Written for the Saturday Morning Post. KATE ORTON:

The Forced Marriage.

BY MORTIMER.

was just able to sit in the bolstered chair, when CHAPTER III. Next duy, after breakfast, Kate and Frank Orton the following conversation was had. Frank, atter went on deck ; there they met with Henry Har- a few moment's silence and reflection, said : "Kate. cout, and the day was spent in reading, singing would you not like to see, or even to hear, from and conversation. The passion which was aroused our gentlemanly friend, Henry Harcout ? I can in Henry's bosom, increased the more intimate he not tell how it is, I love that fellow most devoted became with its producing cause. He thought ly and Kate, if I mistake not, he loves you." Kate Octop the most lovable being that he had Kate, blushing, replied Oh, Frank !!! You ever seen. And her feelings towards him were ought to be ashamed ! Do hush! Let Mr. Harequally as strong. The approaching evening cout declare for himself. He surely did not au would be the last that circumstances would allow thorise you to say to me anything of this kind ? them to be together. The boat expected to reach -early on the ensuing day. Here Kate and only guess at his feelings ; and I feel assured that Frank would leave. This fact, even in its embryo I am right. Henry Harcout loves you, Kate ; yes, cast a gloom over Henry's mind. He looked a loves you devotedly; and you cannot do bette the river, and hoped that a dense fog would spring than to accept his hand."

different from those imagined by him.

to Kate frequently about Henry Harcout.

up and impede the boat's progress. He felt as if "Oh ! do hush, Frank. You talk as if Mr he could prolong the passage for life. He even Harcout had actually made me an offer ; while i began to dream of telling Kate he loved her; but | may be that he never thinks of me." his judgment condemned this as hasty and pre-" Kate !" spoke Frank, looking into his sister's face inquiringly.

That evening, after ten, he invited Miss Orton "Well, brother." to the promenade deck. It was another of May's "You love Henry Harcout. Now don't you ?" most pleasant nights, but the beautiful scenery by "Why, Frank ! What has taken poss which he was surrounded was entirely lost to him. von ?" was Kate's evasive reply. He was melancholy; the thought of parting with "You love Henry Harcout ? Tell me, yea o Kate made him so. She knew him only as a tra- nay en velling companion. There was no declaration of " That is a close question. I admit that I en a stronger tie than that which was formed but to tertain an extraordinary esteem for Mr. Harcout be severed. Did she wish to know him in a dife but I can't say that I love him." ferent light than that in which she knew him ?-"You love him, Kate; I know you do; you These and kindred thoughts were chasing one cannot help it; and I have a presentiment that you another through the mind of Henry Harcout; and will be married, but I won't live to see it." so busily was he engaged in settling the agitation The exertion made by Frank Orton, in this con produced by the thought of separation, that he forersation, proved fatal to him. It brought on anogot that he had a companion. At last an idea ther hemorrhage, which terminated his life two jumped from his mouth, of the following shape : days afterwards.

ton ?" "Yes, sir. That is our place of destinat cause it is our home," responded Kate.

"I am sorry ; for I assure you, Miss Orton, never had so much pleasure on board a steamboat before, and I must attribute it all to you." "You flatter, I fear, Mr. Harcout," replied Kate. " Upon my word, Miss Kate, excuse me for my familiarity, I speak truly ; I never knew what it

"I am happy to hear it, Mr. Harcout, that you have enjoyed yourself, for. I feel convinced that your ther's pleasure. But perhaps this is your first trip on the Ohio, and the novel scenery may account company has added much to my own and my bro-was to enjoy a steamboat trip before."

TO BE CONTINUED. The Morning Post L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

every section of this great country, establishing in lent hemorrhoge from the longs. He recovered from this attack, but not until be had lain at death's door for months. During this time he that spokens feontractions and expansions? to the ruin of the paper generally, but to the benefit of those who are loose enough to speculate upon the necessitio One day the two were sitting together-Frank f others.

We have made our suggestions, and we trust out party friends and those honest, whigs who sympa ise with us, will act. The Fourth of July Democratic State Convent will be expected to take action on the subject.

The Cholers to It often happens that good comes out of evil The inhuman treatment of the unfortunate stranger ted by auch a spirit, the Democracy of Pennsylvania who died of Cholera, carried as he was from street to street, without a shelter being offered to him, un til Dr. Penniman took him under his hospitable rot " Not exactly, Kate. It's only my surmises. I has produced a feeling of astonishment at the negligence of our City Authorities, which doubtless will effect good results. Secure in our healthy position, and knowing from experience that our salubrious of the Ohio Delegation on the subject of the sub-to what humanity long ago dictated ; that is; to pre- Weilman, Larwell and Carter, severally addressed pare a hospital for the suffering strangers who may the members. land upon our wharf. The Mercy Hospital was offered for this purpose during last winter, but the Ci- to subscribe to the stock of the Pennsylvania Rail ty Councils refused to accede to their generous proposal; but now when they have declined to receive a Cholera patient, without having made the necess: ry preparations, some persons are trying to find fault of the people, but this was not agreed to, for the with the managers. This is no time for fault finding. Let those who are so willing to consure, others ask themselves the question: Would I take a Cholera atient, or a case of small pox, into my own family The City Authorities were remiss in not having pr pared for the sad sight witnessed on Wednesday i our streets, but it is to be hoped they will now make up for their delinquency. There is no danger of the Cholora spreading in Pittsburgh. Cases may be brought here from below in steam boats, and these only have to be provided for ; and the house for their reception should be out of the city, and the approach to it not through crowded streets. Alarm is a pre-disposing cause of this terrible disease; and all causes to produce alarm should be removed. Vhatever is done ought to be done quickly. The neighborhood for the purpose, and thus prevent any ment hereafter upon the public mind.

Henry Harcourt's affairs required bim to leave cleansing of our streets and alleys ought to go on, for Europe early in the fall. His father was heir and no family should neglect to use lime freely about their premises in order to destroy all offento a valuable property at the death of a senior sive miasma. The best physicians say the Cholera brother. Henry was notified of his uncle's death, is not a contagious disease ; but when a system is and informed by an English attorney that his prepre-disposed, and the individual is careless in his sence would be required in England. For the purpose of attending to this business, he sailed for England in September, 1835-about two weeks Health Officer to board each steam-boat before it apprior to the decease of Frank Orton, and expected proaches the city, and remove all who may be afficted with the discase to some place prepared in the to be absent for eighteen months.

The Clay which of the City of New York, a few days since, held a festival to celebrate the birth-day

Very | years ago. There can be less deception practised Northampton County. shortly after his feture, tie was taken with a vio- by the Whig party, than has for so many years cureed Domocra is of old Northampton er Intelligencer, assembled in county me stitutions for resuing bills of credit, thus creating ing, at Eastnb, on the 19th inst, and elected H. M. · Or MUTONLER and E.F. Biscs, delegates to the Pittsof Mr. burgh 4th of July Convention, without instructions A series of truly able and eloquent resolutions, from the pen of ANDREW H. REEDER, Esq., were read and adopted. They laud in terms of deserved euloinroads upon them, arose and rushed out to dis-cover where the fire was, leaving the door of their gy the patriotic course of Mr. BRODHEAD in Congress hamber open, and in the twinkling of an eye the and of Messis. LUCKENDACH and LAUBACH, two of lames enveloped the room. Two lovely innocents the three representatives from that district-and were there, and not one to rescue them-their faint pourtray, in glowing colors, the imbecility of the ices crying out, "Ma! where are you;" and again National and State administrations, The Democrat Pal come here." The now frantic parents, find of this sterling old county declare, that defeat "this bg it impossible to return through the door they neither disheartened or weakened them." Anima ad came out of, sprang for another on the oppoite side, bent on rescuing from the devouring cannot fail to rise with renewed strength from the flames those darling ones, whom in their fright they had left behind. On opening the door on which their follest hopes had been based, a volume ashes of her late disaster.

flames burst upon them with such a powerful force that they were deterred from entering. The shricks Meeting of Conncils. The two branches met in Convention on Wednesf the parents cannot be described, while with the day evening for the purpese of hearing the speeches massive flames rolled the deep and distressing tones f misery from two little hepless ones, who were tmosphere is anti-choleric, we have neglected to scription to the Rail Road. Col. Roberts, Messrs. festined to be consumed by the raging element.-But despite all danger, the mother, with love uninded, and a heart unflinching, rushed upon the Afterwards an ordinance authorizing the Mayor scene ready to contend with the elements in the scue of her offspring, who were perishing in her Road Company possed both branches. Mr. Layng offered an amendment requiring that he matter of subscription should be left to a vote ar within the chamber as to be badly but much so, that her life is upon a point. The fire cason that there was not sufficient time. originated from a stove in the kitchen. There were also about three hundred dollars in money Cheering from Indiana ! estroyed. We did not learn whether the property An intelligent politician in Indiana writes to was insured or not. Since writing the above, which came to us by Washington Union, that the Democrats' are sure to gain two members of Congress from that State, in letter, we have seen the Indiana Whig, published at Rising Sun, with the details of the above dis-tressing calamity, but they differ in no important the districts represented in the last Congress by EM-BREE and DUNN (whigs) with a fair prospect of gainparticular from the account above. The P. S. to ing another in Smirn's district. Should these an the Whig states, however, that hopes of Mrs Johncipations be realized, there is every reason to son's recovery have become strengthened .- Cin. believe the next House of Representatives, like the ommercial Senate, will be composed of Democratic majorities

Fatal Case of Somnambulism.

Distreasing Calamity.

CONDUCT OF THE MOTHEN !!

Such a result, until recently, was wholly unexpect Miss Emeline Newton, a young lady, aged 20 rears, daughter of Mr. O. S. Newton, living near ed, and if it comes to pass, will be in a great mea sure attributable to the proscriptive course of the ington, Vt., while at the house of a friend, or National administration. The poisoned chalice will Monday night week, arose from her bed, and lef then be commended to its own lins. he premises almost in a state of nudity, and was ound drowned in the river the next morning. On Monday evening she visited her home about The Blockade of the Baltic ports, at the las English advices, April 5, was at once expected, the half of a mile from her place of living, and while negociations between Denmark and Germany having there remarked-"To-morrow is my birthday, and ended in no good result. An afficial notice appears I am going to celebrate it!" From this circumstance it is inferred that in the course of the night from the Danish Consul at London, to the effect that she began to dream upon the pleasure she had promised herself on the coming day, and being samewhat subject to somnambulism, arose, came down stairs, unlocked the door, passed through a to the loth of April. Commercially speaking, the immediate effect of the war would probably be to shed into the yard. From here she probably tool impart firmness to the English corn markets by cuter usual path for home. To do this required the ting off the current of supplies from the Baltic, and he must have fallen. "Never did the grain trade stand more in need of It seems indeed miraculous that she did not some new incident to give it animation; for although British consumption is so immense of foreign grain, awake during the journey to the stream, but she

THE HOSPITAL .- The Sanamry Committee mad Sunday morning, 15th inst. the residence Richard Johnson, near Hamilton, Boone application to the Managers of the Mercy Hospital, the use of the building for cholera patients. The county, Ky, was entirely destroyed by fire. The family were all last asleep at the time the house, took fife. Mr. Johnson and his wife being awakunagers at their meeting yesterday, concluded to frant the use, provided the city would pay the actuened by the noise of the fire, which was making l expenses of the sick. Or, if the councils choose to provide another building, the Sisters of Mercy will give their services gratis.

> The city authorities are no longer without an ex use in not having a hospital. A Hospitat .-- At a meeting of Councils on Wed nesday evening, a Resolution was passed making ome provision for the erection of a Temporar lospital. The report that there was a man afflicted vith Cholera in the city caused the speedy action of the Councils. We are told that should a few more cases of the kind be reported, another resolution or two may be passed; and if the disease should become prevalent, a coal shed will be found some where to answer the purpose. HORRIBLE .--- Complaint was made before the Mayr yesterday that two dead bodies had been thrown into the Seventh Ward grave yard-one on Tuesday night, which was in a coffin, the other on Wednes day night, which was wrapped in a blanket only. sight. Her attempt was fruitless, by being drawn Both were buried. It is supposed they were thrown ack by some friends, who by this time had gath. there for the purpose of saving expense. The ered around; not however until she had gone so supposition that they were Cholera cases is without rned, so proof. CHOLEBA .- The Clipper No. 2 brought up wen named Carpenter, who were afficted with Cholera. One was put ashore at Saw Mill Ron ; the other in this city. We understand they were citizens of this county. One died yesterday and we heard the other had also died at his residence at Saw Mill Run.

LOCAL MATTERS

The papers are severe on the street mintrels. Why ! We cannot tell-for these organ grinders do no harm, and if we may judge by the rowds who attend their calls, we think they afford ome amusement. We hope editors will turn their ttention to other evils. MOBDAUNT HALL, or a September night .- One he very best things we have read lately is Mrs. M. Marsh's last work, bearing the above title. It is eautifully written, and will be read with profit by everybody. Work & Holms have it, Third street, pposite the Post Office.

Be Geo. Turris, the man who was wheeled about the streets in a furniture car, on Wednesday, because he was afflicted with the Cholera, or a dis ease very much like it, died at the residence of Dr Wm. A. Penniman, on the the same evening, and vas immediately buried. ANOTHER SWINDLER .- Some person has been go-climbing of several fences, walking a street for ng around asking donations for the Eagle Fire company. The officers of that company say he has no everal rods, and the crossing of a river, either by bridge or a foot-board-from one of the latter authority to make collections, consequently he must be a swindler.

KICKED.--A gentleman named Maloney on Wed-grounded, took fire and exploded, with 700 soldie and officers on board. esdav ha under a strong mental excite. ment, occasioned by the fond anticipation of soon in combat. The horse kicked him engaging in the happy bilarity consequent upon the occurrence of a birthday festival! And hastily skipping homeward, joyful and careless, she stepand marched off the victor. DROWNED .- On Wednesday evening a little boy ed upon that fatal bridge before she awoke .aged eight years, son of Mrs. Balty, was drowned at Herr's island. He was playing on some of the log erhaps the roaring of the river restored her conrafts, and by accident fell over. nor There was an error in the Advertisemen Separate Proposals" as it appeared yesterday. he bottom; or, perchance, did not awake even up-The word "quoted" should have been "extra." it is correct as printed to-day. We regret to learn that JOHN IBONS, Esq. er twentieth birthday was the last that her imagformerly of the Merchants' Hotel, (now St. Charles,) of this city, died on Wednesday, at his residence i Canonsburgh. Se There was but one case before the Mayor from the Pittsburgh Theatre. The reasons are not given by Rumor. 53 Mrs. Farren takes her benefit this evening,-She appears as Jane Shore. It is needless to say more. The New York correspondent of the Gazefie

News by Telegraph

Reported for the Morning Post.

FOREIGN NEWS.

BY OVERLAND EXPRESS FFOM HALIFAX. Sr. John'S New, BRUNSWICK, April 26th.

The Cambria has arrived with London papers to the 13th and Liverpool to the 14th inst. The vensel arrived at 4 past two o'clock yesterday alternoon. 'Our express immediately set off and arrived at Granvillo, then there took the steamer, and reached the port at 91 A. M. to-day. The Cambria has 46 passengers for Boston. She will probably reach that city about 4 o'clock on Friday. She brings fifty-two thousand pounds in

In consequence of the resumption of hostilities between Germany and Denmark, whereby the sup-plies of grain from the Baltic have been nearly un-pended. The Liverpool market for Breadstifts last week evinced some marked symptoms of re-ani; mation. The latest quotations of best brands of. Ohio floar have advanced to 24@25s. per bbl. Philadelpha, Baltimore and Western Caral. Of Unio nour nave auranceu to surters, per bot. Philadelphia, Baltimore and Western Caral, 24. Sour, 23s 6d. Wheat-United States and Canadian, white and nized, 6s 4d@6s 10d, per 70 lbs. Red Wheat 5s 9d 26.61

(2686d. Corn-per quarter,-yellow, 32-white 23s6d@) 30. Corn Meal per bbl. 13@14s. The same influence mentioned above, has contri-buted to the firmness of the metropolitan markets Corrow-has been dull during the week, with a further decline of one eight to one fourth peace per nound.

er pound. The week's transactions amount to only 22,000 The week's transactions amount to only 22,000 bales, of which 500 were taken by speculators, and 4,300 for export... The closing quotations for Friday evening were: Upland Ordinary 34,031, Middling 4 d., Middling to Fair 44, Good Fair 5d, Good 54,031, Choice marks 6,061; Mobile Ordinary 34,031, Mid-dling 4,041, Middling Fair 44,044, Good Fair 44, Good 5; Sea Island Ordinary to Middling 7,081; Fair to Good 5; Sea Island Ordinary to Middling 7,081; Fair to Good 5; Sea Island Ordinary to Middling 7,081; Fair to Good Fair 10@11, Good to Fair 111@15, Stained 4@8d.

Provisions-Beel has gone off on retail only .--Pork is in limited demand, with receding prices for Western. Bacon sold ireely during the week, sup-porting 31s @35s. 6d. for Western. The market is considerable advanced. considerably reduced. Hams are dail, but Shoalders brought the careme price of 31s. a cwt. Turpentins.—Five tons American sold at 31s. 6d. per cwt. There was a sale of 1000 bbls. Rosin j Common Amber at 3s@36d per cwt.

Lard has advanced 6d, per cwt. Cheese-Fino qualities scarce and the demand doll. Money. — The intelligence of the blockade of the German ports Palerno and Venice has produced much fluctuation in Consols during the past week; but the market closed favorably on Friday evening at 924, Exchequer Bills 47e@50s premium. Foreign Exchanges for 3 months on Paris 25 for 50 centimes 655 fcs.; Hamburg 18 fcs. 111@121. Gold is 10,000 dearer in Paris than it is in London, and the general operations of the last week have been feeble. The revival of Continental disturbances have in-errupted every branch of trade Further accounts from the United States and India are anxiously looked for.

The general intelligence is of hostilities having re-commenced between Denmark and Prussia. The Danish army, in attempting to capture the fortress of Eckenford, on the 5th inst., were atterly defeated, and a line of battle ship and frigate fell into the hands of the Prossians of battle sh p A victory has been gained by the Hungarian forces over the Austrians. The latter lest: 1,300 men and 24 pieces of cannon. On the 7th instant Lord Palm ston received police of the blockade of Palermo by the Neapolitan Government. On the let of March the blockade of Venice, by the Austrians, was formally announced. A despatch of the 3d inst. publishes that a stric blockade of the German ports of Cammin, Zeren-mundic, Wolgast, Grifswaldt, Stralcind and Rostach mundie, Wolgast, Gritswaldt, Straleind and Rossaca by Denmark. Central Germany is in a state of confusion, the king of Prussia having refused the offer of the Em-perial crown made to bim by the small majority of the Frankfort Assembly. Renewed disturbances have riser in Italy--the basing subject subjects have riser in Italy--the people having gained a temporary triumph in Ge-noa and Tuscany, and prepared to resist farther on roachments of Austria Rome though quite is unsettled. The Pope still There was but one case before the Mayor resterday morning—and that one the consummate ragabond, Daly. He needs a workhouse residence the serie of his afficients. We understand Mr. Hewlit has withdrawn rom the Pittsburgh Theatre. The resease are preparing for a evival of trade. In Ireland Duffey's re-trial is proceeding but the result will not be known till to morrow. In the National Assembly of the French Repub-lic there are now 30 vacant seats in consequence of resignation-more than 60 members ar osition indisposition. The appointment of Chargarner to Legion of Honor will not be officially announced until it is known whether Evaignae will accept the same honor. Duchesne Editor of Le Peuple, has been sentenced to five years imprisonment, and fined 6000 francs. De Liscloe, Socialist, was sentenced three years, and Liscloe, Socialist, w fined 10,000 france. fined 10,000 trance. The Priess states neither Governments of the French or. British will take any part in negotiations about to be opened in Vienna for the conclusion of he Peace Treaty between Austria and Piedmo The Constitutional states, on authority of a letter from Perpegnan, that a sanguinary battle had taken non-rerpegnan, that a anguinary battle had taken place at Catalonia, between Royallet Chief Pone Bendelali and Cobrera, in which the two Ganerals were killed. Other accounts say that Cobrera, who had been wounded in the action, took refuge in a tavern, where he was put to death. A special er-press arrived on Monday evening with 250 London-ers, forming the first portion of the English especied on visit to the National Guards. They were re-ceived with honor by the authorities. on visit to the National Guards ceived with honor by the authorit habits, there is danger in the contact. It might be he had received no confirmation from his Governwell for the County Commissioners to appoint a ment, of the rumored prolongation of the Armistice

Trouble in the Whig-Wam.

ENBY CLAY. Upon this occasion the friends o

PITTSBURGH: from the East, and the novel scenery may be the FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1849. cause of your pleasure."

"Yes; this is my first trip on this river, Miss IF For Commercial and River News, see next Page. Orton, but I have ascended and descended the The Latest News, Market Reports, will be found under Telegraphic I North River, which you know is famed for its rich and romantic scenery, and I include all."

"There is an old saying, Mr. Hurcout, if I mis -take not, of this kind," replied Kate : ' Where there is an equal divide there is no robbery.' We are equal, I imagine, and consequently square with this exception, you have made two happy while I have afforded pleasure but to one."

This was said with a winning smile, and Henry's heart leaped for pure joy. "I was just wishing to-day, Miss Kate," con.

tinued Henry, " that our journey would never end."

" I am afraid, Mr. Harcout, you would become tired of your company on so long a journey as that, a poor opinion of replied Kate, softly.

"Try me, sweet Kate," was the quick retort of Henry. The words had scarcely escaped his lips of the act is the Philadelphia News. It says he was when Frank joined them, and in a few moments they descended to the cabin, where they joined in general conversation until the chambermaid began closing the folding doors, which separates the la dies' from the gentlemen's department. " This is a hint for us to leave, Frank," remarked Henry, as he took his hat and bowed himself out.

Next day, after dinner, the boat reached S-A back stood on the wharf ready to receive the Ortons. Soon their baggage was on shore-the time of separation was come in all its reality .-Henry was at the door awaiting the arrival of his friends. At last they came. He merely remark- was pat in. Comment upon this specimen of Fedeed, as he extended his hand to Frank, " You will ral consistency is unnecessary. leave us."

"Yes, sir. Thank God I am at home and alive." replied Frank. " Farewell, Mr. Harcont." "Farewell, my dear friend," replied Henry.

" Miss Orton;" he continued, " may I presume to take your hand in parting ?" Kate, without hesitation, took the extended hand. " Good bye, and remember the wandering Henry Harcout," he continued, giving her hand a gentle pressure. "I will, Mr. Harcout, and remember to call upon iums of Gen. Quitman.

us if you ever come here in your wanderings .----Good bye, Mr. Harcout !" responded the noblehearted Kate, returning the pressure. "By the way, Harcout," spoke Frank, as he furned to his friend, " what is to prevent me from hearing from you ?" "Nothing, Mr. Orton, except your refusal read and answer, replied Henry. "" If that is all; we will hear from each other often. So fare you well." "I will expect to hear from you first, Mr. Orto

W Our citizens are now suffering severely on Address me at W-----. God bless you !" account of the carrying out of an important part of By this time all things were ready, and the Or. the policy of the Whigs-we refer to the issues of tons went ashore, entered the back and were dripaper money. It is customary for our opponents to ven away. Henry kept his eve on the hack as it charge upon us that we have committed errors of ascended the main street of S-----, and until it various kinds, and thus like a certain fish, attempt disappeared. When he lost sight of it he turned to escape through the mud that they themselves stir away sick at heart, but could find no relief for his up. But we opine, that in this case the enemies of troubled mind from any object-he felt desolate Democratic principles will not endeavor to shirk the esponsibility. All this distress and embarrassment and dreary, and refused to be comforted. After ave been caused by he Whigs, and by them slone passing from place to place, and finding nothing For years the Democrats have protested against the to ease his aching heart, he retired from the issue of paper promses, and we all predicted the throng to his room, and throwing hinself on his "blow up" which our citizens are now experiencing. berth, with a sigh, exclaimed-"Would to God We trust this lesson will not be lost, . If the workshe was mine !" ing men, who have city scrip and other small notes

a their pockets, which are worthless to them, will Late that evening, Henry Harcout was landed only stop and reason a little with themselvs, they will at his uncle's residence. He found all anxiously surely discover that the system of small notes is so aconsistent with a healthy condition of society, that awaiting his arrival, and much rejoiced to see none but the deliberate enemies of the interests of him. Week after week passed away without his receiving Frank Orton's promised letter. Such the people can idvocate them. It is time for the Democratic party to make anoth neglect, for he could view it in no other light, was er vigorous wat upon this paper-money-swindle in wounding to his pride and hurtful to his feelings. all its shapes. A matters little whether the notes Owing to this, he began to think that he was deare issued by aties, counties or banks-banks of ceived in his new and much esteemed acquaintennsylvania of elsewhere -- they are made the inances. Their friendship, thought he, was only straments of fraid, they wound prosperity-in short steamboat friendship after all. Such was not the there can be acchance for an honest mechanic to Orton. He loved the former, and esteemed the | the true constitutional currency, is affoat. latter. His respect and admiration for Frank was We call upoy our Democratic friends in this State doubtless more on account of his connection, than any very peculiar excellency of character which he possessed. Frank Orton was a noble-hearted blew off steam at a terrible rate. The New York Express says that at this celebration " no mercy ever, eate was shown to the Taylor delegates at Philadelphia and the original Taylor men, some of whom were damned as accursed traitors to the whig party and to

In regard to these removal

We are requested to state by Mr. George hausted against the original Taylor men, and against Saloon, and there was some hissing between them Armor, that he signed the petition against the High some not original, who were restive under the at- and the original Taylor men. We quote a couple of School, not understanding its bearing. He is in fa- tack. Hisses were occasionally heard, but the rather significant toasts: vor of the High School-or any measure that will cheering ran riot whenever the name of Henry Clay add to the furtherance of General Education. was uttered."

Mr. Joseph L. White, (formerly a whig membe Proscription, Again. of the Senate of the United States.) renominated The removal of Simon Drum has caused a tre-Mr. Clay as President for '52, and thus vents his ire nendous fluttering among the Whige, both in this upon the Philadelphia convention : state and elsewhere. Some of the papers, pretend. " It was not by the act of God, it was not for the ing to speak from authority, assort that it was all a want of affection-instant, pressing, ardent, omni-present-throughout the land in the bosoms of men mistake. But how the mistake occurred we are not told. Others are out boldly in defence of the removal. We like this better-though we can have but but on account of a malicious, malignant, Hisso and loud calls for other speakers were here heard could be a speaker of the speaker of the speak out of the speaker of the speaker of the speak nant, eternal hostility that the nomination, that the man was defcated, and the hope of his friends, and the sense of justice and decenor in a man who can enrnestly defend such an outrageous act of proscription. Among the detenders the desire of the whigs of the Union, swept away by one fell blow. Yes, and that blow was wielded by the hand of traitors in the whig camp! By that removed for cause. Simon Drum held the office for forty-five years. This is the cause of the removal. blow, of the combined power of treachery and me andy, the friends of Mr. Clay were denied, their home; and sent forth to wander upon strange ground; and then, as a whig, a Clay whig, an ultra whig, [ap-plause.] I determined that whatever course others Now we profess to be in favor of rotation in office, but we find exceptions to all good rules. If the emoluments of the Greensburgh Post Office were great, then we would not object to the removal. Or. in their judgment and conscience might adopt, I a least would not cave in ; and I never have. "Mr. Clay was shamefully sacrificed in that con-Mr. Drum had not possessed peculiar claims and qualifications, we would have said but little. vention; assassinated, murdered in the house of his friends; and then after the nomination, the friends Canal Commissioner. The News in a P. S., gives other reasons for the friends; and then after the nomination, the irlends of Mr. Clay were asked to trample upon the grave where their hopes were entombed, and to shake hands with their idol's assassins. That deed was too emoval. In substance they are as follows : Simon Drum was a Democrat, and voted for Cass; say. more, he electioneered for him; he was opposed to full of sacrilege for me to do this, and rather than thus act, I turned aside from that path and cursed the assactions in my heart, as I curse them now ! !?? Gen. Taylor. For this he was put out, and a man vho electioneered for Taylor, and opposed Cass,

The Pittsburgh Gazette, " long, long ago," prohas sought to recover a forfelinge fessed to entertain the most profound regard for We have another complaint to make against this Mr. Clay, and considered him the "embodiment" dministration, on the score of inconsistency .-of every thing that was noble and patriotic. Will the Deacon be good enough to publish the speech tion Rooms this day, at 2 o'clock. By order of Some days ago it was announced that a certain perof Mr. White ? The "government pap" should John Fox Constable. son had been appointed Post Master at San Francisco, California; but no removal announced. It apnot prevent him from setting up a show, at least, pears that Col. GEARY was the man removed. We f being honest and candid. ne anxious to see what excess can be started for Hale's Rotary Engine. this removal. Col. Geary had just received his ap-We yesterday inspected a machine recently bro't by conversation. pointment. He was fully competent to discharge io our city, by Messes. Perdue and Williams, and the duties of the office. He served his country nobly we scarcecly remember when so simple a piece of n Mexico, for which he received the high encomachinery has caused us more agreeable surprise. By a very ingenious and simple contrivance, paper, the Pennsylvanian. vement has been produced, which acts as a comwe only desire our readers to bring to mind the mon lifting and Force Pump, as a Fire Engine, as a pledges made by Gen. Taylor and the Whig party Water Wheel, us a Ventiliator and us a Steam Eubefore the election, and compare them with their gine. We saw it tried in the first four mentioned conduct since they have ascended to power. It is applications very much to our gratification, and we sorry commentary upon the honesty of the men. understand that machinists have approved of the Can we hope for good from a party that in the first principle os applied to steam. two months of their greatness violate the only pledge We confess that we have little knowledge in me they made to the people, when they sought to be chanical science, yet the results of the experiments tried in our presence were truly remarkable. No description of ours can convey an adequate idea of its morits, and we recommend our friends 'to call and see for themselves.

The machine is now at the rooms, corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, and the gentlemen above named, will exhibit it to all who may call upon them. See Advertisement in another column:

Adam's County.

We learn from that unwavering Democratic pa per, the Gettysburgh Compiler that the Delegates of the several boroughs and townships of Adams couny assembled in the Court House, on Monday, April 6th, 1849, for the purpose of selecting a Delegate o the Pitteburgh 4th of July Copvention. The Conention organized by electing the following afficers President-HENRY KOSER, Esq. Vice Presidents-HENRY MYERS and GEORGE W LILLY, Esqrs.

Secretaries-Francie Lytle and Isaa: E.Wierman Esgra.

On motion, HENRY J. STAHLE, was unanimously chosen the Representative Delegate to the Demoap25:dtd cratic State Convention to be held at Pittsburgh, on the 4th of July next, to nominate a candidate Canal Commission On motion, Resolved, That this Convention concede the choic of the Senatorial Delegate to Franklin county.

steamooat friendung alter Bit. Such was not the there can be sochanged while such money, instead of Barnard McKinney, from Pittsburgh, fell overboard from the steamer Dr. Franklin, at the St. Louis levee, recently, and after floating the distance of two of and in Ohio, b move in this money reform once three squares was picked up in a yawl and taken to more. We are the more argent as we know that the police office, where medical aid was obtained many, very may, intelligent men who have always and the man soon revived sufficiently to tell his acted with the Whig party, are ready to unite with name and converse freely. He was afterwards tato Henry Harcout, as he promised — reasons which in plitical economy have been spread. — It's apposed that the great quantity of water drank would have satisfied Henry, and which were very Men are mee intelligent now than they were five whilst in the river caused his death.

's gallant Harry," uncorked their indignation, and blew off steam at a terrible rate. The New York Exoress save that at this celebration " no mercy declining prices have resulted. Many persons, how rtain the idea that they have seen the owest point between this and next harvest.

gencer says :

with the deceased.

business man, and has had considerable experience

Be Md'lie Alboni recently refused to sing at Par-

the London correspondent of the National Intelli-

Be The friends of Henry Clay in New York, celsciousness, when, bewildered at her frightful situa-tion she missed her footing, and plunged into the Henry Clay. The language of invective was ex- ebrated his 72d birthday by a supper at the Appollo current, became sverpowered and was carried to in reaching the bridge, still imagining herself in jursuit of pleasure, she awoke only when the dash The late Philadelphia Conventioning waters startled her with the realization that "Unjust decrees they make and call them just, And we submit to them-because we must?

nation should dwell upon this side of eternity .-The memory of Captain John Tyler-Phil. Times . "The evil that men do lives after them." 23 The lady of Godlove S. Orth, Esq., died We learn from the Bedford Gazette that the equisinfure passed a law, which Jourserow, cently at Lafayette, Indiana, very suddenly, Appa-

Legislature passed a law, which JAHARTON approved, paying General BOWMAN for all the time he was in office under the present highly exemplary State ad-ministration This is state a law of the state wor's wise allogation that General BowMAN's resig-tation was of no account, and that he did not re-gard him as Adjutant General. Why, then, pay him for services which he had no right to perform 7 Why sign a bill making such a provision. Oh ! nhirently in her usual good fiealth, she had stepped into ting widow laus, and there, was attacked by an hemoptysis, r bleeding of the lungs. Medical aid was immediately sent for ; but before it could arrive, she had expired .--Why sign a bill making such a provision, Oh ! philosopher and sage .-- Pennsylvanian. This intelligence will be sadly received by those in this city who had the pleasure of an acquaintance

THE CHOLEBA.-Our city is very healthy at the present time, but we learn that there were thirteen deaths from cholern on the steamer Bride during her late trip up from New Orleans. The deaths occur-CANAL COMMISSIONER .- Col. Charles Frailey, in announced in the Pottsville Emporium, as a candi red principally among German and Irish emigrants. We also learn of two deaths on the Yorktown. She date for Canal Commissioner, before the Democratic State Convention, which is to assemble at Pittsburg rived here yesterday .- Louisville Dem. 2 1st on the 4th of July next. Col. Frailey is a practical

THE WAR IN EUROPE .- The Turkish Sultan expects to have an army of 250,000 men assembled before autumn, with which to oppose the histile de-signs of Russia, so that the battles in Italy do not any means, settle the question of peace or war s, because boquets were thrown in greater abudance FIRST SPLENDID STOCK OF NEW SPRING GOODS. A. A. MASON & CO., ONE PRICE STORE-NO. GO MAKRET STREET, WHOLES ALE AND RETAIL. A. MASON & CO. having considerably enlarged A. their Store. for the accommodation of their in-rerasing business, are now prepared to exhibit to their Retail Trade the most extensive stock of rich and fash-ionable Imported and American GOODS they have ever offered in this eity. Their large Shawi Saloon, together with another room, have been altied up and added to their Retail Department, thereby giving them ample room for the display of their immense stock. Being constantly in the except of NEW GOODS from to a younger and more beautiful damse!, who performed second characters. Ronconi, the manager, be Our readers will tear in mind, the Constable Sale of splendid Farnitare at McKenua's Auc-

he Thomas Jefferson never spoke in public Being constantly in the receipt of NEW GOODS from their House in New York, they are enabled to offer the newest, latest and most desirable Goods, and at prices as low as any house in the country. Their slock consists in part of five hundred pieces of extra rich Berges, Tissues, Albannes, Delphines and Marquise. of new end extendions. did he ever write an article for the newsp pers. His principles were mainly infused among others by means of epistolary correspondence and carn nen. Bereges, Tissues, Albannes, Delphines and Marquise, of new and spiendid styles. Also, Poil de Cheare, Fowlard Silks, Mous De Lainës, Grenadines, Pekins, Braziliennes, Broche, Toil du Nord, &c., &c.-Six hundred pieces oi new and rich style Jaconets, Lawins and Organdies, spiendid designs. Seven hun-red pieces English and French Frints, Ginghams, Thallies, &c., &c. Col. Samuel D. Patterson, who was recently dismissed from office at Philadelphia, for "opinion's sake," has purchased in interest in that excellent

IT Notice,--In anticipation of the probable arrival of the Asiatic Cholera in our midst, the Sanitary Commit-tee of Councils take this method of urging upon every cltizen the necessity of an immediate and thorough allou-tion to classification to a the seminar.

tion to cleanliness upon their premises. Lef every occupant of property see that his valids, cel-lars, yards and kennels, are deansed and purified from all filth, and that all places which emit noxious and un-wholesome effluvia, be filled with Chloride of Lime, or other purifying agents. Attention to this notice is considered of the highest im-Pottence to every which ecompluse with the set in-WHITE GOODS. Cambrics, Jaconets, Victoria Lawns, Book and Swis Muslins, Tarletans, Fancy Checks, Linen Larons, Dot ed Muslins, Mull and Nainsook do., &c.

r capstan. As a Rotary Steam Engine, this machine has supplied ed Muslins, Mull and Natusook do., &c. LiNEN GOODS. Damasks. Covers, Napkins, Diapers, Hdkis, French Linen and Drills, Barnsby Sheetings, Swiss do., Irish Linens, best make and finish. BONNETS. A complete sesseriment of this. David M

A complete assoriment of China Braid, Florence, Dan-table, Rough and Ready, Straw, English Chip, Fancy, G. W. BIDDLE, Dentist-REMOVED to &c., &c.

 &c., &c.
 BONNET RIBBONS.
 125 boxes of Bonnet and Cap Ribbons of the h styles. Also, black and colored Taffeta and Satin, h quality. Also, Bonnet Silks, Linings and Artificials... HOSIERY, AND GLOVES. new three story Brick, on SMITHFIELD ST., one door low Sixth street. TEETH INSERTED, from one t whole sett, by Atmospheric Pressure, with a beau whole sett, by Atmospheric Pressure, with a beautifal representation of the Natural Our, restoring the Facz to its original shape. TEETH EXTRACTED, with little or no pain. Decayer TERTH EXTRACTED, with little or no pain. Decayer Territ permanently saved by uucarac, preventing the Tooth-ache, which is much bet-or than curing it, though it should be done in five min-les, or even instantly. Also, Bonnei Silks, Linings and Artificials. HOSIERYAND GLOVES.
 Every description of Ladies' and Gent's Hose and Gloves, Cravats, Scarfs, Hdikfs. Also, Berage, Gauze, Crape Tissue Volls, Black Lace, Demi Veils, &c., &c.
 Mew Visits and Mantillas.
 Of all the fashionable colors and styles.
 Lace Capes, Collars, Chemi-setts, Falencumes, French and English Edgings, Cam-bric do., Inserting, Belt, Ribbans, Linen Cambric and Lawn Hdkfs., Grapes, &c., &c.
 PARASOLS AND PARASOLETTES.
 More than Two Thousand Parasols and Parasolettes of every variety, including the best make of fine Satir-and Chameleon.

ID Attention, Duquesne Greys I -- A regu-lar Quarterly Meeting of the Company will be held at the Armory, on Saturday, evening, the 25th instant, at 74 o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested.

(ap26:3t) O. H. RIPPEY, See'y Western Insurance Company .--- A Mee

ing of the Stockholders of the Western Insurance Com-pauy will be held at the Monongaheta House, ou Tuess day, May lat; A. D. 1849, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing Thir-teen Directors of said Company; to serve until the first Annual Election in November next-in conformity with the Act of Incorporation. By order of the Commissioners. CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, Vestings, Summer Stuff ottoundes, Tweeds, Jenns. Also, Figurels Check

GINGHAMS, GHINTZ, PRINTS, &c.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.

PRICES OF ADMISSION: Dress Circle and Parquette Family Circle or Second Tier 50 cents DF BENEFIT and positively the last night of Mrs. ARREN, when she will appear in three characters... Mr. W. H. CRISP as Lord Hastings. Last appearance of Mr. FARREN. perfect sutisfaction. Merchants from all parts of t country are invited to call. A A MASON & CO., ap27 60 Market streeet, between 3d and 4th sts

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 27TH,

 Of Alt. PRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 27TH,

 JANE SHORE --Lord Hastings, Mr. Crip; Duke of Gloucester, Mr. Ozley; Jane Shore, Mrs. Farren; Lady Alicia, Mrs. Matison.

 TIME TRIES ALL; on, A HEART'S LESSON.--ME Leccon, Farren; Hany Fact, Miss Crip; Laura, Mrs. Farren; Furnishing Emporium, Farren; Matthew Batter, Wood.

 DANCE-By Master Wood.

 THE CHILD OF THE REGIMENT.-Saplice, Mr. Farren; Andersas, Mr. Kames; Madeline, the child of the regiment, Mrs. Farren.

 ID - Tomorrow avening, first appearance in this city of the highly popular Comedian, Mr. G. HOLLAND, who is engaged for five nights only.

 ILT - Doors open at 7; Curtain will rise at half past 7.

THOS. K. KITC J. D. WICE, R. MILLER

ays rumor there loudly asserts that "the member of congress from Allegheny will go to Brazil." A correspondent of the Gazette is severe on he petitionerg against the High School. Hall, Wood sized, between 5th and Virgin Alley. Privature Lodge, No. 338-Meets every Tuesday

MERCANTILE EXCAMPMENE, No. 37-Meets 1st and 3d ay of each month.

ID Economy...If you wish to save your money and buy a superfine HAT or CAP, call at FLEMING'S HAT STORE, where you will find a complete assoriment of the latest Fashions, CHEAP FOR CASH. WM. FLEMING,

130 Wood st., corner of Virgin alley mar23:y]

Hale's Patent Rotary Machine,

APPLICABLE TO THE USES OF APPLICABLE TO THE USES OF FORCING AND SUCTION PUMP, FIRE ENGINE, Staam Engine, Venilator, and Water Whed. THIS remarkable Machine was invented by ELISHA HARE, of New York, and bids fait to supersede, in all its above applications, the machines now in use. It has been visited by thousands, and tried in many of Its applications, mat its success has outstripped everything in the history of useful inventions. The compact form of the machine, its simplicity of construction and new ap-plication to all who are it

utation of established principles, render it an object o utalization to all who ese it. As a common Pump, for the suc of families, its portabil-ire Engine, are among its Engine, are among its advantages. It is equally all for all purposes to which Pumps can be applied on mboat or service.

leamboats or vessels, to supply boilers, washing of decks, sumping the holds, &c., &c. &c. For Mines and Hydraulic Works of all kinds, it re-Three hundred pieces of rich plain, figured and change-able Silks, of entirely new styles. Also, Black Silks for Dresses, Visites, Manullas, &c., of superior high lustre. For Mines and Hydraulic Works of all kinds, it re-quires less power to do the same amount of work, and is less liable to get out of repair than any pump ever be-fore invented. It throws a continuous stream of water, without the use of an air chamber or any complicated double acting apparatus.

Cashmere, Thibet, Long and square Shawls, Gros De Rhine, Pouli De Soie, Canton Crape, Silk, Berage, Sew-ng Silk, Wool Plaid, Grenadine and Muslin de Laine. WHITE GOODS. double acting apparatus. As a Fire Engine, not one half the number of menare required as upon the machines now in use, and they can work a much longer time without fastigne, owing to the manner of the application of the power—either by crank or capstan.

Attention to this notice is considered of the highest im-portance to every citizen, as a committee will be appoint-ed whose duty it will be to call upon every householder, and return those to the Mayor for prosecution for a nui-sance, upon whose premises filth may be found. JOHN M'GILL, Ch. S. O., ap27:1w Chaitman of Saainry Committee.

As a Notary Sizam Engine, this machine has supplied that great desideratum among scientific men, viz: abtain-ing a constant rotary action, which can be satisfactorily applied to practical purposes. As a Ventilator for Mines, Wells and Vessels, or a Blower for Furnaces, it is easily and efficiently applied. As a Water Wheel, working either by departing or en-tering water, it is something entirely new and eminently useful. It can be used as to obviste much of the expense in laying foundations of mills, digging of water courses &c., &c.. Fifth and Smithfield streets, entrance on Fifth st. Rights for individuals, Connies, &c., within the State of Pennsylvania, can be obtained of the subscribers, as above, and any information relative to it cheerfally given. THOS. H. FERDUZ.

ap27:1m

BUTATOES-35 barrels Blues, for sale by W. DYER.

GINGHAMS, GHINTZ, FRINTS, ec. More than two hundred cases of the best styles, and of every variety. Bleached and Brown Muslins, Over one hundred cases of all the well known and ap proved makes of Bleached Muslins, 300 bales Brown A by [ap26] W. DYER. TOW BAGS-5 doz., extra large size, for sale by W. DYER. ap20 YEFLOUR-35 barrels, júst rec'd and for sale by W. DYER.

proved makes of Bleached Musling, 300 bales Brown do, of every variety and price Purchasers may always depend (from the great facili-ties of this establishment,) upon obtaining the choicesis Goods at the most reasonable prices — the system of Low prices adopted by this establishment, as well as their One Frice System having met with such essential favor that the subscribers are enabled to offer still great-er inducements to purchasers. Every article will there-fore be marked at such low rates as camot fail to give perfect satisfaction. Merchants from all parts of the country are invited to call. A MASON & CO. K ap28 W. DYER. 4 CASKS CHEESE-Just received and for sale by ARMSTRONG & CROZER. AT MEAL SEEDS, FOR SOWANS-Our own man WHITE CORN FLOUR-A most delicious article fo Cakes and Puddings, constantly on hand and foi de by (ap26) RHODES & ALCORN, 30 Fitth St.

J. H. LAWMAN'S

J nocks, just rec'd and for sale by ap26 KING & MOORHEAD, Diamond.

MOLASSES-50 bbls. N. O. Molasses, just rec'd and for sale by [ap26] KING & MOORHEAD. Letters from Tarin to the 8th instant, apponnce thay after Gen Martora had hombarded G ture, constantly on hand and for sale by RHODES & ALCORN, 30 Fifth st tive to it cheerfally give THOS. H. PERDUE. D. H. WILLIAMS.

AUSTRIAN ITALY. AUSTRIAN ITALY. Brescia, or the remains of what was once the own of Brescia, is in the hands of the Austrians. The town was bombarded for six days, and the treets were carried at the point of the bayonet, and streets were carried at the point or the cayone, and the inhabitants driven into houses and barned alive The Alina Gazette of the 3d. contains a summary of the revolt, and capture of the town of Brescia. It says that small detachments were drawn from Vienna and Mantua in order to save the city from the anarchy fermented by the Camaggi: Rayham also repaired to Breacia, on the 30th alt, and let down before the walls with 33,000 men and 6 cannon, He offered terms of arrangements, which not being accepted, he divided his forces into five not being accepted, he divided his forces into five detachments, each of which attacked one of the gates; The artilery of the citadel opened its firs; at the same time the attack was terrible, as each house was taken by assault. But on the 1st instant the victory was accomplished. The Comordia mays the Austrians surrounded the town so that escape was immanible. The connor was imposible: The carnage was immensel: AUSTRIA. AŪSTRIA. Vienna Journals contradict the ramors of General Bereas' defeat by the Romans, and flight of his troops into Wallachia. It appears, on the contrary, that the Australn General, Packner, sprrounded by a hostile population, he though proper to resign his-command and place him under the protection of the Russians in Wallachia. Three other Austrian Gen-erals accompanied him. His troops were left behind under care of Gen. Zelliand. The Austrian forces at Constant were short of communication Cronstalt were short of ammunition, and preparing to return to Wallacha, their baggage having already left for that province. Bern was then in almost an disturbed possession of the whole of Transylvania, and preparing to take Cronstadt-the last city in the kingdom which is held by the Austrian troops. IRELAND.

IRELAND. Reports for last year from the District Poor Law Inspectors to the Commissioners at Dublin record a volume of misery the most distressing to glauce over. Every page of this book teems with evidence of ex-D. H. WILLIAMS. WANTED—A good School Teacher for a resucta-tion of the neighborhood in the country. Wanted, a good smart intelligent Boy, for work in an office and to go through our city on errands. Wanted, a middle aged Woman, industrious and willing to work. Money bor-rowed and loaned. All kind of Agencies attended to promptly for mode-religence Office, up indize, above Mr. Anshutz' Hai Store, and nearly opposite the St. Charles Hotel, Wood street. emplay patience of the unhappy peasanty of Cre-land under sufferings that have no parallel in the civilized world. A clergyman for the parish of Conant says this whole district is now almost a wilderness. Out of a population of 12,000 four years ago, scarce half remain, so that creatures that still ive and more here any state of the state still. live and move here may be termed rather an accu-mulation of dead and dying humanity, than what is generally meant by a population. Rev Dr Cooly, R C Prelate, died of Cholerand Droghida, on the 6th Angust. He was highly esteemed by all religious and individual periments np26 PPLES-40 barrels just rec²d; in fine order. For salt Ian26] W. DYER.

ind political persons nd political persuasions. FRANCE. The cholera is making sad ravages among the troops quartered in femporary sheds spected in Par-is. It is believed that the dampness of the weather contributed to the development of the discase.

5. It is believed that the contributed to the development of the disease, Measures have been taken for the removal of the troops to more healthy quarters. Letters from Perpegnan state that Count Montme-lin and his companions had been betrayed by a guide travely paid to conduct him into Cal-

HOMINY GRITTS Our own manufacture, an excel-lent article for Mush and Puddings. for sale by ap20 RHODES & ALCORN, 30 Fifth st. alonia, he was taken to a French village and hands AP20 HOMINY Our own manufacture, constantly on hand and for sale by ap20 RHODES & ALCORN, 30 Finh st. d over to the authorities. Letters from Poullen dated 9th, says : Pensoney Letters from Poulien antea Sin, says : Pensonsy of the Bughess arrived here with a strong guard j. Barbu and Albert are in the one cell, Blungar and Hlotte in another; Raspail Soubrier and Quentie in a third. The discovery had just been made that the club men and milmen had organized themselves so JOHN. S. HAMILTON, Autorney at Law-Office on Fourth street, between Wood and Smithfield, Pitts-ALENA POTATOES 500 sacks Galenn Neshan-

GENOA

as to be able to act as milin

