ATALANTA UPON SKATES. | could not always have you to preside over

BY GRACE GREENWOOD (Concluded)

The moon was at its full, and the ice-bound St. Lawrence lay like a broad sheet of glittering

The race was soon fairly begun. Thurston at first seemed likeliest to win, but laying out all his strength in desperate efforts to head Eugenia in her marvellous evolutions, at length sank lown atterly exhausted, and the provoking girl turned and flew past him like a wild bird on the ving. The field was now left to Hamilton, who had infinitely more at stake, and who swore a mighty oath (to himself) never to yield till vicorv was his. It was a scene of singular excitement. Hamlton, though an admirable skater, seemed never iton, hoogn an aumiratic states, second per-to gain upon Eugenie, except by her own per-mission; for she would now and then flag, as bough about to pause, place her hand on her side, and drop her head, as from weariness. Hamilton ouble his efforts, and the next moment she would be flying about him in bewildering cirles, nearer and nearer, till the ring of her skates and the merry laugh were in his ear; and then away shot her little form with incredible swiftness, till far a down the river her long white plume ras floating in the moonlight. At length Eugenie called back-I am getting tired of this, Capt. Hamilton

You can never overtake me; but stop where you ire. and I will come to you." Hamilton paused, and soon beheld his immopaused, and soon beheld his immo-approaching. As she drew nearer, glided along more leisurely and co. by moment of theiling rathing to rata swiftly approaching. As she drew nearer, mettishly. Ah, moment of thrilling rapture to every step as he descended to the hall below he lover, when he watched the magnif ure coming slowly but steadily toward him with her head archly inclined to one side; her luxuri-ant hair loosed from her cap, and falling over her houlders; her arms crossed upon her bosom; her murmured— ips apart, and her eyes flashing gloriously, and "If you m ingly upon bim! Nearer, nearer; be I am not needed here; I shall die if you leave eached forth his arms with a cry of joyful welomel. Nearer, nearer; he could see her breath, silvered into small clouds by the frost of the still hight when she bowed her head, and shot be-ure for England, and in the course of a week, his last for his feet slid from under him, and he reasured his length on the ice. He suddenly re-in white gloves and waistcoat, and the bride covered himself, to behold Eugenie pausing at a adorable in satin and orange blossoms. The usual ittle distance, and resigning herself to extrava number of jokes and charpenging herself to extrava little distance, and resigning herself to extrava number of jokes and champaigne bottles were gant merriment; her wild laugh ringing like a cracked at the expense of the former, and gloves peal of bells on the clear frosty air. Vexation and mortification gave our hero new strength, and he again set out with all the energy of desperation. This time he gained upon his treacherous lady love. Eugenie became really alarmed, when, looking backward, she saw him dashing on like

The Morning Post. ischold, I have provided a substitute. "Who and what is she?" "Have patience, my love, and I will tell you all. While on my tour through the States, last autumn, I met with an old friend and fellow-soldier, L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PITTSBURGH an emigrant like myself, and his only child; good and beautiful child she is, who has promise WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 17, 1849. o fill that void in my heart left by your mothe Morning Post Job Printing Office. the place by my hearth soon to be left by you.

CORNER OF WOOD AND FIFTH STREETS. IJ Having added to our Establishment, a splend Steam-Power Printing Machine, we are prepared to d all kinds of Newspaper and Book work in a style of an surpassed beauty and neatness, and upon the most re-sonable terms. We respectfully solicit the patronage thought to have told you this long ago; but was an awkward subject to broach; and the ma riage has been once postponed on account of the death of a relative of Marie's." "And so my grand sacrifice was uncalled for te public in this line of our business. said Eugenie, making an effort to smile.

D Advertisers are requested to hand in their favors befo o'clock, P. M. This must be complied with, in order to is rure an insertion. When it is possible, an earlier hour wou "Yes, my love; I shall grieve deeply to pa with you, but I shall not be comfortless. Now sure an ir am going out; when Capt. Hamilton calls, you will receive him here, and may explain to him the

Is preferred. change in your circumstances as regards me. Don't weep my child-don't, I pray. I will visit you in England with Henri and-and my wife the course of the summer, and you will retur to Canada some time. God bless you my darling ! and the exemplary father took himself off.

Eugenie had scarcely time to dry her tears compose her face, and smooth her ringlets, befor Capt. Hamilton walked into the library.

He was somewhat surprised at meeting Eugen again, and expressed much regret at not being able again, and expressed much regret at not being able to see ber father. The poor girl was sadly em-barassed, and could utter but little more than brief ble a small pamphlet entitled "Republic of Libe.

replies to the questions of her lover. After a few moments of painfully constrained conversation, he Captain rose, kissed hastily the hand of his cent crea- Then, scarce conscious of the act, she flew rather than ran down the stairs. Her lover heard her 1849, published in the pamphlet, that a committee light step, and turned toward her. She grasped his arm, leaned her head on his shoulder, and in, and Malcolm Leech, Esq., submitted the follow-"If you must go, George, take me with you a. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.

b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. Comer of V. S. Comer of V. S. Sect.
b. Bailding, V. E. Comer of V. S. Comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. Comer of V. S. Comer of V. S. Comer of Thick all bet steers.
b. Bailding, V. E. Comer of V. S. Co Under such extraordinary circumstances, Capt. The baffled officer turned quickly, too quic

LOCAL MATTERS. The "Factory Riots."

QUARTER SESSIONS-Monitory Allois, Jüdges Patton and Keer. Com. vs. The persons charged with raising a flot in Allegheny. Prosecutor, Mr. Kennedy, of the Penn Factory. Factory.

Callan.

a gun, a little time alter the water was thrown, was not pointing it at any one. R. T. Kennedy, sworn.—Am one of the proprie-tors of the Penn Factory; I opened the mill on the 31st of July; the evening previous I made prepara-tions for defence by informing Mayor and Sheriff that we were threatened with a mob; there was a small number of persons outside: the mirls and boys came For Com. Messrs Bigham, Shaler, Stanton and For Defence, Messrs Black, Sawyer, McClure and veral dozen others.

several dozen others. Mr. Sawyer moved to quash the indictment, and proceeded to give reasons. First, the indictment as defective in that the name of the Attorney General or of any one representing the Commonwealth, is not endorced on it. Second, because the act of assem-bly has not been complied with, by the officers of the county in selecting the Jurors. we were threatened with a mob; there was a small fund number of persons outside; the girls and boys came in to work; part of the time walked round-outside; the crowd began to grow larger; not more than forty hands went to work; two-thirds of them were girls; at 7 o'clock we stopped the mill to let the girls go to breakfast; after breakfast there were about the same number in some of whom were in before, and some were not: saw no violence to those who were and accurate judgment of the subject. Participa-ting in the common desire of good men in this community, to see the colored race placed in a position where they can enjoy the rights and im. munities of free men, they do kereby recommend Mr. Hall, and the cause of which he is the agent, to the affectionate regard and liberal patronage of Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Black made some further of the number of the mill, and the cause of which he is the agent, to the affectionate regard and liberal patronage of special contract : a committe was appointed to draf

Mr. Black,-Did not the proprietors agree to exa

Mr. Stanton objected; the question was not i

Mr. Black denied there was any riot on the par of the children ; they had assembled peaceably to sustain the law and themselves ; we have a right to show that the men on the other side violated the red panes of glass were broken ; by my orders the more than ten hours per day, as a day's work ?

Mr. Shaler objected.

contract.

some were not ; saw no violence to those who were

was thrown, the children and myself were on the made upon us, and we all ran; saw George Keenan i street; this was before the gate was pulled down, and before the breach was made in the fence; don't know whether Kennedy was at the valve when the bet water was thrown the mate reserved to evide thread without doing a military force, but re-bet water was thrown the mate reserved to evide thread without doing a military force, but re-bet water was thrown the mate reserved to evide thread without doing a military force, but re-THE Cow HIDE .- The Exchange dinner was yery good yesterday, but the dessert was lacking in some ingredients; in consequence, Colonel Black betook Joit with intention or raising a miniary force, but re-turned without doing anything.
Cross examined.—Heard something said about the stam being let off ; there was more violence after the steam; Vance told me he wanted to preserve and the steam; Vance told me he wanted to preserve himself to an amusement that served as well as pie or pudding. He rose from the table and walked to the Monongahela House. He there met a man I the steam; vance tou me ne wanted to preserve torder, but objected to bringing the posse from town; i the first I saw of the breaking of the windows was about 12 o'clock. Mumford and Gungle were in jail.
Eduard Watt, sworn,---Reside on Isabella street; named W. A. MAGAW, of Meadville, whom he cow-hided very well.

We understand that some gentlemen, friends of when the gate was broken open. Wm. Wright. sworn.--Kesine on isabella street; caw the mob; saw Lindsay and Vance in the crowd when the gate was broken open. Wm. Wright. sworn.--Was at the riot; went out Nr.: Magaw was using very violent and insulting language in regard to him, and had been engaged in

Wm. Wright. sworn.—Was at the riot; went out if for provisions; went out of the office door; got one basket fall, and took it into the blacksmith's shop; went out to get another; saw a crowd at the door; could not get back again; don't know what was done with the provisions. Mary Debraney, sworn.—Was working at the root; as a soldier in the presence of a great many persons years at the table, and denounced him as a "d--d coward." He persisted in his charges until Col. B's friends felt it their duty to communicate Magaw's inguage. The cowhiding took place in the present at the day of the Riot; no crown at 5; in an hour the crowd began to gather; there was not thing said to me; heard nothing gaid to any one, when I was returning; stones were thrown into the mir Mirand Hollander strike Factory door with an axe; yield'nt know any other girl; we were frightened. present informed us that the Col. addressed him mildly and gave him an opportunity to retract his charge.

In this community, where Col. Black was raised. and where his heroism in Mexico is well known, any notice of a charge so ridiculous was wholly unnecessary. But we cannot regret that a public calumpiator of, a gallant soldier has been signally punished

AROTHER FLOOD .- The rivers are again bank fall, and yesterday run full of ice.

The loss of boats of all kinds has been immense We have a list of lost property, showing a value of ousands of dollars swept away, which we cannot publish to-day.

A brass key is on our desk awaiting its owner. Who calls? Only 25 cents-for this notico.

IT ORPHAN ASYLUM SOIREE - A Meeting of the Managers of the Orphan Asylum Soirce, will be held at the Office of the "Morning Post," on Thursday evening, Sth inst., at 71 o'clock. A full attendance is reques ness of importance will be transacted. (Chronicle and Journal please copy.)

DIED nnt. Mr. ANDREW MELVANEY

ind that the black-

Commonwealth rested.

for the year.

and Mea

Grier, of C. C.

Election of City Officers.

met in Convention yesterday, in the new Cour

House and proceeded to the election of City Officers

Previous to the ballotings, however, the Presi-jointments of Standing Committees :

Joanna Brown to the office, whom I believed to have been chopping at the gate; saw Mary Lynch throw-ing eggs; Rosetta Richards was with her; Sarah Stewart was there with the others; I told the offi-cers I thought it was not safe to make an arrest; Boser was chased by the mob. Cross ex.—Saw Col. Robinson, G. R. Riddle, R. H. Kerr and others in the crowd. They were acting as peacemakers.

sworn .--- Was at the Riot : saw Roht PITTSBURGH THEATRE.

On Tuesday, the 16th instant, Mr. ANDREW MELVANE The funeral will take place to-morrow, at 1 o'clock, tro his late residence, near the month of Saw Mill Run.

A CARD. ID Mrs. PRIOR respectibily informs the public of Pittsburgh that her BENEFIT will take place on Trauss' nAY BVENISO, January 1: th, 1840, when will be presented (for the first time during several scasons) the celebrated Drama, by J. B. Bučkstone, of "ISABELLA, OR THE THREE ERAS OF WOMAN'S LIFE;" after which, a variety of Singing and Dancing The whole's to conclude with (for the last time this season)" DOMBEY & SON:"

and sashes soiled at the expense of the latter. Then followed forced smiles, blessings, tears, the parting. That night, hour after hour, in the lonely room which had once been Eugenie's, over a harp whose Mr. Hall, and the cause of which he is the agent, remarks occupied considerable time. an engle in pursuit of a devoted wood-pigeon. strings the delicate fingers of the most loved to the affectionate regard and liberal pe night wake no more, leaned a pale and fair-haired Hamilton saw with exultation that the prize would soon be his; he already stretched out his youth weeping wildly and bit Congressional Printing. ing that his twined heart had been torn asunder arms, when-she was gone, gone ! and at his feet yawned a chasm in the ice ! Fearless of death We have examined several specimens of prin-That night, in his own room, sat a tall ar handsome man, yet in the golden meridian of life and the rheumatism, the gallant captain leaped to the rescue; and, as Heaven would have it, Eugazing mournfully on the portrait of a beautiful genic rose in the same place where she sank, and genic rose in the same place where she sank, and was safely lifted from the water and borne to the the lip of the soldier, a strange glistening in his girl, in a skating costume, which hung against the bank by her alarmed lover. She had chanced eye. Then he diew from his breast another pic-upon a spot but thinly frozen over; the thick ice aving been cut and removed on that very day. shone through the tears of the father. The poor girl was chilled into partial uncon ess, and Hamilton knelt by her side, and It is evening-the first evening at sea, and Capt anderly strove to revive her. Her father, Henri, Hamilton and his bride are on deck, watching the and the Lieutenant reached the spot, but no one last point of American land, us it fades into the nterfered with the office of her rescuer. He blue of the borizon seemed not to notice the presence of others, as he bent over the fainting girl and chafed her bands The wind blows fair-othe vessel feels The pressure of the breeze; The swiftest of a thousand keels, She leaps to the careering sens! and temples. At last he pressed his lips to hers, and called upon her name in an agony of love and fear. As though she had received a powerful Eugenie's sweet eyes were filled with tears, a galvanic shock, Eugenie instantly sprang to her stretching her arms towards the dim shore, s feet, rejecting with indigoation and hauteur, the farther assistance of her presuming lover. Sup-ported by her father and brother, she proudly and លរះពោមក "Adieu, dear adopted land! father, broth adien, adieu !' Her husband folds her to his bosom, and whis sliently walked homeward, hurt and mortified by the evening's amusement. pers-"You have indeed resigned much to follow The adventurers reached the house, with icicles depending from every point and edge of their attire, and found themselves pretty thoroughly "Yes, ALL-home friends, and it may be n religion." "And now, dear George," she add miling through her tears, will you not admi chilled, but a change of clothing and a trifle that Napoleon was the greatest hero the worl can de vie soon set all right again. Eugenie maintained her proud and silent re has ever known?" "Yes, yes, I yield at last; but in return for the rve, until, as Capt. Hamil on was about leaving, concession, I take the liberty my little Bonapart st wife, of kissing you on the Emperor's check!"-Gen. Leroux, grasping his hand, said in a tremu me !!!

" My dear young friend, you have saved the life Lady's Book f my child; receive a father's blessing !" Eugenie's beart was touched; she sprang for ward impetuously, seized Hamilton's other hand, and looking up with tearful eyes, said in a tone to ulars of Mr. Stevenson's first celebrated engine the Rocket. It was brought in 1527 from the Liver-pool and Manchester Railway Company by Mr. be heard by Il present-"Let me also thank you, my preserver; I have . Thomas, of Kirkhouse. Here the engine was been ungrateful, unwomanly, forgive me!" A short time subsequent to the little adventure worked for five or six years on the Midgeholme ine-a local line belonging to a Mr. Thompso ich we have narrated, Capt. Hamilton was or-Soon after the engine was placed on the line the contest for East Cumberland took place, when Sir J. Graham was anperseded by Major Aglionby; lered to another station, where he remained during the winter; his affairs de cœur continuing in he mean time pretty much in statu quo. In the and it was used for conveying the Alston express with the state of the poll from Midgeholme to spring time he returned, but only to bid his friends adien, his company had been recalled to England. Kirkhouse. Upon that occasion the Rocket ac-On announcing this to Eugenie, she threw, aside complished its share of the work, a distant of upr reserve at once, exclai wands of four miles in four minutes and a half- 27. "Holy Mother, going! and I-how am I to thus reaching a speed nearly equal to sixty miles ndure the parting?" "Great Heaven, Eugenie! is it possible that an hour. On the introduction of more powerful engines, the Rocket was "laid up in ordinary," in you love me at last ?' "I do, truly, tenderly; I can never love another the yard at Kirkhouse;-where it now stands, no -will never wed another! I tell you this, my as a mark of the esteem in which his memory is the total result : less a monument of the genius of the inventor than friend, because I cannot wed with you." friend, because I cannot wed with you." "Say not so, dearest; be my wife! go with me to England! I will make any sacrifice for your love. Say the word, and I will leave the army, that I may never be the active enemy of your native country. Tell me, my love, will you not be should like to see Oliver Evan's now. held by Mr. Thompson. Such an engine says th would be a monument to that ingenious Ame "Oh, do not urge me, I entreat you-I cannot leave my father I A stranger in a strange land; his country, his emperor, his daughter, all lost to him; would he not die of a broken heart? No, no; I will never forsake him!" and the poor child burst into tears. Capt. Hamilton stode up and down the spart. ment, pale and heart wrung with contending which the supply of the gas is furnished to the emotions, but he was too honorable, too truly burner. The burner is a tin plate of brass, perfor-noble, long to hesitate, and respectfully taking Eugenie's hand in his, he said-"I honor, you for your decision; L love you the more tenderly for this beautiful exhibition of filial pressure of the gas through the chamber does not piety. May God give us strength to endure our common trial, and permit me distant day to claim this hand." to return at no burner is such as to prevent any waste or snicke, but the moment the pressure exceeds this fixed amount, the valve is raised by it to the top of the Then, after folding her for the first time to his beast, and kissing away the tears which hung on ber long dark eye-lashes, he turned hastily and was gone. But he returned in a moment—he had left a glove, and had returned to find Mademoiselle Eugenie pressing that same glove to her lips and heart, in her passionate sorrow. She was over-tegulates the consumption. The instant the extra ome with confusion, and could scarcely raise pressure diminishes so as to allow the gravity of her eyes to her lover's, as he burriedly requested her to inform her father that he would wait upon im in the morning to make his adjet Scientific Amirican Early the next morning, Eugenie sought her ther in the library, and with as much calmne as she could command, related the occurrence of he preceding evening. The General, surprised and agitated, exclaimed: "Is it possible that you love this man whom ou rejected an

"As sincerely as my departed mother mu have loved you in your youth; but I could not make lonely the hearth of our home; I could not raake von. my father " arsake you, my lather... "You are an angel, Eugenie! The first daugh-ter that ever blessed a father's heart. Yet I can not accept this sacrifice; I cannot separate you om the man you love, and who is worthy of yo -it would be selfish, sinful, to do this.

Hamilton to England, his happy wife! Go, and take with you a father's blessing! God forbid I should cloud your young life with sorrow !! a Father, dear father, do not call this a sacrifice! commends, it so fearlessly .- Scientific American. The spirit of my mother will aid me in my duti-ful devotion to you. Heaven will smile upon me, and I shall be happy."

Iowa U. S. Senator.

Gas Light Monitor.

ting executed by Messrs Wendell & Van Benthuy sen, the present congressional printers; and we must say that they are any thing but creditable to those persons. Lieut. EMERT's report, for instance (which is one of the most interesting and valuable documents ever issued by congress,) is executed upon old worn out type, which the meanest country office would have thrown out of use years ago.

The paper is about the quality of that used in wrapping tea, only a good deal thinner. It was thought that a large sum of money would be saved to the country, when the contract for public printing was given to Wendell & Van Benthuysen, and congressmen, who pocket $8 per day, and charge for "ext ra millage," boasted of the economy they had introduced, by thus starving printers; but the cunning Yankee firm understood what they were about, when putting in a low bid for the work .-The old congressional printers received a little and not to plead. more pay for their labor; but they employed jour. Mr. Stanton sai will make more money out of the job than their Democratic Cancus for U. S. Senator. A correspondent of the Easton Argus, writing from Barrisburg, evidently a member of the Legislature, discloses the proceedings of the recent Democratic causes, held to nominate a candidate fo The First Locomotive, U. S. Senator. The writer gives the ballots as fol-The Carlisle Journal gives the following partic Rallotings. 2d. Woodward, 22 29 14 Cameron, Brodhead. Scattering, The result of the fourth ballot is not given. connection with these proceedings, it is proper to lation was offered by Mr. Pierce, of Columbia, a sterling Democrat from a sterling county, declaring ciple	For Wm. F. Johnston, For Morris Longstreth,	1

abi.	Johnson's Plurality, Scattering,	•
rican	Johnston's majority,

A patent has recently been taken out in England which appears to be a good one for gas consumers. It consists of a circular valve enclosed in a box which is placed before the burner and through ated in the centre and weighing about fifteen grains; it is quite loose in the chamber which contains it, and the mode of its operation is this .-- When the exceed a certain fixed amount, the supply to the the valve to exert its force, the valve falls back to its first position at the bottom of the chamber Boiler Explosions. Hon. Edmund Burke, the Commissioner of Patents, has sent in an able Report to Congress or "Steamboat Explosions and their remedies." The scientific part of the report is profound and correct. The Commissioner considers that the law of Con-gress in relation to the appointment of Steamboat Inspectors,' to be radically defective. He consid-Inspectors, to be range any detective. The constant ers their appointment by the District Judges to be wrong, and recommends a rigid examination of candidates to test their ability before permitting the them to fill such situations. This is what we call to even down honesty in a report. The District Judges are not fit persons to judge of the capability of a person to inspect the qualities of the hull the and machinery of a steamboat. He also recom mends that proprietors be made responsible for all damages of life and property. This is a bold re-commend, but certainly there is some measure of the kind demanded, and we are glad to see him re

Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Black made some further ob hurt ; Wagly was badly hurt ; rvations when the court adjourned till 2 o'clock. mith shop had been broken open afterwards. AFTERNOON SESSION.

Cross ex .-- Saw Thompson early in the morning ; Court over-ruled motion to quash. Leave was saw him with the crowd : don't know his mother Court over-ruled motion to quash. Leave was granted to the Deputy Attorney General to endorse the name of the Attorney General upon the bill. As to putting up list of Jurors in the public offices; the requirement should be observed; but there was no time specified at which it would be done. The Court ordered the names of the defendants to be called. The Clerk called over the names. A few answer-ed.

declined opening the mill, but the hands urged me to open; the hands came voluntarily and signed; Mr. Black and other attorneys, stated that they the agreements were not prepared before the stop-page on the 4th; we did not open until a sufficient appeared for certain of the absentees, but declined leading to the indictment. number had signed and requested us to open; we no-tified them that if they did not sign the contract we Mr. Shaler insisted upon having the defendants in Court; or that attorneys should enter pleas. Mr. Black wanted to know what there was in this case that placed it above other misdemeanors. We appear for our clients, and refuse to plead just the same as though they were present. If we have a right to appear and plead, we have a right to appear Mr. Stanton said the position taken by Mr. Black neymen at fair wages, and used good type and paper; whereas the Yankees employ girls, and use worn out materials. We "rather guess" the latter and will go to jail for him?" The coursel cannot Mr. Black replied. Mr. Shaler said, no matter what the proprietors and will go to jail for him." The counsel cannot did that was illegal; one violation of law was no appear for the defendants when they refuse to plead excuse for a riot.

to the indictment. The Court remarked that the general rule was that parties may appear by counsel; but the Commonwealth's attorney may insistapon their presence. After some arguments on both sides it was finally agreed by Court and counsel that a general plea of Mr. Stanton defended his position in a speech o Not Guilty " should be entered, and that, should some length. the judgement be against the defendants, they will 3d 5th Mr. Black replied. be ontitled to the same advantages as though they Court overruled the opestion. 27 27 had appeared and refused to plead, and the Court en-About 5 o'clock, in the morning, saw girls outside; o contracts were made for children under 14 years f age; before the steam was let off, several huntered the plea of Not Guilty for them.

After a long time taken up challenging jurors th jury was sworn, and the cause progressed. Mr. Callan opened on the part of the Commonteam was let off Mr. Black .- Who are the prosecutors, beside wealth. It was the most philosophical "opening" yourself1 we ever heard.

FOUND DEAD .- A few days ago we published the notice of the death of a man. in Allegheny city, (who was found in the old mill on Robinson street) from some disease caused by drunkenness. The text day after his funeral, his wife was found dead n her bed, with her two children beside her alive. We have heard nothing further in relation to the

AFTERNOON SESS

was called to the Riot; the first I knew of the th

THEATRE -Oxley had a splendid house on Monday evening.

There were but few in last evening, though the play of Wallace was presented. To-morrow evening Mrs. PRIOR takes a benefit.

e have already published.

.T. Johrson

District-F. Mor-

City officers;

City Treasurer-

Street Commis

AFTERNOOR BESSION. Fred. Hagey, sworn.—Am on Engineer; let off the steam by order of Kennedy; the object was to frighten the mob. John Forsyth, sworn.—Am Sheriff of the County; Let her have such an one as she deserves, and the Boxes will be full.

We are pleased to observe that Murdoch has been engaged, and is shortly to appear.

Vance helping to tear down a gate; saw Kont. Vance helping to tear down a gate; saw Sarah Stewart, M. Hollander, and three or four others at tacking a gate; saw Joanna Brown and Mary Lynch in the crowd; all these worked in one factory; saw Arthur Kirk in front of Kennedy's office; he was talking about the oppressions of the cotton men, and the rights of the operatives. -85,00,—Single tickets,... ...50c. | 2d and 3d Tier... ...25c. | Private Bozes.. WEDRESDAY, January 17, will be presented a benuiful Play, in 5 Acts, called GISIPPUS, OR, THE FORGOTTEN PRIEND Gisippus.....Mr. Oxloy. | Titus Fulvius....Mr. Prior. Sophronia Miss Walters and Mr. Goodance To conclude with the STATE SECRETS. Solomon chutter, sworn.— Knew none who were taking part in the riot. Robert Lowry, sworn.—Was all round the Factory; saw Vance; he swore he'd be d——d if he'd see the girls imposed on; saw him almost unaided break down the gate on Isabella street. ratics in the sallery will remain closed during the eld weather. ILP Doors open at 64; Curtain will rise at 72 o'clack. The members of Select and Common Council

February Magazines. Rebruary Magazines. Beokived AT M. A. MINER'S-Godey's Lady's Graham's Magazine, for February. Ladies' National, for February. All the above are more a equal to the January numbers. lustrated Courier, for December, ithan equal to the January numbers. Illustrated Courier, for December. Littell's Living Age, No. 244. The Gold Mines of California, and also a full historical account of that country; edited by G. G. Föster. 'Also, a large correct Map of all that region of country; engraved by Atwood, New York. Also, a new work of 150 pages, giving a full history of California and its Gold Regions, with the ;reographical, mineral and agricultural resources, including a map of the whole country; by Fayette Robinson. Part first Illustrated Life of Beni, Franklin; to be com-plete in eight humbers. Published by the Harpers. Charles Dickens' new work, the Haunted Man and the Ghost's Bargain. Price G centa. BERFORD, of Allegheny City, has all the above. IJFF Smithfield street, third door above:2d junt7 [ORSALE OR RENT-A Two Story Brick Dwelling. dent read to the respective bodies the following ap-Finance .- Messrs. Lorenz, Layng and Jones of S. sis. Howard, Sawyer, Wilson and Bradley, of C. C. Water.--Messrs. Kincaid, Shipton and Hays, of S. C.; and Messrs. Armstrong, Cordell, Speer and King, Streets, Grading and Paving.—Messre. Laughlin and Caskey, of S. C.; and Cunningham, McCammon and Woods, of C. C. Police.—Messre. Kincaid and Murray, of S. C.; FORSALE OR RENT-A Two Story Brick Dwelling, situate on Fifth street, opposite the Court House -Equire of MMULLEN & DOWNING, and State of MAULTER & DOWNING, 218 Libe nd Messrs. Howard, Sutton and Lawis, of C. C. Fire Engines and Hose.—Jones and Coyle, of S. C.; and Messrs. Sawyer, Holmes and M'Farland, of d subscriber, wishing to dispose of his entire stock of gueensware as soon as possible, will sell test stock of and Saucers at the extremely low price of 12 icentif entire d asour source of the extremely low price of 12 icentif per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource as the extremely low price of 12 icents per d asource of the place. Store keepets and families should improve this opportunity, without de Wood street Claims and Accounts .-- Messrs. Robertson and Kent, of S. C.; and Messrs. Montooth, Hamilton and City Property.-Messrs. Murray and Magill, of S. C; and Messrs. Wick, McCollister and Mason, of

.; and Messrs. Wick, McConnister and Morrow, of S. C. and Messrs. Shipton and Morrow, of S. C. and Messrs. Shipton and Osgood, of Aqueduct and Canal.—Messrs. Shipton and Laugh-

 C.C./
Aqueduct and Canal.—Messrs. Shipton and Laugh-lin, of S. C; and Messrs. McFarland, Roberts and Cunningham, of C. C.
Markets.—Messrs. Hays and Coyle, of S. C; and Messrs. Wilson, Hill and Yenger, of C. C. City Printing.—Messrs. Hill and Murray, of S. C.; and Messrs. McCollister, King and Woods, of C. C. Wooden Buildings.—Messrs. Drum and Morrow, of S. C.; and Messrs. Smith, Mackin and Osgood, of C. C. e has just received an additional supply, and is offerin airting Muslins of a superior quality at a very low

Also, Also, Sheeting and Pillow case Muslins; Diapers and Crash; Table Cloths, Towels and Napkins; Blankets, Quilts, Comperpanes; and Honsekeeping Day Goods generations; and Destroy and Messrs. Smith, Mackin and Osgood, of C.C. Sanitary.—Messrs. Black and Magill, of S. C.; and Messrs. Cordell, Yeager, and Lewis, of C. C. Appeals from City Assessments.—Messrs. Layng and Drum. of S. C.; and Messrs. Lambura, McClure and Smith, of C. C. Blankets, Quilts, Counterpanes; and Housekeeping Dry Goods generally LADIES DRESS GOODS—Such as French Merinos, Parmétios, plain and fancy De Laines; (some new styles ust received;) Alpacas, &c. The season being far advanced, all these Goods will be old at brack that county foil to the season

ald at prices that cannot fail to ples Gas Lighting.--Messrs. Caskey and Bent, of S. C.; and Messrs. Hamilton, Montooth, and Hill, of C. C. Monongahela Wharf.--Messrs. Lorenz and Black, FOR SALE-A valuable property of a Brick House rand Lot, of 20 feet from by 100 feet deep to an alley, pleasantly situated on Tomato street, Allegheny. The House is In good order and built of the best materials, with dry allocated order and built of the best materials. of S. C.; and Messrs. Holmes, Wick and Mason, of ith dry cellar, garden, &c. S. CUTHBERT, Gen. Agent, Smithfeld suce

Allogheny Wharf .- Messrs. Magill and Shipton, of S. C.; and Bradley, McCallister and Armstrong, of C. C. jan13 Ordinances .- Messrs. Long and Caskey, of S. C., and Howard, Roberts and Lamburn, of C. C. The Mayor communicated his appointment nts.which

The following was the result of the ballotings for

City Solicitor-C. B. Scully had 36 votes; and J. Biddle 10. D. Biddle 10. City Assessor—James M'Clane. Clerk of Committees—John Major. Messenger of Committees—E. F. Pratt. Superintendent of Wafer Works—James H. M'-Clelland had 31 votes ; John Sheriff 16 votes. Street Commissioner—First District—John M'II-waine had 31 votes ; Joseph Barker 16. Street Commissioner—Senged District—F Mas

Testing and delivering to be at the expense of the con-tractor. [jan10:dtd] J. H. MCLELLAND, Supt.

Street Commissioner-Second Districtor and row had 22 votes; A. Rawley 24; Wm. Farley 1. Monongahela Wharf Master-Wm. Such 36; row had 22 votes; A. Rawley 24; Wm. Farley 1. Monongahela Wharf Master-Wm. Such 36; Thomas M'Fadden 11. Allegheny Wharf Master-Wm Simms had 20 votes; Henry Earl 27. Weigh Master at Hay Scales-David Drennon had tractor, [jan10:dtd] J. H. MCCLELLAND, Supt. Fresh, Pure Teas, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, AT THE PERTY TEA The subscriber, having just returned from New York, is now receiving a large supply of FRESH GREEN and BLACK TEAS, from the New York Pekin Tea Compa-ny, selected with great care for retail sales. Our stock being now heavy, we are prepared to supply Grocers, Hotels. Steamboats and Families with any quantity, and at any mise they may wish-macked it A i and I bound 25 votes; Peter Felger 18; David Boyd 4. Weigh Master at Market—A. Hartupee had 38 votes; David Boyd 9. City Gauger—S. Northan was elected.

Hoters, Steampoats and Families with any quantity, and at any price they may wish—packed ir 4, 4 and 1 pound packages, 5 fb. tin cannisters, 6 and 13 fb. catly borkes, and in the half chest. Retail Grocers are invited to call, as we can and will sell better Teas at lower prices than any other house in Purchares.

Bell better Teas at lower prices than any other house in Pittsburgh. Our stock of fine Young Hyson, Gunpowder, and Im-perial Green, and Oolong Black Toas, are the best in the American market. Lovering's double refined Loaf, Crushed and Palver ized SUGARS, at retail, or by the barrel. COFFEES.-Mocha. Old Gov. Java, Lagoyra, St. Bomngo and Rio Coffees, selected by the most expe-rienced Coffee Broker in New York. Sweet Spiced Chocolate, Pickled Cucumbers, and Ontons. Frash Peaches, put up in their own juice. Ma-laga Raisnas, in 3 th, boxes. N. B.-All Dr. D. Jayne's Family Medicines for sale. dec0.dew. Lots on Perpetual Lease.

dec: dec: dec: 1. J. Jupper Family Medicines for sale. A. JAYNES. Lots on Perpetual Lease. A FEW LOTS yet remain undisposed of, and to be let House, 7th Ward, Pittsburgh. They are the cheapest Lots in the market, being of large size, in a healthy. con-venient and prosperous location, and the purchase money never required to be paid; only the interest or ground rent, from SiB to S24 a year, according to the size and po-sition of the Lot, with the privilege of extinguishment at any time by payment of the privilege of the size and po-time the new Saam is completed. THOS. MELLON, Auvy, jantitic Comper of Wylle and Fills streets. Howe's Cough Congty.

pending upon his daily labor will hardly take om his earnings for books what would pay in e year for his house rent; but still he could pay wards a public library anough to entitle him to	distance; we put him in the watchouse to save his life; saw Wash M2Kelvy after him; we also put a person named Daniel Bosier in the watch house, to rticipate in its benefits. You say, Mr. Editor, at the school directors of the Sixth Ward are out establishing a circulating library. I am artily glad of it, and hope the Fourth Ward di- ctors will follow the noble example set to them tey are men who bravely done an act that they	are his life; he was not a mill hand. I was there till the gates were shut op', in the evening; steam was up in the morning. The men did nothing until the Sheriff came, and the water was thrown on them—about 9 or 10 o'clock; saw Robert Vance; did not see him do anything; did not see Lindsay do any thing; he assisted me to stop the President engine from going to the Factory; some boys had broken into the house and taken the engine out for the nurrose of throwing worker and the factory; did

