Letter of the Rev. R. Caldwell, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Pulask.

Missas: Hendershott & Stretch: Gentlemen I take peasure in adding my testimony in favor of the excellent preparation called Dr. Parish's Chinese Hair Cream; for, about two years ago my hair was very dry, bristly, and disposed to come out; but having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription; it is now elastic, soft, and firm to the head. Many balsams and oils were applied, each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations.

As an article for the toilet, my wife gives it preference over all others, being delicately perlumed and not disposed to rancidity. The ladies, especially, will find the Chinese Cream to be a desideratum in their preparations for the toilet.

From Rev. As Shinn, of the Protestant Alethodist. Church The undersigned, having been afflicted during the past winter, with a disease in the stomach, sometimes producing great pain in the stomach for ten or twelve hours without intermission, and having tried various remedies with little effect, was furnished with a bottle of Dr. D. Jaynes' Carminative Balsam. This he used according to the directions, and found invariably that this medicine caused the pain to abute in three or four minutes; and in fifteen or twenty minutes, every uneasy sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was afterwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were perceived, and the pain was thereby prevented. He continues in the morning; and in a few weeks health was so far restored that the sufferer was relieved from large amoun of oppressive pain: From experience, therefore, he can confidently recommend Dr. D. Jaynes' Carminative Balsam, as a salutary medicine for diseases, of the stomach and bowels.
