Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best of medicines for the cure of Fevers, because they pargefrom the body those morbid humors which are the cause of every mataly incident to man.

In cases of fever, from four to eight of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills should be taken every night; or, if the symptoms are violent, night and morning. This plan, if properly carried out, will, in a short time, subdue the most violent anack of fever; at the same time, the digestive organs will be restored to a heathly tone, and health and vigor given to the whole frome.

1. Death show a stient Cold.—By neglecting those salutary precautions which common some dictates, many, very many, fall victims to their imprudence. We have seen the young bride, blooming as it were, as the bird of paradise and the fair flower of hope, the pride of her faither and the joy of her mother—her cheek flushed with anticipation, and her eye beaming with the soft expression of love—the gay dreams of life dancing on her faincy with the rich and variegated this of the rathbow's promise. We have seen all this changed—aye, the wedding garment for a shroud, and the bridal chamber for this sepulchre of the dead; and all this from neglecting a common Cold. Now, before it is too late, use Dr. Rogers' Licervoot and Tar, which gives immediate relief, as thousands of our most intelligent families now admit of its most extruordinary cures. The gay, the beautiful and the young, speak forth its praise, and will, so long as it makes positive cures, and cheers the despairing family firestide.

Dr. Rogers' Licervoot and Tar not only makes remark-Greside.

To. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar not only makes remarkable cores of Consumption but it is warranted to break up the most distressing Cough in a few hours ume, or the money will be cherrfully refunded.

From Rev. Asa Shinn; of the Protestant Michodist Church
The undersigned, having been affilted during the past winter, with a disease in the stomach; sometimes producing great pain in the stomach for ten or tweive hours without intermission, and having tried various remedies, with little effect, was furnished with a bottle of Dr. D.
Jaynes' Carminative Balsam. This he used according to the directions, and found invariably that this medicine caused the pain to abate in there or four minutes; and in fifteen or twenty minutes, every measy sensation was entirely quieted. The medicine was interwards used whenever indications of the approach of pain were perceived, and the pain was thereby prevented. He continued to use the medicine every evening, and sometimes in the morning; and in a few weeks bealth was so far restored that the sufferer was relieved from a large amounof oppressive pain. From experience, therefore, he canconfidently recommend Dr. D. Jaynes' Carminative Balsam, as a salutary medicine for diseases of the stomach and bowells.
