of his hat!

☞ New Hampshire, the native State of Gen. Cass, has done nobly, and may well set up her claim as the banner State of the Union. Gen. Cass has a majority over Taylor and Van Buren in every county but two, and a plurality in every county in the State.

☞ We learn from the New York Journal of Commerce that the United States ship Fredonia, sailed on Monday last for the Pacific. Although merely ordered to the Pacific Ocean, it is well understood that she is going to California, to protect the interests of the people and government of the United States in that quarter.

☞ Senator Benton and Butler have become reconciled to each other. Benton, on the day of the meeting of Congress, advanced, the correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says, and offered his hand to Mr. Butler which was accepted.

☞ The Cincinnati Commercial publishes an on dit to the effect that Old Zach is now on the Ohio on his way to Washington, traveling in cog. We'll bet a small sum that the office hunters will smell him out before many days.

☞ Judge McLean thinks that Gen. Taylor will be honest in his errors in administering the government. So are many incurable men—all honest. But is he capable?—is he honest? is the Jeffersonian creed.

☞ The Philadelphia North American of the 5th inst. takes decided ground in favor of the Hon. W. H. Meredith of that city, for U. S. Senator. That paper generally controls the action of its party in this State.

☞ The population of Arkansas, by the Governor's estimate, is 300,000, which will give it three in place of one member of Congress, in the next appointment.

☞ More than twelve hundred girls have deserted the Lowell factories since the late reduction of wages.

THE MIDNIGHT ASSASSIN.

A TRUE STORY.

I was on my way to P——, in the fall of 18—. It was towards the cold evenings in the first fall month, when my horse stopped suddenly before a respectable house, about four miles from N——.

There was something strange and remarkable in this action of my horse, nor would he move a step in spite of all my exertion to move him on.

I determined to gratify him, and at the same time a strange presentiment which came over me, a kind of supernatural feeling indescribable, seemed to urge me to enter. Having knocked, and requested to be conducted to the lady or gentleman of the house, I was ushered into a neat sitting room, where sat a beautiful girl of about twenty years of age. She rose at my entrance, and seemed a little surprised at the appearance of a perfect stranger.

In a few words I related to her the strange conduct of my horse, and his stubborn opposition to my mind. "I am not," I observed, "superstitious, nor inclined on the side of the metaphysical doctrines of those who support them; but the strange, unaccountable feeling that crept over me in attempting to pass your house induced me to solicit lodgings for the night."

"We are not," she replied, "well guarded, 'tis true; but in this part of the country we have little to fear from robbers, for we have never heard of any being near us; we are surrounded by good neighbors, and I flatter myself we are at peace with them. But this evening, in consequence of my father's absence, I feel unusually lonesome, and if it were not bordering on the superstitious, I might reason as you have, and say I consent to your staying; for similar feelings have been mine ere you arrived: from what cause I cannot imagine."

Friday Morning.—There was three cases: a black man, charged with drunkenness, who was sent up; a black woman, a regular case, charged with disorderly conduct, who was also sent up; and a white woman, a most disgusting creature, who was charged with vagrancy, was sent up for 30 days. She "did not like the sentence pretty well;" but submitted without making any special fuss.

The above was rather a slim turn out,—or, more correctly speaking, turn in.

☞ The Journal is mistaken, if it supposes that the jury in the Mankee case, brought in the verdict of acquittal, on account of the testimony of the physicians. Had not a word of the opinions of the medical gentlemen been heard, the verdict would have been the same; though we do not deny that the testimony had its due weight. But Mankee was acquitted, because the jury did not believe that he had any intention of killing; —and, no one who heard the whole case, could believe that he had a thought of doing any harm.

Mr. PRICE—This gentleman has become a great favorite in our city, and he is deservedly so, for a more meritorious actor we have not often seen. He has a versatile genius; is ready to go on with any part, and we have never known him to fail. What is better than all this, as a citizen he is above reproach; his conduct in private life is that of a gentleman. We expect to see him rise in his profession, and hope that his friends in this city will give him the encouragement he merits.

☞ We understand that the Factory Operatives intend giving a Ball, on New Year's evening, at Quincy Hall, Allegheny city. That it will exceed anything of the kind given this season, the announcement of management by ladies, gives good assurance.

☞ A Fancy and Citizens' Dress Ball is to come off at Quincy Hall, Allegheny city, on Friday evening next, which, we are told, will be the best ever given in that city. The Supper will be served up in Mr. Jenkins' best style.

☞ The Gazette notices that a man lost his leg at Hog island. We have looked at our map, and conclude that said island must be in California; for it is not in this county, that we know of.

☞ Mrs. Johnson, who was committed on Thursday, for the larceny of a shawl from A. A. Mason & Co., was released yesterday, after giving $300 cs; sales of Laguyra at 6½c.

There is no change in other articles usually reported.

PREACHING.—We are requested to state that Rev. Bonhomme, the converted Jew, will preach to-morrow evening, in the East Common Methodist Church, Allegheny city.

☞ Large sums of money were bet on the race between the Brilliant and Telegraph No. 2, in Cincinnati.

☞ At 2 o'clock, this afternoon, Mr. Williams will sell at auction.

☞ Yesterday seemed to us to be the dullest of the dull days. We don't know how our neighbors got along; but we will see this morning.

☞ We call attention to the Card of the Directors of the Mercy Hospital. It is hoped their call for aid will not be unheeded.

☞ We observe that the contributors to the Western Pennsylvania Hospital are again at work. Will they do something this time?

☞ The Zimmerly case will probably be argued in the Quarter Sessions to-day.

☞ Attention Niagara!—The members of the Niagara Fire Company, are hereby notified to attend a special meeting at the Hall, on Saturday evening, the 16th instant, at 6½ o'clock. By order.

Died—On Thursday evening, 14th inst., Mr. ROBERT SHAW, Sr., in the 69th year of his age.
The funeral will take place from his residence on Penn street, 9th Ward, on Sunday, at 1 o'clock.

☞ Notice—A meeting of the Democratic Committee of Correspondence for the City of Pittsburgh, will be held at the St. Clair House, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, this (Saturday) evening, 16th instant, at 7 o'clock. SAML. JONES, Chairman.

☞ THE UNIVERSAL FEVER CURE.—Typus and scarlet fever, fever and ague, and in fact fevers of every description have found a speedy and unfailing remedy in Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Purgative Pills—Owing to their mild yet purifying and cooling qualities, their freedom from unpleasantness of taste, gripe and nausea; and the peculiarly powerful influence by which they control and purify every portion of the system, the great majority of the medical faculty of N. York think of using no other purgative medicines in these diseases; and the certificates of the gentlemen who have been so numerous and full of eulogy as to justify the proprietor in warranting a cure, when his pills are taken according to directions. Furthermore to show his confidence, he will return the money paid for his pills, in all cases where they do not give entire satisfaction. Unlike all other medicines, Clickener's Sugar-coated Vegetable Pills are perfectly pleasant to the taste, which greatly enhance their value with children, or persons of weak stomachs, who find the taking of all other medicines preparations a matter of much difficulty.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BOARD OF HEALTH'S OFFICE,
Friday Evening, December 15.

About fifty patients were admitted to the Hospital, (Third street,) to-day, all of whom were more or less afflicted with California Fever. It is the opinion of the Board, that many will be carried off; but a great number are convalescent.

THE VICTIMS.—A woman is now in jail on the charge of stealing a shawl; and in her possession was found some counterfeit money. She says her brother-in-law gave the paper to her, and told her not to pass it, but to sell it for thirty-one cents on the dollar, while he was in Cincinnati. During the past few weeks, several persons called upon her, and inquired if she had "any of Mr.——'s stock." To these persons she made sales of the counterfeit notes. From the appearance of this woman, and from all we can learn of her history, we believe her to be a victim of a band of counterfeiters. She has been struggling in poverty for years; deserted by her husband, she has no doubt became the easy prey of desperate blacklegs. What we think hard, is, that she will be compelled to suffer, while they are to escape.

There is evidence against other women of the same name, and for some time we have heard complaints against "female counterfeiters." This arrest will, no doubt, bring all to light; and if the men can be detected, we think the law might not be outraged by letting the miserable woman go.

MAYOR'S OFFICE—Thursday Morning.—Our report was crowded out by other matter.

Friday Morning.—There was three cases: a black man, charged with drunkenness, who was sent up; a black woman, a regular case, charged with disorderly conduct, who was also sent up; and a white woman, a most disgusting creature, who was charged with vagrancy, was sent up for 30 days. DR. WILDE ADVERTISEMENT FOR 1848.

These family remedies, consisting of

DR. WILLARD'S PEARL OF PEARLS,
" " COUGH MIXTURE,
" " LIVER PILLS,
" " FEVER AND AGUE EXTERMINATOR,

Have already become so universally popular, wherever introduced, that the proprietors are induced to place them within the reach of all. Of the virtues of these medicines, it is altogether unnecessary for us to speak, as they have always, wherever introduced, been able to recommend themselves. The numerous certificates, which from time to time have been published, besides others now in our possession, is sufficient evidence, not only of their virtue and power to cure, but that they are duly appreciated by an intelligent public. When the country is flooded with "Panaceas," "Elixirs," "Balsams," and "Pills," and many of them of a doubtful character, persons are at a loss to know how or where they should trust any of them. Reject them all, and try those which have been proved by the experience of years. Such is the character of the medicines compounded by Dr. Willard, an eminent practitioner, and sold by men of character who have something more at stake than the accumulation of a few dollars. In order that the public may know what these medicines are, the greater part of our advertising will be genuine certificates. Thus you may be satisfied that their own words will speak them.

These medicines, prepared and sold by the proprietors, A. W. Brockway & Co., No. 2, Commercial Row, Liberty street, Pittsburgh, to whom all letters for agencies must be addressed. Sold also by J. Schoonmaker &
