WASHINGTON, February 22.

SENATE.

Mr. Webster offered a petition authorizing the President to held possession of California and New Mexico, and to preserve order, by employing the army and navy; the existing laws to remain in force, and that officers be appointed to execute them; that Martial law should now be proclaimed; and that an appropriation should be made for these objects. The petition was read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Dayton offered a similar petition.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the Regolution for supplying the emigrants to California with arms and ammunition, by the complying with certain terms, which finally passed.
