Wards, Boroughs or Townships, at very low prices. Golden News from California; We publish elsewhere in this day's paper very nteresting news from California, extracted from the New York Tribune, a skeleton of which we presen ed to our readers a few days since by telegraph .-This is altogether the most exciting intelligence which has yet reached us from the gold fields o California, and will create a fresh thirst amongst those who have had their eyes turned towards the 'land of promise." When Lieut. Beale reached New York, Wall street was the scene of the most atense excitement. The Herald states that he was pestered to death with the crowds anxious to hear from California, and see his lump of gold, &c. In California. save the Herald. on the authority of Lieut. Larimer : Beale, "There was no end to the gold. Its richnes and abundance more then confirmed all previous accounts. Although he himself brought a piece weighing eighteen pounds, Lieut. Beale assures us that he has seen a lump actually weighing 25 pounds He says that everybody is getting rich in Califor nia-that common laborers can almost make a for Licut. Beale was the bearer of official despatches for the Government, and arrived at Washington city on Wednesday evening.

Grand Flare Up. As is usual on such occasions, the whig Primary Meeting in the Third Ward on Saturday night, was | buying Scrip with them. The public had botter b the scene of a grand and magnificent flare up, in which "all the decency" displayed their harmony and unanimity to the fullest extent. The meeting is said, by those who were present as spectators, to have been one of the most disgraceful and villanous affairs that has ever come off in the glorious old Third. At an early hour in the evening, a few friends o one of the candidates for the Sheriffalty, assembled at the School House, and proceeded at once to organize the meeting, by the appointment of cut-and-Harnden & Co..... dry officers. Daniel M'Curdy, clerk of the Courts, was called to the Chair, and two young gentlement appointed Secretaries. Delegates were put in nomination, and the meeting proceeded to a selection by marking, the contest laying entirely between the candidates for Sheriff. The friends of one of the candidates seeing but a poor show for their man-
