without intermission, and having riced various remedies without intermission, and having riced various remedies with little effect, was furnished with, a bottle of Dr. D. Jaynes' Carminatice Baisam. This he used according to the directions, and found invariably that this medicine caused the pain to abate in three or four minutes; and in fifteen or twenty minutes, every uncary sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was afterwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were per-ceived, and the pain was thereby prevented. He continu-d to use the medicine every evening, and sometimes in the morning; and in a few weeks health was so far re-stored that the sufferer was relieved from a large amoun-of oppressive pain. From experience, therefore, he can condicatuly scommerd Dr. D. Jaynes' Carmingive Bal-sam, as a salutary medicine for diseases of the stomach and bowels.
