THE IVY GREEN. The Morning Post. For the Morning Post. The Sisters of Charity,

The Clergy of St. Louis, Mo.

Ma Enross—An article appeared in a late number of your paper taken from an exchange, in which the most flattering compliments were paid to the Sisters of Charity, who so faithfully ministered to the sick and dying, during the prevalence of the Cholera in St. Louis, while their conduct was contrasted with the Clergy of the Protestant Churches, of whom it was remarked, that "many of them with their families sought, in flight, that protection which their families sought, in flight, that protection which their families sought, in flight, that protection which the single of the Student demanded of the Faculty and the Students of Washington College. The Student demanded of the Students against the repetition of similar impropriates. Falling, in the opinion of the Faculty, to observe the injunctions of the caution placed upon him, the young man's father was written to on the subject and requested to withdraw his son from the College. The Student demanded of the Faculty and addressed his father. The Faculty informed him A Fuss among the Students. "The True Polley."

If there is one subject which more than all others deserves the attention of the cilizens of this country it is the Turiff—there is nother equal to it. Important Verdict.

Our readers doubtless remember that while the Rev. Alexander Campbell, President of Bethan

(Va.) College, was on a tour through Scotland in 1847, he was arrested and imprisoned in Edinburgh, through the agency of the Rev. James Robinson, for having, while discoursing on the subject of slavery, uttered sentiments obnoxious to that gentleman. The affair produced considerable agitation in this country and in some parts of Europe at the time of lignant persecution and false imprisonment of Mr. Campbell. This suit has recently terminated, and the result is a decree of the Lords of Council and Session in favor of Mr. Campbell for two thousand
