Even as the stream is flowing
To the sea with ceaseless motion, Never wave its current knowing, Pass our lives to sorrow's ocean Weep'st thou, Hope ! unhappy mother. O'er thy dead child Misery ! Let us sit by one anoth

And our moan shall coho thee Yot though Hope herself were dying, ... In despite of Love and Glory, ... Our crush'd lives beside her lying, ... Should maintain the same high story Yet, Oh Hope I thy ghost shall lead us-

Thro' the grave of Time's commo Till they give to our devotion Victory. SPARTACUS. SABBATH. BY T. SWAIN.

To him for who his day a week, Can rarely call an hour his own, How sweet to watch the Sabbath break, And bless the light that heaven hath thrown And oless the light that neaves naturally oblivelcome more than tongue can name!

The dearest more that greets our soil,

Is that the Sabbath bells proclaim,

Which shots the busy world of toil.

From morn to eve-from morn to eveing but for work alone; Oh, Heavens ! it is a blest reprieve.

To have one day to call our own One day to breathe a wider span Unfertered by the bonds of trade, To leave the plodding world of man, To view the world which God has made. Fremont and his Men. The following description is extracted from new work entitled "Four years in the Pacific in burgh. her Majesty's ship Collingwood, by Lieutenant the

"During our short stay at Monterey, Californi

Hon. Frederick Walpele, R. N.":-

Captain Fremont and his party arrived, preceded by another troop of American horse. It was a rty of scamen mounted, who were used to scour e country to keep off marauders. Their efficacy as sailors, they being nearly all English, we will not question. As cavalry, they would proba-Their leader, however, was a fine fellow, and one of the best rifle shots in the States. Fremont's party naturally excited curiosity. Here were true trappers, the class that produced the heroes of Fennimore Cooper's best works. These men had passed years in the wilds, living on their own rees; they were a curious set. A vast cloud of dust appeared first, and thence in a long file emerged this wildest party. Fremont rode ahead, dry. The saddles were of various fashions, though | mestic production. All unnecessary taxing should hese and a large drove of horses and a bross field gun; were things they had picked up about Cali-fornia. The rest of the gang were a rough set; They are allowed no liquor—tea and sugar only; this, no doubt, has much to do with their good even in the open air. The Indians lay beside heir leader. One man a doctor, six foot six inches high, was an odd-looking fellow; may I' never come under his hands!

Sharp is the knife, and sudden is the stroke, And sorely would the Yankes formen rue, If subtle poignards, wrapped beneath the cloak, Could bluit the sabre's edge, or clear the cannon' They were accordingly marched away into citizens. In justice, however, to the Americans, must say they seemed to treat the natives well rities extended every protection English fellows, of high principles, of course.

Louis Napoleon's Projected Marsloge.

The European papers speak coate confidently of the inleaded marriage of Louis Napoleon, Presi-dent of France, to the deughter of the King of Smeden Charles John Sweden. Charles John present King of Sweden, is the son of Bernad ofte, the only King made by Napoleon, whose dynasty survives. The family of Europe, and are distinguished for amiability, liberality and are distinguished for aminability, including the condemnation of that party. Accordingly, the fresident of France, is we find that most of the master-spirits during an designed as a stroke of policy, which may or may not have weight, It is not unnatural for Louis Napoleon to desire to connect himself with the most substantial remains of his uncle's glory. ecidedly of the class called nonveaux homthat of the Emperor. Once fallen from its pres-ent high estate, there is no recovery for it. Then in what a situation would be the Princess Royal and prostrate man, who married her for interest, tender marriage happy. In fact, considering how ieve that a sensible man, such as the King of Sweden is reported to be, would permit his daughter to marry such a man as the weak and dissolute

HORRIBLE TREEDY IN THE BERKS COUNTY PRISON.—The hospital of the Berks County Poor house has been the scene of a bloody tragedy which is almost imparalleled in the history of bu-man actions, involving the destruction of a fami-ly, consisting of a wife and daughter, by the fath. and his death by suicide, after he had throat of the daughter; a girl some 18 years old, with the same instrument. This shocking and sanguinary deed was committed in one of the chambers of the Hospital, occupied by the unfortunate victims for the last ten months, on Satur.

They also created three new Judgeships for the same day evening last, between seven and eight o'clock ny, and his conduct has always been marked with priety, but may have been led to the act by the nopeless committion of the wife, who is insane, and and that of his daughter, long confined to her bed ness, and unable to utter a word. The wife made her escape from the chamber, with her neck dreadfully lacerated by the razor, and her head battered with the hammer, the handle of the battered with the hammer, the handle of Tuesday the 9th of October." which broke in an name, when the overseer en-tered, he found Stahl reeling to the floor, and in-stantly expired—the daughter ay in her gore on ter, Dr. Witman, held an inquest on the bodies, and the jury reported in accordance facts as here related.—Reading Press. The Morning Post

L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Circulation 1200 Daily. PITTSBURGH: MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1849.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOHN A. GAMBLE, Allegheny County Democratic Ticket WILLIAM VINCENT, Butler County.

JONAS R. McCLINTOCK, Peebles.
JAMES C. RICHEY, Robinson.
JAMES SCOTT, Elizabeth.
THOMAS MOFFIT, Allegheny City. JOHN D. MILLER, South Pittsburgh. JOHN COYLE, Pittsburgh. THOMAS BLACKMORE, Birmingham J. D. W. WHITE, Pittsburgh. ANDREW McCLEESTER, Findley LENOX REA, Pittsburgh.

Tickets. The Democratic ticket, for Allegheny County, is ow printed at this office, and ready for delivery.-Our friends in the country are requested to call, and get a supply for the different voting districts. We have the pleasure of informing our readers, that our old and faithful Local Editor, James). Thounsurch, Eeq., who has been spending some months in Ohio, has again returned to the city, excel that of any other paper published in Pitts-

RAILROAD IRON---FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE. It has been constantly asserted by the panic the Railroad Iron manufactured by our own countrymen. It now seems, however, that this English and, this is a sorry business. Iron is very inferior in quality, and bears no com-that is offered here to our Railroad Companies at and sinners, call for any letter that may be advertisactive looking man, with such an eye! - $40 per ton, has been found so inferior in quality, ed, that you collect off them a tax of two cents he was decreted in: blouse and leggings, and wore as to be dearer than the domestic manufacture is a felt bat. After him came are Indians, who were his body enard, and have been with him at $50 per ton—and the probability is that a trial should they be sorely displeased, say unto them that who were his body guard, and have been with him through all his wanderings; they had charge of two of the foreign low priced article will prove two baggage horses. The rest, many of them blacker than the Indians, rode two and two, the rife held by one hand across the pummel of the saddle. Thirty nine of them are his regular men, saddle. Thirty nine of them are his regular men, the rest are loafers, picked up lately; his original the rest are loafers, picked up lately; his original from the State will see from this that the difficulty complained of 11. And he sent to White and Robert to comfort men are principally backwoodsmen from the State of Tennessee and upper waters of the Missouri. He has one or two with him who enjoy high reputations on the Prairies. Kit Carson is as well known there as the Duke is in Europe.

The dress of these men was principally a long loose coat of deer skin, tied with thongs in front; trousers of their own manufacture. It is not desirable that the difficulty complained of is not in the Tariff, and that the British cannot him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel, shook the ends of his fingers, and exclaimed: Am not I a pharasec?

The dress of these men was principally a long to the profit. It is not desirable that the difficulty complained of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel, shook the ends of his fingers, and exclaimed: Am not I a pharasec?

11. And he sent to White and Bobert to comfort use, the him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel, shook the ends of his fingers, and exclaimed: Am not I a pharasec?

12. Now Robert comforted Sanuel and early the head of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White only put his thumb to the end of his nose, looked crosswise at Sanuel and the latter of him. But White o trousers of the same, of their own manufacture, should be so high as to raise the price on consumers, merely to add fortunes to those in the do-be avoided, as far as possible." In the Ledger of the 19th instant, we have the statement. The whigs have used this English Fron humbug to create political capital quite long enough. The Ledger says: "the Camden and ings of conscience. Amboy Railroad Company have ordered five hunills, near the town, under some large firs, and dred tons of Railroad Iron of the Trenton Iron of six or works Company, at something over fifty dollars per ton, in preference to buying British Iron at $45 per ton. Here is more evidence that the cheap foreign iron sent into this market cannot The party, after settling themselves, strolled compete with the better and cheaper though high, into the the town, and in less than two days passed in drunkentiess and debanchery, three or four. not elanse, before quality will be made an object with purchasers as well as price, and as soon as be no more protection, the iron business will be about as active as it usually is, and quite as oros instances of that remarkable tact, we have heard of and the contract above proves it. Fortunes, perand threw on the withering imputation of being Britishers, with an intensity of scorn that must have been painful to himself; on inquiry, he was found to be a deserter from the Marines. In fact, harder than farmers, we don't see why the farmer should be taxed to make them rich sooner."

Strange Resuscitations. One would suppose that the flagrant abuses perpetrated by the federal party under the administration would have consigned to inglorious retirement the Bernadotte he se always commanded the respect of ruption, which men can practice, is bad enough to forfeit the confidence of federalism, or bring upon administration, which forms the darkest page in the himself with the history of Pennsylvania, are placed in office, or put forward to positions, showing that they are still hon-This association is doubtless looked upon as add- ored and trusted by the federalists. Stevens is ing to his own standing throughout Europe. The elected to Congress, Penrose is appointed by Gen. in, if there is any in the case, is en Taylor assistant secretary of the treasury, Burden is a federal candidate for the legislature in the city, though decidedly of the crass cause nonveaux nonmes, is far nobler than the present representative of the Napoleon family. The Berdanotte dynasty is, as far as we can judge, as firmly established as any in Europe. The Louis Napoleon dynasty Taylor at Beaver, Middleswarth is the defeated federal candidate for canal commissioner, and thus we might go on to the end of the chapter, and show that all the authors of the bank bill, the extravagant appropriations and the buckshot war, are still high in the favor of federalism. But the galaxy of stars we present is sufficient—the group cannot be equalgreat the risk that must be incurred, we cannot led—so many such men never before cotemporaries We hope the old and middle-aged will recur memory, and that the young will look into their his tory. With a party who honor and trust such men.

public virtue and private purity are at a discount. The Oppressive Acts of Whiggery. The Bedford Gazette copies an article from the Post relative to the infamous letter tax imposed updreadful wounds upon the head and throat of his with Taylor whiggery. Last winter Gov. Johnston wife, with a razor and hammer, and severing the measures of Gov. Johnston's administration. The Farmers will be called upon to give their opinion on

Frederika Bremer, it seems, did not a

The Whig Letter Tax:
This morning the letter list will be found publish The Whig Letter Tax: d in the Gazette and Journal, in pursuance of infuctions from Gen. Taylor's Posimaster, General and Mr. Roseburg will exact FOUR CENTS from the workingmen of Pittsburgh for the benefit of these Federal papers. This is a specimen of the Reform? Whigs have introduced! How do the whigs like especially the workingmen who voted for Zachary Washington? At the request of some good whire friends of ours. vho have become sick and tired of that party of roken promises, we republish the following from late number of the Morning Post: A STRAY LEAF. And it came to pass when Zacharian, surname was " Washington?" commenced to reign, ie appointed a pharasce by the name of WHITE to publish the letters which were directed to those Gentiles who were too poor to own a box in the Post Office; and the Gentiles were charged for the publication two cents; which sum was to be paid to the fornia on the 2d inst., and vessels were awaiting at harasee, though his paper was read exclusively by Sentiles and common people. 2. Now this order of king Zachariah sorely displeased a Scribe by the name of ROBERT, whose surname was Riddle, and he threatened to raise a re- note of dismissal was received. The elegant new rolt unless the king also would give unto him a share | furnitue is to be sold at auction-

3. And the king had a cunning servant named COLLAMER, who lifted up his voice and said : O ZACHARIAH live forever! Behold thy servant hath thought of a plan by which the Tylerite ROBERT will be appeared and remain one of thy faithful 4. And the king said, Speak on. 5. And COLLAMER said : Behold on looking over the chronicles of the kings who reigned before thee, I find that there is an obsolete law which we can and resumed his place in the office. It will be his construct, so as to give to Robert the printing of the night of the 18th inst. His health is very maambition to make the Local department of the Past | the letters, so that he also can be rowarded after the | terially improved. manner of the pharasee. 6. And the king enquired : On whom will the tax fall? I have too many faithful servants to reward for the money to come out of my treasury. 7. And COLLAMER answered and said : It will whigs that the Tariff of 1846 is "ruining" the fall on thine enemies the Gentiles, and on the publi-Iron interest in Pennsylvania. In proof of this, cans and sinners only. I will direct the Postmaster these croaking politicians have pointed to the fact | SAMUEL to give ROBERT the printing, for though his that England Railroad Iron has been imported into paper is read by the same scribes and pharasees who the United States, and sold at lower prices than take the paper of White, still a few of the publi-8. And the king Zacharlab scratched his head, and parison to the excellent article turned out by our as follows: O Samuel! the king commandeth that the letters shall be given to the Tylerite also; for 9. Now Collamen wrote to his servant Samuel The Philadelphia Ledger (money article, Sept. | would be not otherwise be an enemy? And we 10,) says: "the English Iron, we have understood, command you that when the Gentiles, the publicans, is truly an unheard of thing that thou bast to do, bu I must have my bread and oil, and I will get thee ou of the difficulty the best way I can; are they not sinners who pay the tax? 13. And SAMUEL answered: It is true they are not of the class of the people who fare following facts, which fully confirm the above sumptuously and have well filled pockets, but nevertheless we should deal justly with them. Every day I feel how hard a thing it is to silence the whisper-14. And ROBERT in a consoling voice replied : O

SAMUEL! call to mind the proverb of THADEUS useful in enses of this kind. Did he not say kick conscience to the d-1? 15. And SAMUEL took ROBERT by the hand saying Thou art a scribe of much wisdom, Rosent, and I

The remarkable tact, talent and popularity of it is found by the parties interested that there can some of the whig leaders frequently elicits the mos unbounded admiration; and among numerous other ductive as pursuits no more protected. We have one which occurred during the recent visit of the inderstood, in favorable positions. Railroad Iron great Fully to our city, which certainly, for sagacity and depth of cunning, exceeds anything we have he ard. "Intellectual Feathers," plias the gid to the Major General, and his friend and pitcher, the handsome Pension Agent, decided that Henry M must get the Native vote ;-so " Intellectual Feathers" took Henry under his arm, and they proceeded, not once, but twice, in the same day, to a book store not a hundred miles off, where dwells two eading Natives. Henry bowed and smiled, and said the Pension Agent looked very solemn! Whether they went down to see Col. Sahl immediately afterwards, or not, we cannot say. But seriously how degrading must be the thought, that the candidate of a party in an entire State, should be thus seen loading about, begging the votes of every faction, and bartering away every feeling of manly integrity. Henry when you come out again on an electionering tour don't let "Feathers" handle you !

The railway commissioners, in a report which they are proparing to be laid before parliament, esmate that at the end of 1848 rather more than £200,000,000 (two hundred millions) had been exended upon railways: that the companies retained ower to expend upon authorized railways £140,-000,000 (one hundred and forty millions,) and that six pears. It is also estimated that roads costing £50,000,000 will be abandoned. Hence it follows that in four or five years the sum expended on railways will amount to nearly £300,000,000, or three hundred millions of money. An English railroad, in favorable situations and with a double track, costs and $\circ{\coloredge}{\coloredge}$ coloredge. Some persons to counterfeit this valuable medicine. The original and genuine American Oil is obtained from a well in Burksville, Kenuicky from the sole and coloredge. £50,000,000 will be abandoned. Hence it follows

News and Miscellaneous fiems.

Mr. Donaldson, our Minister at Frankfort, will n a short time, it is said, receive his letters of recall, not on account of any objection to him, but because it is deemed expedient that the mission to the The Capada papers announce that Lord Elgin, the Governor General of Canada, has in his possession documents tending to implicate several eading politicians in a charge of treason, in regard o the anexation of the Canadas to the United States. General Guyon, an Irirh soldier, is the last leader of the Hungarian forces who holds out in the open field. His force is not large, but he is sworn not to surrender until free egress is granted to the foreign auxiliaries of the Hungarian cause. The Isthmus was bare of passengers for Cali-

Panama the arrival of others. The steamer Oregon rich men of his own sect, and not by the barbarian took the last, including the editor of the Panama Star. So the paper is defunct. The French minister, according to a Washington letter, had just furnished his house when the Martin -Lane, cashier of Cambridge Bank. Boston, has in his garden an Andrews pear tree, which has borne three crops this season, and is now n blossom for the fourth time.

The Ladies of Peterboro', N. H., have ganized a lodge known as Monadnock Lodge, No. 1. of the Independent Order of Odd Ladies. They will ride the goat sideways, of course. We learn from the Lexington (Ky.,) Atlantha Mr. Clay reached home from his Northern trip, on

The Corn Crop in Washington county, Md., notwithstanding the long protracted drought, and contrary to all expectation, will turn out a good half crop. So says the Hagerstown News. The row at Toronto last week, was in con-

Queen, and then others three cheers for Lord El. New Counterfeit Fives on the City Bank, Province, R. I. have made their appearance. Vignette, a female and eagle, female on each end; unlike the genuine, well calculated to deceive. Three bills of this description were received by a broker in while the rowers of the "Fashion" are not loud in In Troy on the day of election Mrs. Emeline Prescott shot two large hawks, which had nefarious nclinations towards her poultry. One of them was struck at the distance of seventy yards, and was ry. nearly four feet and a half from tip to tip. The Cleveland Herald announces the

10. And when SAMUEL got the letter of Collames nessed the operations a few days ago of an apple get at some stolen goods which remain in the office. place, that pares with ease thirty apples in a minute, and far better than any machine hitherto in

The Washington monument is now forty fee above the surface of the earth-22; feet of marble.

7; of gneiss-and it is expected that it will be caried up this season some sixty feet in height. Ber The Gallipolis, O., Journal understands that J. J. Coombs, Esq., of that place, has declined the appointment of U. S. Attorney for Oregon, and has eccived and accepted the appointment of chief The Captain General of Cuba has strictly fo bidden every periodical, Spanish, French and Enwhose surname is Stephens, and you will find it very glish, printed in this Republic, to be introduced ino the Island. The only exception to this rule is a small paper in New York called the Chronica. France and the American Federalists.

An eastern paper says: "The federalists of the prezent day possess a hatred towards France equal to that of their predecessors from 1801 to 1812. They endeavored, by every possible means, to induce President Madison to declare war against France instead of England.— Even in Jefferson's time they were continually annoying his administration in their efforts to procure a rupture with the French nation. The Federalists of the present day desire a quarrel with that Gov ernment, if they had confidence sufficient in them we say, in concussion, that the data, with France, which the Whigs have raised, will, in our belief, never be realized during the period of the present blustering Administration." News for the Californians. Here is a specimen of the manner in which ru- change this is!

more from home reach the diggers at the mines. I is from a letter to the Tribune : " It is further rumored that there has been a tre leading Natives. Henry bowed and smiled, and said he took The Sun, the leading organ of Nativism in Philadelphia, and intimated that Kimber Clearer would withdraw, that Kimber was his friend and all that; but we understand that the Natives put their fingers to their noses and said that Kimber would not withdraw, so Henry and "Intellectal Feathers" went away with any thing but pleasant feelings, and the Persion Agent leaked was resulted to secure your passage through in New York. be careful to secure your parage through in New harness, &c. &c., man, horse and buggy were really and the secure your parage through in New harness, &c. &c., man, horse and buggy were really and the secure your paragraphs.

in sailing vessels who had suffered greatly and were from ninety to one hundred and twenty days reach-ing San Francisco. It was a time of general health when this letter was written. No outbreaks or disturbances had arisen, and very little trouble of any kind. The writer says, "I have not yet seen a drunken man able to work, he must have capital to operate with.

All accounts thus agree that hard labor awaits the greedy digger."

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. We are called upon to record another melancholy accident on the Portage Railroad, which occurred on Friday last, the 21st inst., near the Halfway house. David M. Mason, in attempting to jump on an empty truck while under full headway, was thrown on the track and several cars passed over his body, killing him instantly.— The deceased was a resident of this county for sevthe extension of time which has been granted will allow this expenditure to be distributed over five or years of age.—Ebensburg Sentinel. NOTICE EVERY ONE WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

about £10,000 per mile (848,000.)

RACE BETWEEN A MAN AND A MARE.—A late London paper states that Mr. Seward, (probably Stannard,) the great American runner, and the Post relative to the infamous letter tax imposed upon on our citizens by the whigs, and adds: "Here is a stamp tax fastened upon the people to nourish a federal newspaper! But this is in perfect keeping with Taylor whiggery. Last winter Gov. Johnston and his party in order to satisfy as many greedy mouths as possible, actually created several new offices in the Senate, of which they had entire control, and filled them with red-mouthed coons—their salaries to be paid out of the people's Treasury.—

They also created three new Judgeships for the same being, except the whig Lawyers that wanted to be in a fact which should be particularly noted. No human being, except the whig Lawyers that wanted to be whige of Bedford contend that this is one of the wise of a bill so infamous in its character. The big of measures of Gov. Johnston's administration. The latter than the mare went over a winner, but only whigh of asking for the passage of measures of Gov. Johnston's administration. The big of measures of Gov. Johnston's administration. The big of measures of Gov. Johnston's administration. The latter than the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet in which each bottle is enveloped, and likewise notice, that the latter than the latter than the latter than the latter than the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet which the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet thus: "D. Hall & Co., Kentucky." Another way of detecting the counterfeits abroad to prefer the whigh and address is printed in each pamphlet in which each bottle is enveloped, and likewise notice, that the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet in which each bottle is enveloped, and likewise notice, that the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet in which each bottle is enveloped, and likewise notice, the proprietors address is printed in each pamphlet in which each bottle is enveloped, and of detecting the counterfeits is the difference in the price. The genuine is sold invariably at 60 cts. per paged in deciphering a very long letter from M. de gaged in deciphering a very long letter from M, de are sold at various prices under.

Tocqueville, the Minister of Foreign Affaire. Ru
The Pure and only Genuine American Oil is sold fall, and continued during yesterday. We now hope for high water and a revival of business.

LOCAL MATTERS.

MERCHANT'S EXCHANGE. During a sojourn of a few days in Eleveland we had an opportunity of witness-ing the operations in the 56 Merchant's Exchange? of that city. When we took into consideration the Fermanic confederation should be suspended, at fact that Cleveland is but a small place, comparedleast until European politics shall have assumed an with Pittsburgh, our surprise was great that the buaspect more favorable for permanence and stability. siness man here had conducted themselves so long. without a similar institution.

> Room has been opened, and a most competent gentieman, Mr. S. FAHNESTOCK, has been elected Su perintendent. So far as the name goes, Pittsburgh has a "Merchants' Exchange." But no farther, a yet. Why is there so little interest taken in the natter by those who are to be benefitted ? Some say that when trade revives, the Exchange will flourish. We hope so indeed. But an effort must vet be made to give a start. Buyers and sellers must agree to meet together. They may find the business rath-

REGATTA. The announcement previously made that a race would take place between the "Fushion". and " S. W. Black." drew forth an immense crowd on Saturday afternoon last. The conditions of the civil reacounter are known to the public. All present on the wharf seemed to be inspired by a sort of rowers, 3' who beat for sport the river's tiny wave ;"

tor's wrenth-money was at stake, and in great bulks. At about 41 o'clock the barges appeared beneath the Monongahela bridge and at the signal started—the "Fathion" dashing ahead at once, the "Rilack"? nection with a bailet by Mad. Clocca, at the close pushing on strongly and steadily. The result could not be anticipated. The crowd awaited their return in impatience. In quick time they arrived—the "Fashi on" still ahead. The judges reported that she came in 34 seconds before the " Black." All passed off well. There were no angry feelings and but few excuses by either party. The Black's crew magnanimously acknowledge their defeat.

tem could be discarded in these conflicts for maste-

CAUGHT. On Friday evening last officers Scott and by an unusual noise at an outer door. They at once The officers heard footsteps on the stairs leading t the Tombs. One followed the track, while the other staid out to head the intruder. In a moment the John Tolemanche, Esq., member of the British Parliament from South Cheshire, is traveling in protested innocence. But notwithstanding, the key of the state House protested innocence. But notwithstanding, the key N. B. CRAIG, President. the night. In the morning the Mayor heard the case, and disposed of it by imposing a fine of $5, which the fair one promptly paid, and took her departure. She told her story first. We did not hear her de Allegheny City will hereafter be blessed with more healthfulness than has heretofore been her portion-on account of the hydrant water. It nov flows through many of the streets and lanes, and the citizens are fast availing themselves of its proximity to the dwellings.

We are told that water has been thrown as high as eighty fect from the hose. If so, the Engine will be offices importance than heretofore, for a proper distribution of pipes through the city will enable the citizens to guard against the spread of flames. Many heavy conflagrations may, and will, be prevented by the prompt use of hose.

brance the doings of Allegheny politicians during Jackson times, will recollect the rathless hostility that existed between Major D. Lynch and N. B. Craig, Esq. No man at that period could have cuspected that the time would ever arrive when these two gentlemen would be in caucus together, scheming for the same end. But so it is. On Friday

| Mr. Robinson. | Adriented Simon. Mr. Robinson. Mr. Robi night, Lynch and Craig took a hearty shake of hands at the Free Soil meeting over Robb's shoe store, and indulged in a very comfortable laugh over the seemingly ludicrous incident. What a world o

HAZARDOUS EXPERIMENT.—A gentleman who wished to do a notable act and thus gain admission into the "Order of Notables," started into the Allegheny river, north side, a little above the old bridge, on Saturday, with horse and buggy, determined to wade of swim across. He got over in some way but met with difficulties in gaining the wharf on this side. In endeavoring to scramble up, the horse fell -and for a few moments there seemed to be a catastrophy on hand. But by timely aid, cutting the FREE SOIL MEETING .- SENATOR CHASE .- The new Ohio Senator, S. P. Chase, Esq., arrived on Saturday evening, and took lodgings at the Monongahela House. A few of his political friends got up a meeting for him in the Diamond, which was opened by a short address from Mr. P. R. Sawyer-when J. . Wills, Esq., arose and announced that Mr. Chase had arrived, but was too much fatigued to appear. Mr. W. stated that on this (MONDAY) evening Mr Chase would address the citizens on the subject of slavery, in the Diamond Square. LARCENY .- Lieut. Justus, of the Night Police, day morning, where he was charged with having stolen a coat and a vest from the Dyeing establishment of Borbidge & Nicholson, St. Clair street .-The clothing was found on him. He had no word to say in self defence, and did not look as though he could have eaid much any how. After the hearng he was committed for trial. The stolen articles belong to a gentlemen who had left them to be dyed. There were four cases before the Mayor on Saturday morning. A woman was among them charged with "pugilism." She was sent up for ten days. The others were common cases—so very common as to be unworthy of special notice.

We understand that Mrs. McLEAN, an actress an Oil is sold fall, and continued during yesterday. We now hope on a sold for high water and a revival of business.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was false.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was false.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was false.

On Friday evening last, according to notice, it friends of Free Soil met in the room over Mr. Robb Shoe Store, on Market street, 10 consider the im-portance of the coming State and County elections The meeting organized by calling Nevicus B Stevenson Secretary. The object of the assemblage was then explained by the chairman, when a com mittee, consisting of John A. Wills, P. R. Sawyer, and Eber Townsend, was appointed to draft resolu

Through the exertions of the Board of Trade, er "up bill work" for a few days, but perseverance can accomplish any thing. Of course, if there are any merchants in this city, who prefer a system of petty swindling to an honorable trade, they will discourage the Merchants' Exchange; for with its success they fall. No scheme can be devised better calculated to keep pure the commercial relations of the city than the one just commencing under the auspices of the Board of Trade.

Free Soil sentiments had made during the presen and past year. progressive approaches towards our Platform a principles, manifested by both the great parties justify us in abandoning our distinctive organization as a party, but a full and entire adoption of our enthusiasm. Sedate old men were again boyish in their edgerness to witness the rivalry between the the whole principles, without abating one jot or tittle of while the boys-big and little-were in the fulness

Resolved, That we hereby re-publish as our politi-cal creed, the principles and measures contained in the Buffalo Platform, and that no party can expect our support or alliance, which does not honestly and unqualifiedly adopt it as their own. of joy. It was more than a mere contest for a vic-Resolved, That as Free Soilers, we can not Resolved, That our position as Free Sollers is so clear and simple, that no one who honestly desires to understand it can possibly mistake it—that we simply demand the Divorce of the general Government from all connection with Slaver, either State or National, and an honest exercise of its existing powers to effect that end.

Resolved, That while we would not knowingly while the rowers of the "Fushion" are not loud in their excitations.

It is expected that many more races will come off those who desire to co-operate with us in establishing the destrict of the second of the sec

Resolved, That we approve of the nomination made by our Free Soil triends of Butler Co., of Mr. Wm. Vincent, as candidate for the State Senate, believing him to be an honest and active supporter of Resolved, That under existing circum not prudent to nominate candidates for the other offices, either from our own ranks or from the tickets of either of the other parties; but that it is left to culprit broke out at the back door, and fell into the arms of Scott—who scanned the countenance and which may be furnished of their attachment to Free.

WM, E. STEVENSON, Secretary. We notice Mr. WEBB, the tragedian, in tow and we will probaby hear from him soon. Holmes has received Peterson's edition

Free Soil Meeting.

ions. After the committee withdrew, the meeting was addressed by W.E. Stevenson upon the impor

ance of united and energetic action, and in favor

The committee, through its chairman, then ported resolutions, which, after some discussio

After the adoption of the resolutions and so been empowered with the authority, appointed the following gentlemen: John A. Wills and T. Morgan.

On motion, the chairman, N. B. Craig, was unani nously appointed by the meeting, one of the vigi

On motion, the city papers were requested to pub

The meeting was large, enthusiastic and spirited and highly pleased with the rapid progress which the country-but nothing will satisfy us, nor can lish the proceedings of the meeting.

The following are the resolutions:

were adopted unanimously.

the great principles embodied in the Buffalo Platform.

Marryatt's "Phantom Ship." IF Free Soil Meeting .-- Senator CHASE, o, not having arrived in the City in time to speak bemogratic Pree Soil Meeting, which assembled i hamond on Saturday evening, will address his fel place and bree Soil friends, This versions. Oysters! Oysters Il-The subs teep up constantly (at the Monongahela Exchange) from this time, FRESH OYSTERS, which he will serve up the very best style.

By C. CAMPBELL, sep18:tapr

Cor. of Smithfield and Fourth style. Dress Circle and Parquette Second Tier Last night of the Ballet Company, Monnay, October 1, will be presented a new pie OUR NATIONAL DEFENCES

Thereas and Mons. Schmidt.

IJ Tucsday, Benefit of Signora Ciocca, and last appearance of the Ballet Company.

Time Alterne—Doors open at 7; Curtain will rise at half past 7 o'clock, precisely.

J. H. LAWMAN'S

SHIRT MANUFACTORY, Gentlemen's Furnishing Emportum
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
NO. 68 FOURTH STREET, APOLLO BUILDING
BETWEEN WOOD AND HARKET SETEETS, 1TTSBURGH, PA.

Maker line.

Having just returned from the Eastern cities with a list supply, selected with great care; I am prepared it sell at Eastern prices, and with this advantage to the outper-expecially of Watches—that he runs no risk from the want of indoment, either in audity, price or fishion. ny present attention and Fourth sts.

ID WATCH REPAIRING.—Special attention is given to this branch. Having superior workmen engaged, I can confidently guarantee all work to give the aged, I can confidently guarantee at satisfaction.

GOLD PENS MANUFACTURED.—Having made arGOLD PENS MANUFACTURED.—Having made ar-angements to manufacture Gold Pens, 1 will acre-tantly on hand a large supply of the best qualities. (octl-31) W. V. WILSON arrested a miserable looking man, named THOMAS THE subscriber, Agent for the house of JOHN KELLY & Co., successors to Robb, Urnebrener & Co., Tallors, 102 Chesimus treet, Philadelphia, begs leave to announce to the chizzens of Philadelphia, begs leave to announce to the chizzens of Philadelphia, begs leave to announce to the chizzens of Philadelphia, the sa survived in this city, where he will remain a very short time.

Gentlemen vishing their measures taken will please drop a line to octivite St. Charles Hotel, Wood st. RILEY, and brought him before the Mayor on Satur-A DESIRABLE COUNTRY RESIDENCE FOR repair. 110 33,500; terms favorable. S. CUTHBERT, Gen. Agent, Smithfield street New Flouring Mill.—The Dispatch says that a company has been organized and is now looking up a site, for the purpose of erecting a large Flouring Mill.

JOHN KENNEDY, Agent,

SIGN OF THE PLANE AND BAW

No. 78 Wood street, Pittsburgh All TUBER & LAUFMAN, Importers and Dealers in Formand Domestic Hardware, in all its yarieties, are now prepared to sell as low and on as reasonable terms as can be practiced, and the public generally, to call and examine our stock, which consists in part of Knieze and Forks, and they fled.

Honge Horses.—The Chronicle notices two horned horses, from the Rocky Mountains, that passed through town.

TOOLS, TOOLS—HUBER & TAUFMAN, No. 78 Wood street, have just received a splendid stock of CAPENTER'S and JOINER'S TOOLS. For sale low.

TOOLS, TOOLS—HUBER & TAUFMAN, No. 78 Wood street, have just received a splendid stock of CAPENTER'S and JOINER'S TOOLS. For sale low.

ME We understand that Mrs. McLean, an actress of considerable celebrity, has been engaged and will appear this week.

RAIN! RAIN!—On Saturday night rain began to fall, and continued during yesterday. We now hope on high entertainty of the saturday of the saturday of the saturday of the saturday of the saturday. We now hope on high entertainty of the saturday of the saturday.

News by Telegraph! Reported for the Morning Post

Latest from Sants Fc. CRAIO, Esq., to the chair, and appointing Wm. E. MORE INDIAN OUTRAGES-NEWS OF THE OVERLAND TRAINS. , Sr. Lours, Sept. 29.

James Brown, Esq., Government Freight Agent, arrived from Santa Fe on last night, having been twenty days on the route.

The market for dry goods continued dull, but a onsiderable demand prevail ed for grocerles. Two Americans were killed by the Apaches at Los Vegas on the 5th of September. The Indians stole twenty of the government horses; and at the same time, two hundred miles on this side of Santa Fe, forty Anapsahoes attacked Mr. Brown and robdiscussion, a motion was made and carried, to ap bed him of everything on the next day, however, point a committee of vigilance. The chair having they gave back some mules and left him. Some California emigrants fornished him with provisions. Col. Alexander, commander of Santa Fe, and Col. Washington, had gone against the Indians. Bent was at Taos. Major Stein had a skirmish with the Indians, and was was wounded in the leg.

Bent's Fort was lately burned by the Cheyenne Indians, in the absence of William Bent. Several men, who were in charge, are supposed to have been murdered. Several Californian trains met Col-Munroe with two hundred and fifty dragouns and infantry, for Santa Fe, at Walnut Creek. The trains were all getting on well. Goods were plenty. The Resolved, That we feel highly gratified with the progressive approaches towards our Platform and Indians were everywhere hostile. Much political excitement prevailed at Santa Fe, relative to the Convention entrusted with the form of the State Government. Latest from New York.

SEVENTERN-OF-THE-OPERA HOUSE RIOT

ERS CONVICTED NEW YORK, Sept. 29. On last evening seventeen of the Astor Place rioters were convicted. The following named parties received the sentence of the Court, on last night-Judson, alias Ned Buntline, was sentenced to twelve amused or satisfied with the simple declaration of Judson, alias Ned suntline, was sentenced to twerve hostility to the extension of slavery; but that this declaration must be coupled with an assertion of the existence of constitutional power in Congress to prevent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension, and both the necessity and the Provent its extension. Bennett, George Douglass, and James O'Neil were each sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the

> NEW YORK MARKETS. [NOON REPORT.]
>
> Flour. Transactions to day have been moderate, without any material change; market vather dull.
>
> Grain. A good deal doing in Wheat; prices are advancing.
>
> Provisions. Nothing doing worth notice. Market steady without any sales of consequence.
>
> Lard. Market quiet, with regular, sales at 51,264.

Lead. Declined Whiskey. Firm at 28c. NEW YORK MARKET

(Evening ageograf)
New Young Sept. 29.
Flour.. There is a good home and Eastery demands without any material change in prices, we note saids at 94 95@5 00@5 12 for common and straight Grain. . Limited sales wheat at 122c advance. on and Ohio.

Cotton. Prices have nevanced fully lc. since re-k

CINCINNATI MARKET CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.
It is now raining. The river is slowly receding.
Flour has advanced to $4,20 for new; 4,50 for

Whiskey. Sales at 20c. EUROPEAN AGENCY

No. 150 Library Spragger Proposed of the control of THE Board of School Directors for Wiking Town-ship will meet in the Public School House, in Wil-kinsburg, on the 8th-day of October, in 1 o'clock, P. M.; or the purpose of examining and employing Teacherst for seven districts. Persons wishing to apply for situations as Teachers, will meet with the Board at the line and place above and the line and place above and the line and place above as the line and place above as the line and li

ORANGE PREL 425 hs., just received and for sale by H. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. RHUBARB ROOT—200 Bs., just ree'd and for sale by B.A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. CHRE 20 lbls. Yellow, just ree'd and for sale by sen29 B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO. OFRIS 20 1018, Leilow, just rec'd and, for sale by sep29

PALOUR SULPHUR—1,300 bs. French, just rec'd and for for sale by [sep29] B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO.

DICHROM. POTASH—500 bs. just rec'd and for sale by [sep29] B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO.

DERCUSSION CAPS—400 bt. G. Ds. 200 bt. M. S. 200

M. S. B., received and for sale by 15. Wood street.

Supernders—300 doz. Gum Supenders received and for sale jow by T. K. MACKNIGHT & BROS.

Sep29

T. K. MACKNIGHT & BROS.

Sep29

T. K. MACKNIGHT & BROS.

T. K. MACKNIGHT & BROS.

Sep29

THREADS—2.500 doz. Spool Course received and for sale jow by Spool Course received and for sale by Spool Course received and for sale

THREADS 2,000 doz. Spool Cotton, received and for sale low by T. K. MACKNIGHT & BROS. sale low by T. K. MACRNIGHT & BROS., 1822

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS of Allegheby County No. 58, March Term, A. D. 1849

Elizabeth B. Browne by her next.) Libel for Divorce, friend Henry Kennedy vs. Edward A. wincillar matrice.

O. Browne.

Take notice, that whereas a writ of calias subpount gave libel for divorce at suit of your wife, Flyntheth B. Browne, by her next friend Henry Kennedy, was issued, out of the above mentioned Cont., rested at Filtabeth B. Browne, by her next friend Henry Kennedy, was issued, out of the above mentioned Cont., rested at Filtabeth B. third Monday of June next thereafter, and whereas, on the return of the sale alias subpoun, proof was made that you could not be found in said County, now you are hereby required to be and appear in your proper person at the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny Comity, oil the 4th Monday of October next, being the first day of the next term of Said Court, 10 answer the petition for libel of your said wife, and shew cause, if any you have why she should not be divised from the bond of mutting on.

nony. John Tones divorced from the bond of mari-nony. JOHN FORSYTH, Sheriff: Office, Pittsburgh, Sepi, 17th, 1849. Elizabeth B. Browne by her next friend
Henry Kennedy, ex Edward O. Browne
Application for Divorce

Application for Divaree

And now, to wit, September 15, 1849, the Contrappoint Robert Morrow, Esq., Commissioner to the depositions of witnesses to be produced on part of fibellant;—three weeks notice of the line and place of taking the same to be given by publication in the "Priesburgh Fost," a paper

New Books I New Books I

JUST RECEIVED ATM A MINIERS, by Express
Sartain's Union Magazine, for Colober,
The Poetical Works of Lord Hyron—illustrated.
No. 1 of the new and elegan illustrated edition of the Dramatic Works of Shakepeare. To be issued in nume, bors, at 25 cents cancel Mistory of Pendensis, his Fortunes, and Mistoriunes, his Friends, and his foreign its friends, and his foreign its friends.

No. 1 and 2 of the History of Pendensis, his Fortunes, and Mistoriunes, his Friends, and his foreign its friends.

Thistory of the Penden Beautiful Mistory of Pendensis, his Friends and Mistory of the Pendensis. by W. M. Thuckeray.

History of the French Revolution of 1848, by A. De .

Love in High Life, a story of the "Upper Tent"—by T.

Love in High Life, a story of the "Upper Tent"—by T.

Starthur. Price 25 cents.

Dombey and Daughter. Price 25 cents.

Ada and Elline, or the Two Nicces; by Mrs. Grey.

10.000 Almanaes, for noxityear.

If Smithfield at. opposite Brown's Hotel. sept 9

WILLIAM DARTS.

Therefore, all well-dressed men patronizable before and in more in a sponge being altached to the cork, to lay the liquid on the brush, and in a moment you can polish your boots without sailing your ingers. Manufactured and soft wholessle and testal by the inventor, on Penn street, near Walnut, Pittaburgh, and by shoemakers generally throughout the United Status. A libertal discount allowed to wholessle dealers. Price 20 cents per bottle, which will last one man a year angest in Administrator's Botles:

NOTICE is hereby given that Letters of Administration on the estate of Robert Thompsor, late of No blestown, Allegheny County, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned. All persons indebted to said de