Of let its slumber break Arouse its senses and awake, To see how soon, Life, with its glories, glides away, And the stern foot step of decay Comes stealing on.

How pleasure, like the passing wind, Blows by, and leaves us nought behind But grief at last; How still our present happiness Sceme to the wayward fancy, less Than what is past.

Our lives like husting streams must be, That into one engaling sate must be, Are doomed to fall; The Sea of Death, whose waves roll on, Over hing and kingdom, crown and throne, And swallow all.

Alike the river's lordly tide, Alike the humble riv'lets glide To the sad wave; Death levels poverty and pride, And rich and poor sleep side by side Within the grave.

Our birth is but the starting place, Life is the running of the race, And death the goal : There all our steps at last are brought, That path alone, of all unsought; Is found of all.

Where is the strength that mocked decay; where is the strength that mocked deci The step that rose so light and gay, The hear's blithe tone f The strength is gone, the step is slow, And joys grow wearinges and wee Whee age comes on.

Say, then, how poor and little worth Are all those glittering toys of earth, That lare us bere ; Dreams of a sleep that death must break, Alua! before it blds us wake, Ye disappear.

It mes and that scone his s lips with a little Stough- n. and Fife trembling with a gave himself up to the killed a man in a duel, the matter, it is said, con- learned the facts in the prisoner. | To counteract the influence of this extraordinary "certificate," the Post appealed to the mighty mass- es for an express on of opinion, and the lapse of 24 hours brought to its assistance MANY THOUSANDS of the Freeman of Allegheay, who signed and pub- lished a paper endorsing all that had been said and done by Mr. HARER in behalf of honeat labor and the "Ten Hour Law!" This was a clincher, and closed the ball; and the Post reposes upon the lau- rels it has wor in a controvery in which it stood sin- gle handed against the immense power of the Cor- porations of Pittsburgh. What has been the effect of the "conspiracy" to crush the Post 7 It has resulted in nearly doubling the circulation of that able and spirited paper, and has made for its editor thousands of friends that knew him not before. We consider this a grand moral triumph! A tri- umph of Men over Money—and we trust the labor- ing men of Allegheny, and elsewhere, will celebrate the event annually, and use all their efforts to build up and sustain the paper that has so ably and faith- fully defended their rights 1. EARTHQUARES IN CALIFORNIA,—An article in the Philadelphia North American, speaking of Califor- nia, says : "After the gold mania shall have abated a little, our emigrant friends will discover another peculiar quality in California, which will, probably, not bo much to their liking—namely, that it is a great coun- try for earthquakes. At Monterey, according to Sir George Simpson, no less than one hundred and twen- try shakes were noticed during the two successive months in the summer of 1841. Most of these, as may be supposed; were very slight ones; but in proof that they are not always so, Sir George speaks a having seen near the town, besides shattered churches, a 'ront in the earth a mile or so in length antion to their German brethren; offering 30,000 guilders for destroying the Emperor of Austria, 25,- 00 do.
