EDITORIAL VARIETY.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Gazette writes himself an "old-fashioned democrat," and says that he has been reading the "Morning Post" with interest and pleasure, and that he has been reading the "Morning Post" with interest and pleasure, and that he has been reading the "Morning Post" with interest and pleasure.

Mr. Palfrey, in the House of Representatives, on Wednesday last, asked leave to introduce a bill to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia; but the bill was not taken up.

The Shelby News learns from a respectable source that Gen. Taylor committed to the flames at some time, recently, a bundle of letters, asking for office and in all probability he has, at this time, committed four times the quantity to the same safe deposit.

Mr. Lewis How, Jr. is very much displeased with the idea of the party giving the name of "Whig," and adding in lieu thereof the new cognomen of "Taylor Republicans." We think they have abused the name of "Whig" quite long enough.

Many of our Ohio Democratic exchanges advocate a removal of the seat of Government of that State from Columbus, in connection with the proposed interference with the law making power, on the part of the leading Whig politicians of the capital.

John Cook, Jr., who has been given trial for some time at Worcester, Mass., for the murder of his wife some fifteen years ago, has been fairly acquitted.

John Henry Bell, declared in a speech at Richmond, the other day, that he would give Taylor write the second Alliance treaty, without which, he adds, old Zack would certainly have been defeated.

Wm. B. F. Wood, a member of the New York Tribune, states that Thomas Corwin, of Ohio, will be offered the Attorney General under the new administration, and that Mr. Critchfield will probably be Secretary of State.

The Philadelphia Republic thinks that there will be a great publishing year, on the subject of the repeal of the Tariff of 1842. We think so.

Philip Gougeon was drowned in the Pennsylvania canal, near Johnston, on the 20th ultimo.

The Seminoles remaining in Florida, are counting much upon the success of the late election.

In Somerset county (Md.), last week, William Pater, indicted for manslaughter in killing his wife, was found guilty.

A man named Richard Lee has been arrested in Baltimore for coining a young woman named Josephine.

The Arkansas Banner announces the death of John H. Street, Esq., of Little Rock, on the 15th inst.

The Doylestown Democrat says that the late death of Hon. M. L. Levensworth, of that place, has been a great loss to the community.

There has been constructed at Cincinnati, on the Ohio river, the largest building ever erected in that city, and which will cost $1,340,000.
