Derangement of the Mails. The Post Office Department has been wretch ly managed since the Taylor Whig party have obtained power. We are aware that derange ment to a certain extent, must follow any change but the universal and inexcusable blunders and bac management, in that department of the Govern ment have of late become insufferable. We have borne with it patiently, hoping that a change for the better might take place; but we have "hope without hope." Our subscribers are constan complaining of the non-receipt of their papers Pittsburgh Post Office. Now, what are we to do, to remedy this wrong? It is out of our pow er to detect and expose the delinquent and careless agents of the Government, who have been put in office, by the present imbecile administration Every Postmaster will endeavor to exhonerate himself from censure. But still the outrageous wrong is contibued. Collimar, and Warren are too busily, engaged in cutting off the heads o Democrats, to pay the least attention to the wants of the people. But, thank heaven, a day of reckoning will cone; and the lazy and worthless persons who are now doing so much mischief, will

AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY The accounts from the operations in Hungary confused and contradictory. It is admitted that the treacherous Ban of Groating Jellachich, has been completely defeated by the Magyars under Bem. It appears that Bem crossed Frontzecans with 50. by storm, and after a series of conflicts, which last ed four days, compelled the Imperialists to raise the siege of Paterwarden and evacuate Beisko. The troops of the Ban of Croating dispersed by d feat, and diminished by sickness, make no headway against those who marched south The Imperialists fear that Bem will en and Vonia. The Ban of Crotia had been driven over the Dan ube into Servin.

The Servian Chief, Kuick Kanim had been f ced to leave his position at Sitili General Hay the Ban. Bem at the head of 100,000 men entered Zombe amid the acclamations of the people. From a Bulletine issued by Prince, Paskewich published in weiner Zeitung, we have his version o the sharp action which which occurred on the 7th at or near Waitzen, between General Gorgey, and

Bulletin states that on the 15th the Hungarians marched upon Waitzen then occupied by the Russian Regiment, which according to former orders, fell back as Gorgey's force advanced, at night Gorgay occupied a strong position before Waitzen.-His army was estimated at 43,000, with 120 pieces of artillery. He was attacked by the advanced Guarda of the Russians under Sass, but the powerful artillery of Gorgey failed all attempt to dislodge him. The cannonade on both sides was severe. The Hungarian cavalry made neveral violen barges on the Russian outposts. On the 16th the nain body attacked Waitzen. Notwithstanding desperate resistance the Hungarians were compelled o evacuate the town with the loss of two standards, two pieces of artillery and 500 prisoners. In the course of the pursuit it was found the Gorgey's vanguard only had been engaged, and

It is said, however, that he will afterward proceed to Rome in the exercise of full spiritua outhority. It is not stated how the French Army is to be paid; but it is reported that the Emperor of Russia had offered to His Holiness Ten Millions without interest, the principal to be paid at the rate of half a Million annually.

The American Consul at Rome had not resun his functions since the outrage that had been com mitted on his official immunities. Garribaldi was at Owritor on the 17th of July, and had levied a tribute of £2,000 on the inhabitants of that place, after which he took up a position in the neighborhood of Ticali. The people were collecting in different parts of the country and forming pands of armed men, with the design of joining
