The public generally, who are out of sorts, may safely embrace this universal sugar-coates remedy, with the as surance that it is inconous, an anticlote to care, assuages gried, alleviates pain, does not interfete with duties of the day, speedily removes bile, and has been frequently known to reduce the most choleric to humour upon its first application: Besides, it reinvigorates the patient for next day's business. All ages, sexes and conditions have been known to experience sensible relief. Instances are rife of ten years being miraculously added to the life of an octogenarian, to say nothing of the well-known case of a lady in search of health having here stumbled on a good husband. No Patrat has been secured, as the ingredients, although famous in Europe and America, and here published to the world, are in the sole possession of this College of Pharmacy, and imposition is precluded by the fact that if the smallest of the component parts is sparious or inferior, the compound is invariably found to the nauseous and useless.

The ingredients are (harmless and yet how agreeable!) a Blast of the Orchestra, a nuclange of the exquisite Horsemanship of Mille Rosa; the starding backward Soversetts and perilous feats of Young Gieran Ros on his sadditless horse; the great Backward Tricks on horse-back, and Somersetts and Balancing upon the Tight Rops py Master Jean; the Indian styles of Equintion by It Signor Lutin Greenant; Equipment of Payment, Nacue, Haviland, and Mesdames Rice, Madican, Huffer, and Nache, in equal parts, and a TEASI TEASII TEASIII BANK NOTES.

FOR WHEELING, CINCINNATI & LOUISVILLE The From William Richards, M. D.—I feel constrained, from a sense of duty, to make the following statement, conscious that it may appear unprofessional. Mr. Chas. Wade, of this city, was quite low with Polmonary Consumption, with which I had been treating with less than usual success. At his request, and that of his friends, I permitted him to try Dr. Dogers Liverwort and Tar, and I must confess that its effects were really surprising. After using the second bottle, my visits were discontinued, and he was soon restored to health. I do conscientiously recommend my brother practitioners to prescribe this remedy in all pulmonary complaints which baile the cadinary mode of treatment.

Rev Mr. Caldwell to Mestrs. Hendershott & Stretch, Nashville, general agents for the Southern States:

Letter of the Rev. R. Caldwell, Pastor of the Fresbyterian Church, Pulaski.

MESSES, HENDERSHOTT & STRETCH: GERTLEMEN—I take pleasure in adding my testimony in favor of the excellent preparation, called Dr. Parish's Chinact Hair Gream; for about two years ago my hair was very dry, bristly, and disposed to come out; but having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription, it is now clastic, soft, and firm to the head. Many balsams and oils were applied, each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations.

As an article for the toilet, my wife gives it preference over all others, being delicately perfumed and not disposed to rancidity. The ladies, especially, willfund the Chinese Cream to be a desideratum in their preparations for the toilet.

Respectfully, &c.
