To those, however, who are led inndvertantly into excess in cating or drinking, and who, in consequence, suffer from headache, sick stomach, lowness of spirits, indigention; and other complaints, the penalty of over-indulgence, we recommend a triat of Wright's Indian Vegetable Fills, of the North American College of Health. This medicine will remove all complaints which arise from irregularity of diet; and cleanse the body from those billious and corrupt humors which are the cause of the above distressing symptoms; and of every malady incident to man. A cough should never be neglected. It may appear trifling and unworthy the attention at first, but it will not remain sutationary long: it may progress slow at first, and its augmentation may or scarcely perceptible; yet when it once seizes the lungs, all the other parts of the body will be sympathetically affected, and a confirmed Consumption and premature death will be the ineviable result. A little care would save many a life, and he timely use of a proper remedy might have arrested many a consumption. But many persons have an invincible repugnance to taking any medicine, and rather than use the means towards arresting a disease, simply because the remedy may not be a pleasant one, would suffer and languish is ra long time, before they would resort to the nid of medicine.

B. A. Fahnestock & Co's Cough Balsam has a great advantage in this respect over many other Cough preparations, as its pleasant taste permits it to be used without inconvenience. But its value as a Balsam consists in the speediness of its cure. We have known some of the most desperate coughs; some of which had been running on for a considerable length of time, yield almost immediately to its power:

A BSALOM MORRIS, nov23 No. 65 Jarket street, Pittsburgh. The columns of the Press throughout the country seem to be filled with notices of cares and specifies for all discuses flesh is heir to, that one scarcely knows what to do in case of discase, for fear that in using one medicine, another and better may be overlooked. But from the remarkable cures, high order and vast amount of testimony daily brought ander our personal notice, of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr Rogers Livervort and Tar, we are compelled to regard the evidence of our senses, and confidently state that for Coughs and Colüs, and that bydra-headed monster, Consumption, we think this preparation a safe speedy and certain cure. At all events, we may say to our friends—try it.

Flowers for the Winter Season. decid 78 Wood street

New Millinery, Silks, Volvets, &c. Have already become so universally popular, wherever introduced, that the proprietors are induced to place them within the reach of all. Of the virtues of these medicines, it is altogether unnecessary for us to speak, as they have always, wherever introduced, been able to recommend themseless. The numerous certificates, which from time to time have been published, besides others now in our possession, is sufficient evidence, not only of their virtue and power to cure, but that they are duly appreciated by an intelligent public. When the country, is flooded with "Panaceas," "Elixers," "Bal sams," and "Pills," and many of them of a doubtful character, persons are at a loss to know how far they should trust any of them. Reject themail, and try those which have been proved by the experience of years. Such is the character of the medicines compounded by Dr. Willard, an eminent practitioner, and sold by men of character who have something more at stake than the accumulation of a few dollars. In order that the public may know what these medicines are, the greater part of our advertising will be genuincertificates. Thus you may be satisfied that "their own works will praise them."

These medicines, prepared and sold by the proprietors, A. W. Brockway & Co., No. 2, Commercial Row, Liberty street, Pittsburgh, to whom all letters for agencies or other business must be addressed. CONSUMPTION seizes more victims than any other disease in our county. The young, the old, the beautiful and gay, are all alike subject to its invidious trivages, and many a hectic cheek has been supposed to bloom with the glow of health. But every case originates in a coldend a cough—perhaps deemed unworthy of nitention at first—and only met with remedies when too late. Watch the first symptoms with jenious care, and make immediate use of the Cough Balsam of B. A. Fahnestock & Co., which will certainly check its further progress, and restore the inflamed organs to a beautiful action.
