Hungary is now the central point of interest; and from that country intelligence, although meagre, is eedingly satisfactory. Our previous reports of ecisive advantages gained by the Hungarians over their combined enemies are fully confirmed, and even the London Times, with all its prejudices against them is forced to concede in a striking and interesting article that the advantage thus far rests with the Hungarian Generals. It is evident that they are men of extraordinary military ability, and they will maintain themselves nobly, and we cannot but hope successfully in their nnequal contest into which the oppression of Austria and the ambition of Russia have plunged them. In Rome, affairs remain in statu que.

Sr. Louis, Aug. 17. True bills have been found against Joseph Wilkinson and George Moore, for the murder of Negro John. They were arrested yesterday, and hold to bail in $13,000 each. Capt.
