INEN GINGHAMS.—W. R. Mappy Cas now open fr is with pleasure that the subscribers in-form the cilizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity that they have completed arrangements with Messrs. J. C. Jenkins & Co., of Philadelphia, to receive their superior thereof on himself, and this proof should be contained in a deposition of the person who had been so provided by him with such horse, equipments, or military accountrements.

Third Class of Cases.

That in all cases where horses have been condemned by a board of officers on account of their unfuness for service, in consequence of the Government failing to supply forage, all such horses and their equippage shall be allowed and paid for, whenever the facis shall be proven by legal and satisfactory evidence, whether oral or written, that such condemned horse and the equipage was turned over to a quartermaster of the army, whether any receipt therefor was given and produced or not. To establish a claim under this provision the chaimant must adduce the evidence of the wittenses mentioned under the head of finist class of cases, satisfactorily proving that the property therein described was, while in the military service, of the United States, condemned by a board of officers on account of their being rendered unft for service in consequence of the Government failing to supply forage, and that such property wasturned over to a quartermaster of the United States army, explaining when the claimant was remounted, &c., as required in said first class of cases.

In no case can the production of the evidence previously described be dispensed with unless the impracticability of producing it be clearly proved, and then the nearest and best other evidence of which the case is susceptible must be furnished in fieu thereof.

Every claim must be accompanied by a deposition of the claimant, "declaing that he has not received from any officer or agent of the United States army horse or horses, equipage, accountements, mule, wagon, curt, boat, sleigh, or harriess, fas the case may be, in lieu of the claimant, in the loss is alleged to have occurred, because the United States arriver, and be supported, if practicable, by the original valuation list, if made by the appraisers of the property at the time the same was taken into the Un do trail I valea Almonds; just rec'd and for sale by ap20 JOSHUA RHODES, No. 6 Wood at.
