L.F. Errsipelas is only one among many of the numer-ous eliments which originate in impurities of the blod; and experience has shown that fow, if any, are more difficult to overcome. But the Clickener Singar-conted Vegetable Fills have grappled successfully with it in every form. Mrs. Jones, of Albany, intw upwards of 50 years of age, had been subject to periodical returns of this complaint from her earliest infancy; and latterly, had been so violently affected, as to furnish indications of deranged intellect. Recourse was had, as formerly, to the family physician, but his preservious only drove the affection inward, as usual, preparatory, to breaking out with renewed v olence. The Doctor fundly recom-mended a box of Lees Fills; but, through some inistate of the Apothecarry's Clerk; a box of Clickener's Sugar-conter Furgative Fills was sent in their stead. Having inter the fills of any description, and being rather augrestitors withal, they conclusters that Providence
